LAKEVIEW, OREGON, MARCH 3, 1904.

The Austrian who reached Liverpool with 18 pounds of dynamite in his trunk may have intended to give a blow-out to celebrate his arrival.

President Angell of the University of Michigan, in his annual report to the board of regents, asserts his loyalty to the cause of coeducation.

With the recent death of the duke of Richmond passed away the last of Wellington's aide de camps. He had the unique distinction of being four times a duke.

A San Jose widow has just married the man who sued her for breach of promise. Perhaps this dear lady merely waited to satisfy herself that he was in earnest.

A Mississippi mule gave up the ghost when he heard the braying of a theatrical brass band. Something must have told him that opposition would be hopeless.

The Russians admit that they fired the first shot at Chemulpo, but insist that it was an accident. Of course it was an accident. The aim was bad, and they failed to hit anything.

The fact that within the last few months two United States senators have been indicted by grand juries ought to strengthen the contention that senators should be elected by a direct vote of the people.

King Alfonso of Spain is about to start on a tour of Europe, visiting all the principal courts on the continent. It is said the itinerary is undertaken with the purpose of finding a wife to adorn his palace.

It is said that the widow of the late Max O'Rell will return to the stage. She was once well known in comic opera as Beatrice Eresham. She is now preparing in Paris for her reappearance.

John Hazeltine, known throughout central New York as an philanthropist, has announced plans to take a colony of 1000 Syracuse people to Montana for the purpose of establishing a town.

A recent letter from Abyssinia describes King Menelek as a man of about 60 years of age, dark in complexion, his face marked with smallpox and his chin covered with a slight gray beard. He has a keen, thoughtful face, brilliant dark eyes and through an interpreter converses intelligently with his guests.

Russell Sage has finally given up his lifelong habit of visiting his office every day and is now seen there at irregular intervals only. He drops in during the forenoon, looks over his mail and returns home early, seldom attending meetings of directors of the corporation in which he is interested. His office work, making of loans, etc., is being attended to by his cashier and chief clerk.

Dr. John Madden of Milwaukee has requested the assistance of the police department and the district attorney in prosecuting Mrs. Hettie Gates of Minneapolis, through whose promises, he declares he has lost a lucrative practice. Dr. Madden says he was to have been engaged to attend Mrs. Gates on European travels at a salary of $25,000 a year, a project which fell through.

George S. Klug, who built the first steel furnace at Johnstown, Pa., which eventually grew into the plant of the Cambria Steel company, celebrated his 94th birthday recently.

The colonial treasurer of the Transvaal has sent to England for $50,000 worth of pennies, with the view of aiding in the reduction of the cost of living in the Rand. Owing to the dearth of pence, matches are at present used as a portion of the currency of the Rand.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.
William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Lea Beall.

Bishop Anderson stated at a meeting held in Brooklyn recently that 9000 of the young men in the colleges have volunteered for foreign mission work, of whom 3000 are now in the field, 4000 are preparing for the work and the others were ready if the churches would send them out.

The practice of eating arsenic is prevalent among the peasantry of the mountainous districts of Austria-Hungary and France. They declare that this poison enables them to ascend with ease heights which they could only otherwise climb with great distress to the lungs.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.
Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their cough and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Lea Beall.

Recently experiments with a view to preserving the calorific properties of hard coal by immersion in salt water were made and it was demonstrated that a loss of but 1 per cent occurred. Stored in the ordinary way coal loses about 50 per cent of its calorific power. Rain sodden coal is said to cause bunker fires, but the effect of coal soaked in sea water yet remains to be seen.

Rev. Charles E. Loche, for five years pastor of the Delaware Avenue Methodist church of Buffalo, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Hanson Place Methodist church of Brooklyn, the largest congregation in the denomination in the United States. Dr. Loche preached President McKinley's funeral sermon at the burial at Canton.

Tragedy Averted.
"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption and our darling was saved. He's now sound and well." Everybody ought to know its the cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by Lea Beall, Druggist. Prices 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Senator Quay of Pennsylvania, recently called at the White House. He was with the president half an hour. "What was it about, senator?" he was asked. "Neither appointments nor politics," Quay replied. "Probably religion?" "Now that you remind me that was what we talked," said the senator, "how did you happen to guess it?"

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.
Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Lea Beall.
