LAKEVIEW, OREGON, JUNE 23, 1904.

The Silver Lake Screamer last week belched up a quid of sarcasm chewed by the editor of the Klamath Falls Republican some time ago, in which that paper stated that he was "pleased to state that he was not acquainted with the editor of The Examiner." It matters not to us whether he is acquainted or not if he is of the same type of failure as the editor of the Silver Lake sheet, the acquaintance of whom has never resulted in any benefit or damage to us.

Why is it that the man who takes all the county papers and does all he can toward their support invariably mentions this fact first of all when he has occasion to boast of his public spiritedness, while the fellow who does not take the papers and whose name never appears in them only through the liberality of the editor to give him a little free advertising seldom ever attempts to tell of the good he is doing in the world?

An appalling disaster was that which occurred in East River, New York, when over 700 women and children were either burned to death or drowned. The General Stocum, an excursion steamer that was bearing members of a Sunday school picnic to Long Island for a day's recreation took fire, and was unable to beach until nearly all on board had perished.

The Ashland Tidings has discovered that at least one precinct in Jackson county was a disgrace to the county on election day, made so by a large amount of whisky being sent there to influence voters, which resulted in two thirds of the voters becoming intoxicated and disorderly, several fights and the whole thing made a disgrace.

Two masked men held up the North Coast Limited Northern Pacific passenger train eastbound near Bearmouth on the night of the 16th, inst. After bringing the train to a stop the robbers blew open the express car, dynamited the safe and secured all of its contents. The amount secured is not known, but is thought to be large.

According to the statement of a Silver Laker while in Lakeview recently concerning a two-faced editor of that place, he had been reading a couple of pages of The Examiner.

A disastrous fire occurred in Oroville, Calif., on the 14th which swept the principal business portion of the town. The loss is estimated at $150,000.

Abner McKinley, brother of the late President, was found dead in his chair on the 11th. His death was due to bright's disease.

Portland was shaken up by earthquakes on the 16th. Four shocks occurred, but the seismic disturbance was not great enough to occasion any damage.

Postmaster-elect, J. W. Minto of the Portland post office had no difficulty in securing the required $150,000 bond.

Marysville suffered a $50,000 fire on Friday night, June 10th.

BUILDING AT A HALT.

The Columbia Southern Railroad agitation is again at a standstill. The cause of delay, of course can only be guessed at, but it is generally believed that renewed activity depends upon the negotiations of Mr. Harriman for the Corvallis & Eastern. If the Harriman project to push that road through Eastern Oregon east and west materializes, it is going to require considerable energy on the part of the backers of the Columbia Southern to extend that line farther south. Eastern Oregon trade is worth building to, but it is a well known fact that the N. C. O. Ry., Co is building north with a view to holding the trade of this section for itself and San Francisco as a shipping point, and this line being a feeder for the S. P. lines, the extension of another feeder running east and west would work a hardship on a road coming in from the north.

F. W. Vaile, assistant superintendent of the railway mail service was at Bend last week looking over the mail route, and will intercede with the government in behalf of the people of this county for an expedited mail service. His efforts will probably meet with success to a certain extent; that to secure a six times a week service from Shaniko to Bend, and possibly through to Silver Lake, where a six times a week service from Lakeview is already in force. This will result in northern Lake county getting their Portland mail in much less time than they now get it.

L. S. Ainsworth arrived from Portland yesterday morning, says the Chewaucan Post of the 16th, by the northern route. Mr. Ainsworth is a brother-in-law of Edwin Mays. He is in the steamboat business in Portland and is making a pleasure and business trip through this country. It is believed that his presence here has something to do with the Portland Irrigation Co's enterprise, but he has nothing to give out for publication.

The National convention convened Monday. Today a President and vice president will be nominated. Frank C. Black of New York will nominate Theodore Roosevelt and Beveridge of Indiana will make one of the speeches seconding the nomination. Fairbanks of Indiana is in the lead for vice-president.

