

"Old Timer" Arrives Home.

Alturas, Cal., Apr. 1, 1904.

EDITOR EXAMINER:

Having returned from a rainbow chase in the land of the "has been" and the half breed, I thank the Lord that I am still alive and contented in the belief that the science of mining is dealt out only to miners. I was two days getting here from Madeline which is 35 miles. Met Clarence Estes going out after the fixtures for the new bank. If they are heavy and there is not a great improvement in the condition of the road, Clarence is apt to locate a few banks before reaching Alturas. Alturas is short on hay and wood. Lumber and posts are being sacrificed for fuel, stock are being fed on mountain scenery seasoned with promises of better care when better roads have cooked a tariff reform. The X L ranch is out of hay.

E. Laur and sons have had a gasoline engine pumping water out of the basement of their big store building for the past month.

A bird of evil omen has been doing some of our citizens with a book scheme. It is said Judge Baker, Recorder Scammon and Treasurer Pinkney were all caught in the web.

The Alturas papers seem to be determined to make a hero out of a Modoc young man by name of Harry Essex. The Plaindealer gives a thrilling account of a wild, hilarious ride on the night of the breaking of the Essex reservoir, whereby he saved Phillip Miller's life. As a matter of fact Miller was not in any danger and the ride was made by Will Smith of Hot Creek. Last year this same Essex broke a stretcher stick going to Madeline and acquired a page in the history of fame, eternal stamping ground. I hope the papers will quit on the boy lest he get foolish about the ears. OLD TIMER,

J. C. Oliver, ex-newspaper man, was in town Monday from the West Side where he is engaged in farming. Mr. Oliver says the game and fish law had been violated in several instances throughout the county, and that so little heed was paid to the law that unless Lake county had an appointed game warden the laws might as well be stricken from the statute books. Other counties in the state have their game wardens, whose duty it is to look out for violations of the law, and see that it is complied with and there is no reason why Lake county should not have a warden.

The public school observed Arbor day by cleaning up the school building, washing desks and windows, and raking the trash about the yard into heaps and then burning them. The yard is much in need of shade trees but it is useless to plant them unless there was water with which to irrigate.

Wm. Harvey, who has acted as city marshal for a long time, succeeded last week in getting his resignation accepted after repeated trials. Mr. Harvey has built up a big trade in the restaurant business, and his time is more valuable to his own interests than his salary as city marshal. He has found that it is necessary for him to devote his entire time to his business, regardless of the wishes of many to retain the position of marshal.

State Veterinarian McLean finds it one thing to be ordered to shoot wild horses on the range, and another thing to do the job. Out of the 600 he was to shoot in Eastern Oregon, he succeeded in bringing down 10. This thing of indiscriminately shooting wild horses on the range may result in something doing among stockmen who may not be easily made to believe their horses are afflicted with mange until the animals are caught and examined.

Additional Local

At the meeting of the council Monday evening the electric light plant was ordered shut down at 1 o'clock at night.

The Degree of Honor lodge gave a banquet last Thursday night, which was said to be a grand affair and was largely attended.

Dr. B. Daly started Tuesday for Portland, where he goes to represent the democratic party in Lake county at the state convention.

The Masonic lodge held a special meeting last Saturday evening for the purpose of conferring the Fellow Craft degree on Geo. Down.

Mrs. Knox has had her house painted. Dr. Stiene occupies the dwelling. Several dwellings would be the better for a coat of paint.

Cob. Henkle was detected just in time to prevent him from being put on the democratic ticket for some office at the convention Saturday.

Firemen of Lakeview are requested to meet at the court house this evening, Thursday, at 7:30 o'clock as business of importance is on hand.

Wm. Sweeney of Warner, while here first of the week informed us that he sold his band of 50 head of mixed cattle to Harry Calderwood for $20 per head.

Mr. M. L. Whorton, who has been seriously ill for some weeks past, was able to come up town Saturday. Everybody was glad to see him on the street again.

Patents are being issued from the Lakeview land office to parties who have made final proof on lands in this district. There are yet 85 patents in the office.

Frank Musgrave and wife have moved to town and are living in the house with Mrs. Whitworth. Frank has accepted a position in Ayres & Whitworth's store.

About $5300 in taxes are delinquent, and about $11,600 are yet to be collected on which no interest or penalty will be attached by reason of one-half having been paid.

Rev. S. V. Warren of Paisley and Rev. Stark of this place will exchange pulpits on Sunday, April 24th. Rev. Stark will deliver an address to the Paisley Odd Fellows on the 26th.

John Larkin, the gentleman who recently built a saw mill near New Pine Creek, was in Lakeview last Saturday. Mr. Larkin favored the Examiner subscription list with his name.

Next month Uncle Sam will offer an opportunity for surveyors in this state to land a job. The Geological survey wants assistance to carry on its reclamation work. The salaries range from $900 to $2000.

At the great convention in Chicago where W. J. Bryan shined, the demand was, "tell me." But Mr. Bryan's oratorical ability will not suffice at the next democratic convention in St. Louis when they say "show me."

John T. Maupin was over from Warner first of the week on land business. Geo. Maupin, I. L. Wakefield, Wm. Sweeney and Wm. Nichols were also transacting business here. The gentlemen are all from Warner Valley.

The new I. O. O. F. lodge at Paisley will celebrate the anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America the 26th of April. The Paisley lodge ought to prosper. Such ambition as the members exhibit will surely bring the new lodge to the front.

The business of the Ashland post office has increased sufficiently to permit of its being placed in the second class, with additional compensation for the postmaster and a greater allowance for clerk hire. The business for the fiscal year ended March 31, amounted to $8331.

FOREIGN FACTS.

Egypt, with nearly 10,000,000 people, has only one lunatic asylum.

Lately the Paris chamber of commerce celebrated its first centenary with a gala banquet.

School examinations in the Swedish language at Helsingfors, Finland, have been prohibited by order of the Russian government.

In Edinburgh the number of unlet shops and houses is larger than for some years, owing, it is said, to the "rush to Canada."

The cottage at Chalfont St. Giles, Buckinghamshire, in which Milton lived is to be restored at a cost of $1,500. The building is used as a public museum and contains a first edition of "Paradise Regained."

The lock to be placed in the Danube-Oder canal will be 131 feet high and the highest in the world. The Austrian minister of commerce has offered prizes of 100,000, 75,000 and 50,000 crowns for the best plans for it.

Formerly a Chinaman who gazed upon the emperor and empress while they were being carried along the street lost his head. Since the emperor's return from Singanfu this rule has been revoked, but the populace has not yet mustered its courage, and not long ago when the imperial party were in Shanghai the streets were deserted.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

Guy F. Speely and Frederic Chapin, the authors of "The Storcks," have finished another operatic comedy.

The storck has visited Charles Richman's cottage at North Asbury, N. J., and left a baby girl for the actor.

"The Runaways" is still notable for its collection of show girls, probably the prettiest collection of the season.

William G. Beckwith, the leading man with the Aubrey stock company, will be starred next season at the head of the company.

Georgia Caine, the prima donna of "Peggy From Paris," plays golf on the Allston (Mass.) links every morning, regardless of weather.

Harry Conor in the support of Miss Ring in "The Blond in Black," at the Knickerbocker, has a part that fits him well. As a man milliner he is a success.

Guelma Baker, who plays Lute Plummer in "Peggy From Paris," has chartered a sloop for the summer. Miss Baker learned to sail a boat during her long residence on the Pacific coast.

Raymond Hitchcock, who made a hit in the title role of "King Dodo," will create the title role in "The Yankee Consul," the new come opera that Henry W. Savage will produce next season.
