LAKEVIEW, OREGON, FEB. 18, 1904.

To honor the memory of Emilio Castelar, the celebrated republican orator and former president of the Spanish republic, his friends intend to raise a monument to him in Madrid.

General J. Warren Keifer announces his intention to run for congress in the Springfield, Ohio, district next year. Twenty years ago General Keifer was speaker of the house of representatives at Washington.

The portrait of the dowager empress of China, now being painted by Miss Kate Augusta Carl, an American artist, is to be placed on exhibition at St. Louis by the consent of her majesty, who, it is said, will also send other exhibits.

Mrs. Parker, or "Mother Parker," as she is called, who has labored for 34 years under the American board in the Hawaiian islands, is now in her 98th year and is able to receive her guests at her home at Gilbertina in Manoa valley.

Rear Admiral Casey, who has been placed on the retired list of the navy, has seen 47 years of active service. He has ever been noted for his bluff exterior and imperturbable good nature and was a universal favorite with his subordinates.

Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, the eminent Presbyterian divine of Brooklyn, recently celebrated his 82d birthday. He is still in excellent health and officiates weekly at the Lafayette Avenue church, of which he has been pastor for nearly half a century.

Sergeant John Martin, the only survivor of General Custer's regiment engaged in the battle of the Big Horn in 1877, has been placed on the retired list of the army. Two hundred and seventy-seven of his companions were killed during the engagement.

The dowager empress of Russia is very fond of the Danish black or rye bread, such as is baked for the soldiers. During her majesty's visit to Denmark she eats this kind of bread every day, and when at home a loaf is sent to Russia every fifth day.

United States Senator William J. Stone of Missouri has confined to friends that he expects to be elected one of the delegates at large from Missouri to the democratic national convention, and that if his right to this honor is contested he will demand a recognition on the ground that he needs a public vindication since the recent disclosure concerning him appeared in the newspapers.

Already Mayor McClellan's fame has reached beyond the Alps where lies Italy. His honor some time ago received from a subject of King Victor Emmanuel a letter in which the writer explains that he is an adept at thought transference. He says that a thought has been wafted across the ocean informing him that the mayor would lend him 1000 lire for a short time. Since then two more letters have arrived from the same correspondent. Colonel McClellan has figured it out that 1000 lire is about $195, so he has done his best to transfer this thought to Italy: "Nothin' doin'."

The annual report of the Western Union Telegraph company shows 80,000,000 messages transmitted, $29,000,000 earned; net revenue $8,000,000 and a surplus of $13,000,000.

What Are They?

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. A new remedy for stomach troubles, biliousness, and constipation, and a good one. Price 25 cents. For sale by Lee Beall.

Edward S. Hosmer, chief engineer of the Lowell (Mass.) fire department, has had nearly 50 years' continuous experience in fighting fires. Before he was appointed a member of the old fire department in Lowell, in 1856, he was a member of the boys' fire company in Belvidere.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain-Balm

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Parker Triplett, of Grigsby, Va., says that Chamberlain's Pain Balm gave him permanent relief from rheumatism in the back when everything else failed, and he would not be without it. For sale by Lee Beall.

Because of his superintendence as crack dancing man of the uniform service, Major Charles L. McCawley of the marine corps has been relieved of all other duty and placed in the White House social service as major domo. His sole work will be to carry out the wishes of President and Mrs. Roosevelt as to their social entertainments.

The Examiner has for sale one of the best stock ranches in Lake county on very reasonable terms—600 acres, all fenced, and well watered. This is a great bargain and will not remain long unsold. We also have a dozen other ranches and farms to dispose of. If you have any land or property to sell, list it with the Examiner. Send in description and we will sell it for you. 3Stf

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr. J. Hargins of Melbourne, Fla., writes, "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by Lee Beall Druggist. Price 50c & $1. Trial bottles free.

There has come into local circulation in Williamamtic, Conn., a large number of half dollars which bear dates between 1805 and 1835, and they include specimens of the various coinings which were issued between those years. All are lettered on the edges, and in diameter are a trifle larger than the half dollars of the present day.

Professor Lombroso, as the result of his observations on left handed and left sided people finds that among 1000 soldiers and operatives the proportion of left handed people is 4 per cent among the men and 5 to 8 per cent among the women. Among criminals the quota of left handed was found to be more than tripled in men and more than quintupled among women.

Redheaded people are less subject to baldness than others. A doctor explains the matter thus: The hair of the redheaded is relatively thick, one red hair being almost as thick as five fair or three brown hairs. With 30,000 red hairs the scalp is well thatched, whereas with the same number of fair hairs one is comparatively bald. It takes nearly 160,000 fair and 105,000 brown hairs to cover adequately an ordinary head.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Lee Beall.

Mme. Schreier, the late Rubinstein's daughter and proprietor of his copyrights, has appealed to the courts to prevent Vjalzeva, called the Russian Otero, from appealing in the title role of Rubinstein's opera, "The Demon." Mme. Schreier calls it "profanation of the great composer's works" when an "ordinary song and dance woman" attempts to sing his music.

When You Have a Cold.

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Lee Beall.

The Oregon Daily Journal and the Lake County Examiner both one year for $6. The Weekly Journal and Examiner one year for $2.75. The Semi-Weekly Journal and Examiner one year for $3. 1f

On account of a recent experience Magistrate South of Philadelphia refuses to try any more cases against men accused of desecrating the Sabbath. A man fined in his court for the offense was obliged to pawn his overcoat and has since been compelled to work outdoors clad in thin raiment. The fact coming to Magistrate South's knowledge, he bought the man a coat and now advises a change of venue in all like cases called before him.

Better Than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them, Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Lee Beall.
