John McLennan had lain for many months on a bed of sickness. All summer he had been deprived of his walks in the green fields and up the banks of the Tay, but as the summer died and autumn reigned supreme he was sensible of a change for the better.

Now, let it be known that John was a crack golfer, and as he lay road." And Bobbie ran to see exracked with pain his mind often actly where the ball lay. wandered up the Inch, and he would count his imaginary strokes as he wended his way from hole to hole.

"My wife, Mrs. Mary Estes, has been taking your medicine and received great benefit from it," writes Mr. Gea. Wm. Estes, of Springgrove, Va. "Was troubled with female weakness, heavy, bearing down pains, severe pain in back and head, and a tired, worm out feeling all the time. Tried all the remedies we could hear off, but they did no good. Finally we wrote to you and my wife, commenced taking "Favorite Frescription." Took ten bottles, and is in better health than before in a long time. We shall always recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all who are thus afflicted."