Mrs. Sullivan, an aged lady of Davis Creek, was brought to town this week for medical treatment. Her condition, resulting from heart trouble, is critical in the extreme.—Alturas Plaindealer. (Mrs. Sullivan is the mother of Mrs. Z. G. Harris of Silver Lake.)

The Bend people are agitating a new stage line from Shaniko to Bend, cutting out Prineville. They propose to run two stages each day both ways, and get their mail 14 hours from Shaniko.

A terrific storm accompanied by a water spout occurred in Cuba recently. 45 people were killed by flying timbers and drowned by the down-pour of water. Fourteen inches of water fell in five hours.

The Poison Creek cattle rodeo will meet at the ranch of S. J. Lampshire on June 20th, to make the annual ride of the ranges tributary to the Silvies River.—Harney News.

At the Supreme Lodge of Ancient Order of United Workmen, held at Chattanooga, Tenn., Wm. Colvig of Roseburg was elected Supreme Foreman.

Thos. Gray of Portland was elected grand master of Masons for the grand jurisdiction of Oregon, by the grand lodge on the 16th.

Hon. J. N. Williamson has returned from Washington, and is accepting Oregon's glad hand.

Lakeview School Attracts Attention.

Some time ago, about March 31st, The Examiner contained a short article in which Prof. H. S. Lyman complimented the Lakeview school very highly on some exhibits the pupils had prepared for the St. Louis Fair, photographs and compositions on the Plute Indians, by the children and Geography work.

This work was carefully prepared and sent as an exhibit to the St. Louis Fair from the Lakeview school, and now comes a part of the reward in shape of compliments from a professor in Massachusetts who has visited the World's Fair, and seen nothing in the educational line that surpasses the work of the Lakeview, Ore., school.

The fact that our exhibits are attracting attention in the populous portions of the United States is a thing to be proud of and should stimulate our efforts to gain even more notoriety in the wide world.

Below we give a few extracts from a letter written by Prof. Preston W. Search of Worcester, Mass., to Co. Supt. Willits, under date of June 10, 1904.

"I have just come from my third visit to the St. Louis Exposition. I have spent considerable time in the Educational Exhibit and want to express the deep pleasure I experienced in looking over the commendable work of Lake County. I doubt if there is a place in the United States, of proportional size, that can surpass the school showing of Lakeview. The subject matter, the penmanship, the illustrations, and in particular, the children's pictures pleased me very much."

"Again I commend the exhibit of your schools. It has a prominent place at St. Louis. I congratulate your schools on this evidence of highly meritorious work."

Offer of Big Reward.

The state organization of wool growers and the Antelope Wool-growers Association have offered a reward of $1000 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of party or parties found guilty of shooting or otherwise killing or maiming sheep belonging to members of either association. This reward is also offered for information of depredations or injuries to any property whatever or employees of members of the two associations.

Notices of this reward are being scattered broadcast over the sheep ranging portions of the state. It is believed that the offering of rewards in this manner will lead to an end of range troubles.—Antelope Herald.

Rich Gold Strike.

Medford, Oregon, June 16.—There is a great stampede of miners now on Grayback mountain, thirty miles east of here. It is the greatest gold strike ever made in Southern Oregon. An 18-year-old boy and his companion found the ledge while hunting, and brought in $700 gathered with a mortar and pestle. Three other men rushed out and gathered $3800 in one day's work yesterday. The location of the strike is almost on the California line, near the scene of rich early placer diggings.

Sheepmen Attention.

The woolgrowers of Lake county are requested to be present at a meeting in the court house at 10 o'clock, a. m. July 5th. The purpose of the meeting is to organize a wool-growers association in Lake county to further the interests of those engaged in that industry.

From a private letter received here, we learn the sad news that the widow of our old friend, the late O. L. Stanley, brooding over her sad loss, became very ill and while recovering, her reason became unbalanced. By the advice of her physician she was removed to the hospital at Stockton.
