The Oregonian says that about 300 sacks of mail are held up enroute to Portland on account of washouts along the railroad. This mail is scattered along at different places.

We have a couple of Babcock Fire Extinguishers that are brand new, never having been unpacked, that we will sell. They are at Paisley and we will deliver one at short notice for $10.

E. M. Brattain and George McGrath of Alturas came in from the south Monday morning, having driven all night. Mr. Brattain returned from Portland by way of San Francisco.

Mr. McElhinney has been having a hard time of it the past week. The fever has broken and left him in a weak condition and at times it seemed that he could not rally. Last reports gave hopes of his recovery.

Jack Bacheider, the former county clerk of this county, will soon arrive here and open a law office. Jack's many friends in Lakeview will gladly welcome him back, and all wish him success.

J. D. Venator was appointed district attorney by District Attorney L. F. Conn to act for the state in the case of Creed Conn at the coroner's inquest. Mr. Conn and Mr. Venator left for Silver Lake last Saturday.

"Grandma" Miller, who has been living with Mrs. Penland for over a year, was moved to the home of St. Henderson recently. The old lady is quite old and feeble and is quite a charge. John Hammond has charge of her property and since he left Paisley he has kept her here in Lakeview.

W. S. Blair and family of Paisley arrived here last Saturday, having come down to help wait upon Mr. McElhinney. Mr. Blair informed us that Simmons & Blair of Hotel Paisley would open up a butcher shop the first of the week at the Price meat market.

Wm. Harvey succeeded in getting his sheep across the Chewaucan river last week, and arrived with them at the head of the valley safely. In crossing the suspension bridge at Paisley, the last little bunch were crossing when the bridge gave way, but the sheep were nearly across and swam out all right.

Alturas town had an election and now has two sets of city officers or none, they hardly know which. The old board refused to make a canvass and declare the new officials elected, and the new officials are going ahead with their official duties. It seems as if Alturas would have plenty of law and order, or disorder, until the matter is settled in the courts.

The usual large number of farmers were in town last Saturday from different parts of the valley. They all wear a pleasant look, which we attribute to the apparent prosperity in store for our people this year. Farmers and stockmen have the advantage of a down-hill pull this season to markets for produce and stock that bids fair of encouraging prices.

That it will pay to raise chickens has been demonstrated a number of times by farmers who take the pains to keep a record of the earnings from their coops. Walter Robinson, who lives in Crooked Creek, was in town last Thursday with a box of eggs, which he sold and as he counted out the last dozen he made the remark in the presence of an Examiner reporter that that made $70 worth of eggs from 70 hens since he began keeping a record of the product only a few months ago.

A few weeks ago The Examiner made the statement that the irrigation project of the Portland Irrigation Co. at Paisley was only temporarily delayed awaiting the approval by the department of their selection under the Carey act, and would be resumed as soon as the decision was rendered by the government. We learn this week from a reliable source that Edwin Mays, promoter of the scheme, will be at Paisley about May 14th to start the work going.

By application to Mr. T. H. Goodman, General Passenger Agent, San Francisco Cal., J. M. Fulton, Division Freight and Passenger Agent, Reno, Nev., or to agents at points above mentioned, all information will be given to those who desire to take advantage of this rate.

I will be in Lakeview and all points in Lake county within the next few weeks in the interests of the Oregon Nursery company of Salem, Oregon. This is the oldest as well as the largest and best equipped Nursery on the pacific coast. We grow all our own stock and guarantee it first class in every respect. This is my sixth year in Lake county. And I am better prepared than ever before to supply my customers with the best the market can produce. Our prices are within the reach of all. It will pay all who intend to purchase nursery stock to see me before buying. Respectfully yours,

R. D. MAPLEDEN.
