LAKEVIEW, OREGON, MAY 26, 1904.

IS LAWLESSNESS PREVENTABLE

It is rather a disheartening story that comes from Lakeview, Oregon, ancient the killing of sheep by the thousands, the burning of property and the charge of murder has been committed, all instigated primarily, so we are told, because of conflicting interests between sheep and cattle raisers. The Evening Telegram took occasion some ten days ago to call attention to the reign of lawlessness within the boundaries of the state, appending the pertinent query as to whether it is preventable. It appears to us to be a matter of sufficient gravity to demand the attention of the executive department of the state government. In the county where these acts are alleged to have been committed there is, as a matter of course, an official corps by whom the facts might be obtained, and if it were composed of fearless and unprejudiced men, the law-breakers brought to a merited account. Where murder has been alleged, it is hinted that a coroner's jury perpetrated a travesty on justice by returning a verdict of suicide. It is said that this was done because the men who served on the jury were cattlemen and at enmity with the sheep men who had come to a violent death, under circumstances that were decidedly suspicious.

If all these tales involving disregard of law are true, if even the facts are that property is being destroyed men are found dead under circumstances that warrant the suspicions and allegations of murder, and the situation is not taken actively in hand by the county authorities, it is time there was an effort made by the state to determine either its potency or impotency in securing to its citizens the enjoyment of property rights and immunity from the murderous attacks of banditti. It is just as well that the Oregon state government face the situation at once and settle the question as to whether it is within its power to enforce respect for law.—Portland Telegram.

Governor Will Not Interfere

The attention of Governor Chamberlain has been called to the Lake county sheep killing scrape by some of the state authorities, but the governor seems to think it a matter to be settled at home. The following from the Oregonian gives his views. Salem, Or., May 12.—Governor Chamberlain sees no means of suppressing lawlessness on the range in Lake county except through the efforts of people of that county. The governor has been indisposed for several days and has been confined to his room, but read with great regret the accounts of wholesale sheep killing near Lakeview. On his return to his office today he was asked whether state authorities can do anything to prevent similar outrages in the future.

"The trouble seems to be due entirely to local conditions and local differences," he replied, "and I think local people must find a remedy. There is no law authorizing me to offer a reward for the arrest of men who committed the offenses.

"I do not think any one man can successfully attempt to bring the offenders to justice. The men who were guilty of killing sheep by the hundreds are rough men, whose manner of life has made them reckless and they will shoot with slight provocation. A district attorney can do nothing to bring them to account.

"I think that an organization of law abiding citizens, formed by men who will stand together, might be effective. They could offer a reward and give the officers of the law assurance of loyal backing in their work. Such an organization would arouse public opinion and make it easier to find the guilty persons. One or two men can not do nothing working alone."

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre of Shepherd town, W. Va., says, "I had a severe case of Bronchitis, and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It is infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Pneumonia, and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed, by Lee Beall, Druggist. Trial bottles, free. Reg. sizes 50c, $1.00.

THE PITCHER.

The pitcher takes a telling pose
And holds the ball on high,
Then turns it with his finger tips,
His new in-curve to try,
Then swiftly swings his strong right arm:
The vicious deed is done!
The umpire dodges skillfully
And hoarsely shouts, "Ba-all one!"
The pitcher takes his pose again,
Both feet firm on the ground;
Again he holds the ball on high
And slowly turns it round,
Then once more he uncoils himself,
The batsman to undo,
The ball smacks in the catcher's glove,
The umpire shouts, "Ba-all two!"
The pitcher fiercely grinds his heel,
In desperation grim,
Once more he holds the ball on high;
All eyes are fixed on him,
Once more he swiftly lets it drive,
Then fiercely slaps his knee,
Because the umpire coldly cries,
In fog horn tones, "Ba-all three!"
The pitcher's face is firm and set;
A wild gleam in his eye
Shows his determination as
He holds the ball on high,
He huris it in; the bat swings round
And meets it with a thud!
The ball soars o'er the left field fence!
The pitcher's name is Mudd!

A Startling Test

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Lee Beall's Drug Store.

A Hard Knock.

"How nice and soft your hands are, Mr. Muffy!"
"Yes; I—ah—sleep with my gloves on, don't you know."
"Indeed! And your hat also, I suppose?"

Mighty Cheerful.

Mamma had told her little daughter that she could not go out to play, but the little maiden determined to make one more plea. "Please, mamma; it isn't very wet, and I won't go on the grass."
"No, you cannot, Dorothy," said mamma pleasantly, smiling a little at her daughter's persistency.
Dorothy regarded her mother aggrievedly and then said, "Well, seems to me you're mighty cheerful about it."

Whooping Cough

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Lee Beall.
