Miss Nora Carr of Paisley, has accepted a position as waitress in Hotel Lakeview.

County Commissioner W. A. Currier came down from Summer Lake yesterday to attend court.

According to the Prineville Journal the "DeMoss Family" gave a concert in that city on the 25th.

The old veteran of Drews Gap, J. A. Anderson was in town Saturday, looking like a "two-year-old."

A. W. Bryan, the northern stage contractor, of Clover Flat, was doing business in Lakeview last week.

Joe Howard, one of Drews Valley's prosperous stockmen was in Lakeview Tuesday attending some business matters.

Geo. Noble, a member of the republican county central committee, accompanied by his son John were in town yesterday.

C. C. Cannon, the republican war-horse of New Pine Creek attended the county central committee meeting in Lakeview yesterday.

George H. Bogue who spent the winter in Portland with his family, was in Lakeview Friday enroute to his home in Chewaucan.

Edw. Hartzog, the New Pine Creek merchant, and H. M. Fleming of that town, were transacting business in Lakeview Saturday.

The county court met Tuesday in adjournment from the January term to select the county official paper, but laid the matter over indefinitely. The regular term began yesterday.

Corwin Vinyard, who has been working on the XL ranch near Alturas for some time past, returned home last week to remain. Corwin reports the water unusually high in Modoc.

I have opened a fruit and vegetable store at the J. W. Howard stand, and now have on hand, apples, potatoes, onions, cabbage, beans, and other vegetables, and will sell at wholesale and retail. The public will be constantly supplied with everything the market affords. J. E. McDONOUGH.

A. M. Smith and wife of New Pine Creek weathered the storm on the first day of March to come to Lakeview. It was probably the worst day of the year in which to travel.

Every day brings new supplies for making the best buckayro boots and sheepmen's shoes at Leo Hasel's shop in the Jammertal building. Repairing neatly done at reasonable prices.

Spring and Summer will soon be here, but our samples of summer clothing is here now, and you should hurry and get your choice from our large display. Come and look at them anyway.

In the matter of selecting a newspaper to publish the County Court proceedings. Each of the contestants—A. Y. Bench for the Lake County Examiner, and W. J. Moore for the Lakeview Herald, appeared in person and deposited with the court a list of subscribers as required by law and after examining each list of subscribers and hearing the objections thereto, the court not being fully advised in the premises. It is hereby ordered that the matter be continued until March 2d, 1904 at 10 o'clock A. M.

JAMES T. BENEFIEL.
Died—In Santa Barbara, Cal., Feb. 15, 1904, James T. Benefiel. An old resident of Lake Co., having settled in Crooked Creek valley in 1878, where he lived until last Sept., when he went to California on account of his health, but to no avail. After some weeks of intense suffering, death came peacefully at 10 p. m., of above date.

He was born in Louisa Co., Iowa, Aug. 25, 1855 and was therefore 48 years, 5 months and 21 days of age.

He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss.

The remains were interred at Goleta, Santa Barbara Co., his old home before coming to Oregon.

...School Notes... Lakeview High School

A fine lot of essays will appear in a week or two.

The candy factory is a great resort for the pupils at recess if they can find any money.

Last Friday the Angelsophian Society gave an excellent program. Miss Sands' room and about 40 visitors were present.

The 8th grade is almost to the appendix in arithmetic and when they get there they will review measurements in which they don't know much, and then take the appendix.

The 8th grade knows more than usual in grammar this week.

Two boys were suspended last week.

Katie and Nellie Barry are out of school on account of sickness.

Several pupils were sick last week on account of the program.

Rex Emerson, the editor of these notes, has quit school, and a new one not being appointed these notes were written by two scholars who were not competent.

The 9th grade in Physical Geography will complete the book in about two weeks, and then, after reviewing will take an examination. Then if the weather continues good like it has been, they will study Botany.

The teacher asked an 8th grade pupil to finish the sentence: "The thunderbolt struck on yonder hill," with a clause of evidence, and the pupil answered: "Because they found it there."

The professor is trying to stop the whispering in his room by taking the names of those who whisper and for every time they whisper they have to write a long sentence fifty times. He has a large class every evening; also every one is getting a good deal of practice in writing, as each one has several hundred words to write every evening.

Prof. thinks Tuesday night dances are not good for his scholars.

Subscribers to The Examiner who remove from one locality to another, or change their postoffice address should remember to drop this office a card so their paper can be addressed to the right postoffice.
