New shirt waists at Bailey & Massingill's.

More emigrants passed through town last Saturday.

Walter Robinson was in town Saturday from Crooked creek.

Bailey & Massingill have received a lot of latest style shirt waists.

Gracie Metzger had a severe attack of fever the first of the week, but she is much better.

J. B. Fisher was in town Saturday from the West Side and made this office a pleasant call.

Hi Mauring left for Shaniko Sunday morning, where he goes to meet his sister who is coming here on a visit from Garfield, Wash.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church will give a supper from 5 to 8 o'clock p. m., May 17th, at the Odd Fellows hall for the benefit of the church.

J. C. Oliver came over from his Drews creek ranch Saturday. He says his grain is looking fine but some of his ground will not get dry enough to plow this spring.

There were 616 voters registered up to Monday, May 9th. Nearly 800 voters registered two years ago, and there should be about 900 this election. Hurry and register.

The Examiner has a good blacksmith shop for sale in a thriving town. Business pays $2000 a year. Next week you will see a full account with price and more information.

The officers of the First National bank of Lakeview received a message from the comptroller of currency last week stating that their charter had been issued and forwarded by mail.

R. D. Maplesden, the Oregon nursery man, is taking a big lot of orders for all kinds of shrubbery. Evidently the people are going to continue to improve and beautify the county.

S. Wolff, who came here a few weeks ago to take charge of the stock of goods formerly belonging to Ayers & Whitworth, having sold the entire stock to the Mercantile company left Monday morning for San Francisco.

A petition is being circulated and signed by the best citizens of the county praying the county court to offer a reward for the arrest of the parties guilty of the ruthless slaughter of sheep in the north end of the county.

Mrs. J. C. Oliver, who went to Portland last fall to consult a specialist, returned to her home last week, having visited friends and relatives at La Grande before returning. Mrs. Oliver's health is greatly improved.

Mrs. Hartlerode passed through town from Paisley Monday returning to her home at Davis Creek. She was accompanied by Ted Liville and Walter Banister. Walter says he is going to Alturas to work this summer.

Elmer E. Binchart, nominee for sheriff on the republican ticket, returned last week from a trip through the northern part of the county. Elmer says everything up that way looks favorable. He says he made the acquaintance of some mighty fine people up there. They are there all right, Elmer.

Last week George Whorton and Ross Anderson were around town with a subscription paper raising money for a race meet during Fourth of July week. They found everybody enthusiastic and ready to donate liberally for this purpose and succeeded in raising enough to insure $1000 in purses for the meet.

STATE WILL BRING SUIT.

zen of the United States, at least finds written the motto which is found inscribed over Dante's Inferno: "Who enters here leaves hope behind."

If these men are defeated in one of the courts of our state the controversy will be ended; otherwise in my opinion, there will always lurk in the minds of many of the citizens of this state the suspicion that they have not obtained a fair and impartial hearing of their cause.

I, therefore, as Governor and ex officio and commissioner of the state of Oregon request you as Attorney General of the state to institute a suit in the name of the state against the present owners of the land in controversy, with the end in view of ascertaining whether or not they have been fraudulently obtained from the state. Provided, however, the parties directly in interest give satisfactory security to indemnify the state against the cost and expenses that may be incurred by such suit as provided by section 370 of Bellinger & Cotton's Code.

I have the honor to remain,
Yours very truly,
GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN,
Governor.

In our account last week of the sheep killing scrape near Silver Lake we stated that W. A. Sherlock was said to be one of the losers. This was a mistake, as Mr. Sherlock informed us that he owned no sheep in Lake county. His sheep are all down in Modoc. He said it was a wonder he did not have, as he always run his sheep there when he owned sheep in this county. The losers were Jonas Norin, C. B. Parker, Harrison Price, the Mulkey Bros. and Pete Groob.

Perry Stanley, the electrician, disappeared rather suddenly last week, and now a few of our merchants are wondering where he is at; they know where they are at. Perry employed J. M. Handley to run the plant one night last week while he went to Pine Creek on business. We understand that Mr. Handley received a letter from Stanley in which he said he would not return, and went on south from Pine Creek.
