LAKEVIEW, OREGON, FEB. 11, 1904.

President Roosevelt has had a mountain ridge in Alaska named for him, Roosevelt ridge. The ridge was recently explored and christened by Dr. Frederick A. Cook.

Rev. Edmund Dowle, for nearly a quarter of a century chaplain of the Massachusetts state senate, has resigned his position and Rev. E. A. Horton has been chosen in his stead.

Colonel William Heinhold, a veteran of two revolutions and comrade of Carl Schurz and General Franz Sigel, is dead at Salt Lake City, aged 81. He was one of the leaders of the German revolution in 1846 and was exiled from his country. He went to France and there espoused the cause of the commune.

Should trouble arise in Wastchester county, New York, Sheriff Merritt will have an opportunity to call upon four millionaire deputies for aid. These men are Howard Willets, Paul Gilbert Thebaud, Mayhew W. Bronson and Frederick W. Flint. The sheriff says he chose these deputies because they are good men, each of whom has assured him that they are ready for any emergency that may arise.

One hundred citizens from Michigan called on the president recently to invite him to attend the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the foundation of the republican party under the Oaks at Jackson. Frank Hosford, a Michigan democrat, came in. "Hello, Frank!" said General Alger, "won't you be lonesome here with 100 republicans and you the only democrat?" "No," said Hosford. "That's about the usual majority in Michigan."

Senator Allison of Iowa, famed for his conservatism and his compromises, was at a recent dinner party. Along in the evening, after the game had been served and the glasses filled several times, an admirer of the senator came over to him, put his hand on the senatorial shoulder and said, between sobs: "Allison, if you had ever in your life hit a man a good stiff punch in the slats and called him out of his name a few times you would have been president of the United States."

Lieutenant Lorenzo Alexis De Clairmont, a young American soldier of fortune whose home is in Denver, recently left for Guatemala to accept an appointment as captain on the personal staff of President Cabrera. De Clairmont, a strapping broad shouldered young man, was promoted to a lieutenancy while fighting in the Philippines. He comes of noble Franco-Spanish ancestry, speaks several languages, comes of fighting blood and is happiest when in active service.

Richard Onley of Massachusetts will be 69 on September 15. Grover Cleveland will be 66 on March 18. Alton B. Parker of New York will be 52 on May 14. Arthur Pue Gorman of Maryland will be 65 on March 11. David B. Hill of New York will be 61 on August 29. George Gray of Delaware will be 64 on May 4. William J. Bryan of Nebraska will be 44 on March 16. President Roosevelt of New York will be 46 on October 27. John Hay of Ohio will be 66 on October 8. Marcus Alonzo Hanna of Ohio will be 67 on September 24. William H. Taft of Ohio will be 47 on September 15.

Maps of the seating arrangement in several Chicago theaters will appear on the asbestos curtains when the theaters open. Several managers have decided on this scheme of making the patrons familiar with the location of the exits.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr. J. Huggins of Melbourne, Fla., writes, "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by Lee Beall Druggist. Price 50c & $1. Trial bottles free.

Forty years ago the farmers owned 55 per cent of the wealth of the country. Such has been the advance in manufacturing and railroad building that they now own but 21 per cent, though there has been no decline in agricultural values.

Appreciation of good acting is strangely expressed in some parts of Japan. The theater patrons throw portions of their clothing on the stage, and after the performance redeem the articles, the money going to the actor or actress who has excited their admiration.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Lee Beall.

So effective is the life saving service of the United States that from disasters to 246 documented vessels on the coast during the year, having 3862 persons on board, only 29 lives were lost, and of the $9,000,000 worth of property put in jeopardy, but a little more than $1,000,000 was lost.

The Examiner has for sale one of the best stock ranches in Lake county on very reasonable terms—600 acres, all fenced, and well watered. This is a great bargain and will not remain long unsold. We also have a dozen other ranches and farms to dispose of. If you have any land or property to sell, list it with the Examiner. Send in description and we will sell it for you. 38tf

A novel rescue from a drowning accident was that accomplished near Orono, Me., where a railway engineer pulled up his train and allowed a lot of his passengers to hurry down to the river and pull out a lad who had broken through while skating.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Parker Triplett, of Grigsby, Va., says that Chamberlain's Pain Balm gave him permanent relief from rheumatism in the back when everything else failed, and he would not be without it. For sale by Lee Beall.

Captain Mahan professes complete inability to forecast the outcome of a war between Russia and Japan. He has this to say on the subject: "Each little match you have in your pocket has the power of starting an immense conflagration. You start a fire—you can not tell where it will stop. So it is with war. Any nation may begin one, but none can do so knowing what the end will be—what effect it will have upon the world's maps."

When You Have a Cold.

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Lee Beall.

Pre-nuptial Confidences.

She was an exacting Philadelphia young woman, and before she would promise to marry him he had to answer a great many questions relating to his past life. He thought he had given her a very fair account of himself, but just when the wedding ceremony was about to take place he remembered an omission, and, fearing that she might have cause for future reproach, he whispered in her ear:

"Mary, there is one thing I have not told you yet. I am a Universalist. Does it matter, love?"

"No, I guess not, dear," said the bride serenely. "I am a somnambulist."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Better Than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Lee Beall.

How Nye Knew.

State Senator Shirley of Maine was reminded the other day of his first meeting with the late Bill Nye. The conversation naturally turning to the state of Maine, Nye remarked that he was born in the town of Shirley, in the senator's state, adding that doubtless the town had been named for one of the senator's ancestors.

"I replied," said the senator, "that I didn't know that there was such a town in Maine as Shirley."

"I didn't know it either," said Nye, "until I was born there."

A Human Clod.

Tess—Some men are awfully slow, aren't they?

Jess—Yes, and they're so aggravating! There was one sat alongside of me coming downtown in the car this morning.

Tess—You weren't trying to flirt with him?

Jess—Gracious, no! But he was reading a novel, and he was never ready to turn the page when I was. —Philadelphia Press.
