

Now Wouldn't That Jar You?

When you read the advertisement of one concern they'll tell you because I give Premium Coupons I have to charge more for my goods than they do, and another concern says to you in their advertisement that they don't hire any clerks and don't live like men ought to live, and that is their reason why they can sell you goods cheaper than I can.

These same self-styled merchants may as well tell you in their advertisements that they don't patronize the barber nor the tailor nor the butcher nor the printer, nor anybody, and that they are saving so much money that they can give their goods away for nothing and still make money because they don't live.

My Argument is Plain. I Sell

Standard Tomatoes for 15c a can; American Sugar Corn for 15c a can; 2 boxes Best Bluing for 25c; 2 pas Celluloid Starch for 25c; 2 pounds Corn Starch for 25c; 2 pounds Laundry Starch for 25c; 12 pounds Evaporated Peaches for 1.00; 3 cans Sugar Peas for 50c; 3 cans of String Beans for 50c; Schillings Best Roast Coffee for 25c per pound; Schillings Best Soda for 10c a pound; 10 pound box Soda Crackers for 85c; 3 packages Challenge Mush for 50c; and many goods in like low proportions.

If you know of any store in Lakeview that will give you better goods for the same price or the same grade of goods for a less price than I do I would not expect you to come here.

Everything I sell is GUARANTEED or your MONEY BACK.

Charley will "cut out" exercising for awhile.

RABBITS ARE SLAUGHTERED

Another Big Rabbit Hunt Indulged in by the Lakeview Club and Many Bunnies Die.

Another big rabbit hunt was organized in Lakeview last week scheduled to come off last Sunday provided the impending storm did not prevail. Twelve men on a side were chosen, but when Sunday arrived only fifteen had the courage to go owing to the threatening condition of the weather. The latter was everything that could be expected, especially for one who stays in the house.

No sooner had the hunters reached the scene of slaughter than a driving snow storm commenced and continued throughout the day. But a Lakeviewite was never known to be "cold footed" or show the white feather, and the consequence was that the storm had very little effect on the hunters. The score was even greater than the Sunday previous as the count will show.

New snow had fallen in the sage brush to the depth of 4 to 8 inches and the brush hung low with the weight, thus giving the elusive rabbit ample protection from the peering hunter. This, together with the blinding storm, made it quite difficult work, but the hunters were victorious.

The excuses for not getting many scalps were not quite so numerous, which was accounted for by the fact that the "good fellows" remained at home warming themselves by the warm fire, while the "good shots" were enjoying one of the greatest sports with which Lake County abounds.

Following is the line-up, together with the number of scalps:

| | |
|-----------------------|-----|
| Frank Reid..... | 124 |
| Louis Brautlacht..... | 19 |
| Will Boyd..... | 19 |
| A. W. Manring..... | 9 |
| Tom Beall..... | 16 |
| T. S. Handley..... | 88 |
| Ernest Brown..... | 23 |
| Fent Smith..... | 27 |
| Total..... | 325 |

| | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| Manley Whorton Captain..... | 66 |
| George Reid..... | 102 |
| A. Y. Beach..... | 44 |
| G. T. Bowman..... | 35 |
| Lee Beall..... | 33 |
| Dr. E. H. Smith..... | 26 |
| A. H. Hammersly..... | 104 |
| Total..... | 419 |

It will be noticed that one side had eight men while the other only had seven, but as the latter won, the count was made that way. The usual supper was at Harvey's and was given by the losing side.

Another hunt has been organized for next Sunday by George Reid and Al Cheney, which will include nearly everyone who can shoot a gun straight. This hunt is expected to decide the fate of the rabbits in Lake county, if the following list of names count for anything.

| | |
|------------------|-----------------|
| A. E. Cheney | Geo. Reid |
| Frank Reid | A. H. Hammersly |

| Harvey Colvin | Ivan Charlton |
| T. S. Handley | Lein Heryford |
| C. R. Anderson | W. Dyer |

The Women of Woodcraft and the Woodmen enjoyed an evening's entertainment at a regular meeting of the former last week. Among the games played was one where a prize was given to the person making the most hideous face through a hole in a sheet hung up for the purpose. Mose Striplin carried off the capital prize, while Tommy Kler won the lesser trophy by not being able to look any way but pleasant.
