SOME THINGS TO INTEREST ALL OUR READERS

Kentucky Favorite Whisky—mildest and best. Physicians recommend it. Post & King. 11.

It is a hard matter to tell which the Dems. are working hardest at, hunting issues or dodging them.

The most complete job stock off of the railroad is to be found at The Examiner office. First-class work always, at reasonable prices. 11.

J. T. Laird of Alturas was recommended for presidential elector by the republicans of Modoc County.

You can go a fishin' with a stick, a string and a pin; but if you want to fish and catch fish, get your tackle from J. E. Bernard & Son. 16

Rev. Warren of Paisley, stopped a couple of days in Alturas while on his way to Madeline, and impressed the people there quite favorably, says the New Era.

Cyrus Noble Whisky—the old champion and still champion of them all. Used in all first-class places. Ask for Cyrus Noble case goods when you want a good drop at home. 37 1/2.

Walter Duke and Robert E. Henderson passed through here last Saturday en route for Canby where they went to receive the cattle recently purchased.—New Era.

California farm for sale at a big bargain. 100 acres fenced and cross fenced. Cost present owner $10,500 but will be sold for $5000; 1/3 down and balance on easy payments. Inquire at this office. 47 1/2.

While there was two feet of snow in Alturas last week, it was said there was none at all in Cedarville. It melted as fast as it fell in the Surprise valley town.—New Era.

We have a couple of Babcock Fire Extinguishers that are brand new, never having been unpacked, that we will sell. They are at Paisley and we will deliver one at short notice for $10.

Alec Zevery, of Bonanza has taken Henry Mann's race mare, Reta Sintax, to that town and will put her in training for the northern district races the coming season.—New Era.

Several copies of the Northwestern Stock Directory, compiled by Sloss & Lightly, printers of Alturas, have been left at this office for distribution. It is a valuable look for stockmen and worth the price. 11

Last Thursday there was two feet of snow on the level here, and drifts from three to five feet in the lanes, and the country presented an aspect excepted only in winter time.—New Era.

If you haven't seen the model of the patent gate at this office, call in and inspect it. 11

D. P. Brown, manager of the Warner Valley Stock company, passed through here last Saturday on his return from Berkeley, where he spent the winter with his family. He informed us that everything looked lovely in the lower country.—New Era.

Post & King are now receiving big invoices for their winter trade. All the finest brands of liquors and cigars are kept there. Post & King furnish the home with the best brands for medicinal purposes. 42 1/2

The stockmen of this neighborhood have been gathering up their cattle and feeding them, to carry them safely through the stormy weather. There has been a small loss of cattle but most of them on the range will pull through all right.—New Era.

The Examiner has for sale one of the best stock ranches in Lake county on very reasonable terms—600 acres, all fenced, and well watered. This is a great bargain and will not remain long unsold. We also have a dozen other ranches and farms to dispose of. If you have any land or property to sell, list it with the Examiner. Send in description and we will sell it for you. 38 1/2

The Oregon Daily Journal and the Lake County Examiner both one year for $6. The Weekly Journal and Examiner one year for $2.75. The Semi-Weekly Journal and Examiner one year for $3. 11

W. D. Woodcock's residence for sale, price $1500. Will accept all cash down, or part cash, balance on easy terms. For further particulars, address W. D. Woodcock, 221 Sierra street, Reno, Nevada. 11

One of the greatest blessings a modest man can wish for is a good, reliable set of bowels. If you are not the happy possessor of such an outfit you can greatly improve the efficiency of those you have by the judicious use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are pleasant to take and agreeable in effect. For sale by Lee Beall.

Notice of the Sale of Unsurveyed Swamp Lands.

Notice is hereby given that the State Land Board will receive sealed bids until 2 o'clock P. M. on June 14, 1904 for the purchase of the following described unsurveyed Swamp Lands, to-wit:

All of the unsurveyed Swamp land in Township 36 S. R. 24 E. of W. M., on Warner Lake more particularly described as follows:

What would be the S 1/2 of Section 11; S 1/2 of Section 15; all of fractional Section 14; all of fractional Section 22; all of fractional Section 23, if the United States surveys adjacent thereto were extended.

All bids must be accompanied by an application and affidavit to purchase in accordance with Section 3302 of Bellinger and Cotton's Code and survey and declaration as provided by section 3303 and by cash or check for full amount offered.

No bid for less than $1.00 per acre will be considered.

The right to reject any and all bids is reserved.

The Board will hear any objections that may be offered by interested parties to the sale of this land.

Applications and bids should be addressed to G. G. Brown, Clerk State Land Board, Salem, Oregon, and marked "Application and Bid to Purchase Unsurveyed Swamp Lands."

G. G. Brown,
Clerk State Land Board.
Dated this 9th day of March, 1904.
Mar. 17-13t.

Hayes Mulkey met with a serious accident at Davis creek last Saturday evening. He was holding a stake while his brother Luke was driving it with a sledge hammer. In some way Hayes moved the stake and the hammer struck him on the head, knocking him senseless, and it seems a miracle that he was not instantly killed. He remained unconscious for several minutes.—New Era.

Quick Arrest

J. A. Guldage of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pains, 25c. at Lee Beall's Druggist.

The democratic party in trying to convince the country that its policies are safe and guaranteed to produce prosperity, sounds suspiciously like a baldheaded druggist singling the praise of an infallible hair-grower.—Yellow Jacket.

Made Young Again

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again," writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at Lee Beall's Drug Store.

"I am very short and weigh a hundred and forty," writes a young lady from Colorado; "what shall I do to make me look slim?" Try voting the democratic ticket. You'll feel slim for some time afterward, even if you don't look it.—Yellow Jacket.
