Fent Smith and Dan Maloy went up to Chewaucan Monday. The boys are on pleasure bent, and will take a hand in branding calves on the 70 ranch, and will also go to Warner to indulge in the sport there.

We learned from the Warner boys that the Examiner did not reach Adel and Warner Lake on time, and had not yet arrived when Mr. Frakes left there. The delay was caused by the mail going by way of Abert Lake on account of bad roads. It is to be hoped that from now on the mail can go through to Plush in one day.

L. D. Frakes represented the South Warner republicans in the convention Mr. Frakes came by way of Bidwell and Fandango valley. He says he had an object in coming that way. He became the father of a new boy on the 29th of March, which incident took place at Bidwell, and he had a desire to see the youngster. The boy, he says, came up to his expectations.
