Mrs. W. H. Barr of New Pine Creek is visiting this week with her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Vinyard.

A. Day Parker, who taught school at Paisley several years ago, arrived here yesterday for a short stay.

Nora Carr, who has been at Hotel Lakeview for several months as one of the waitresses, left for Paisley Tuesday.

Mr. J. E. Norin, accompanied by his wife, left yesterday morning for a month's camping expedition on the Chewaucan.

The little child of J. S. Field fell in the Odd Fellows well yesterday evening, and was only saved from drowning by the immediate arrival of Mr. Walker who rescued it.

Last—a gold watch, on water street, yesterday. Finder please return to the Mercantile Co's. store and receive a suitable reward. L. G. THOMAS

Just as usual, a wedding on Wednesday evening after The Examiner has gone to press. This time the contracting parties are Mr. A. Day Parker and Miss Jennie Maxwell.

Mrs. C. B. Vinyard's little daughter, Olive, who has been spending the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Barr at New Pine Creek returned home Wednesday evening.

The family of Geo. S. Nickerson are preparing to move to Reno to make their future home. They sold their household furniture at auction Monday and expect to start Saturday.

Jimmy Partin, who works in Ahlstrom's harness shop, was taken suddenly ill Tuesday and went home. He continued to get worse and Dr. Stejner was called, and pronounced his case appendicitis.

An entertainment will be given at the opera house to-morrow (Friday) evening by local talent, the proceeds to go to the cemetery fund. Every one should attend. Admission 50 and 25 cents.

An error appeared in the date of the treasurer's notice last week. It should have read all warrants protested prior to and including March 5, 1904. The notice will be found in this issue corrected.

Atty. C. H. Dalrymple has moved his office to his residence at North West corner of School grounds. Where it will remain until the new Bank Building is furnished and where he can be found at all times.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Cressler of Cedarville made Lakeview a three days visit during the past week, returning home Sunday. Mr. Cressler is interested in the First National Bank of Lakeview, and he came here to visit his son Sam, who is cashier.

Handley and Stephens commenced work on a new dwelling house for W. Bayley and Loren Bayley a few days ago. The old house where they now live will be moved and the new one will be built on the same spot.

F. T. GENTNER, Agent.

A. E. Mackintosh, the Crook county sheepman informs us that he will visit the old country this summer.

The recital given by Miss Sensations of Bidwell, assisted by Misses Cole and Rakestraw was well attended. The Bidwell ladies made a good impression in Lakeview and have many friends here. The Lakeview orchestra furnished music which helped to make the affair a success.

John Striplin, brother of M. A. and R. T. Striplin, arrived here last week from Cottage Grove. He sprung quite a surprise on Mose, who was not looking for his brother and did not know him when he applied for a job at the brick yard. Mr. John Striplin is also a brick mason.

Wm. P. Heryford, Mayor of Lakeview, this week received the following letter from the Portland Telegram asking him, first, his views as to the merits and practicability of the Oregon Development League, and second, how the people of his city and community would regard the project, and whether their co-operation might be expected.

During the past week there has been the best, and in fact the only good haying weather this season. Considerable hay was put up in the early part of July when the wind blew every afternoon so that it was impossible to handle the hay, and the men would have to lay off. The past few days has been warm and the hay cured fast and no wind, to speak of, prevented hauling.

Prof. Hoffman gave another one of his excellent performances last Friday evening, the Prof. puts on a trick that can't be beat anywhere in the world. There are but two or three men who can do the bird cage trick. Mr. Hoffman has been offered large sums of money to expose this trick to the press, but he refused. It is absolutely impossible for the eye to catch what becomes of the bird in the cage. It disappears right before your eyes as if instantly vanished from existence. If Mr. Hoffman's health would permit he could be in the largest cities in the world giving performances. There is none better than he.

Sage Brush Reunion.

Last week Mrs. Flora Arthur and Mrs. M. A. Striplin spent several days visiting on old neighbors on the west side of the lake, on Saturday several friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Nancy Morris, where there was a glorious dinner awaiting for us. Fried Chicken seemed to of been ordered. Good cakes pies and everything that goes to make a good dinner was surely there and when seated at the table it was a race to see who could eat the most chicken.

those present were Mrs. Sarah Garrett, Miss Lulu Garrett, Miss Dola Garrett, Mrs. Jane Nicols, Mrs. Flora Arthur, Mrs. M. A. Striplin, Mrs. Nancy Morris, Mr. John Morris, and Master Tomie Morris and it was decided a tie between Mrs. Flora Arthur and John Morris when the later won the prize by jumping up and getting the gizzard from Flora Arthurs plate and swallowed it without chewing—the prize was a glass of Milk punch with too spoonfuls of strawberries in it, which was very nice. the day was spent in merriment and pleasure and will long be remembered by all that were present the dinner was one of the finest type of which our neighbor, Mrs. Morris is capable of preparing hoping to spending more such happy days and eating many more such dinners.

Mrs. M. A. STRIPLIN.

Benefit Entertainment.

Tomorrow evening a very interesting program will be rendered at the Opera House, and while everyone who attends will receive value equal to the money expended, every resident of the town will receive something. The money is to go to fixing up the cemetery. It may be said that this matter should have been settled long ago, but it was not, and it will never be; the cemetery must continue to be an expense to the people if they expect the city of their beloved dead to be a monument to the honor of the living.

It should not be necessary to give an entertainment for the purpose of raising money to keep the cemetery in nice shape, but since it is, everybody should go. Don't sit back and wait for some one else to pay for beautifying the one dear spot on earth to you. You cannot look upon a beautiful cemetery where lies your friend or relative and enjoy it if you know you were asked to help make it beautiful, and would not help.

Go to the entertainment; following is the program:

- Selection.....Orchestra
- Violin Solo.....G. T. Bowdhan
- Recitation.....Floretta Graham
- Vocal Solo.....Miss Essie Cobb
- Piano Solo.....Miss Ruth Nickerson
- Recitation.....Miss Genie Snelling
- Song.....Rita Steiner
- Violin Solo.....Miss Laura Snelling
- Vocal Solo.....Miss Essie Cobb
- Cornet Solo.....Prof. A. A. Graham
- Duet, Miss Ottilie Field and Miss Nell Simpson
- Pantomime, Miss Genie Snelling and Miss Ethel McKee
- Vocal Solo.....Miss Ottilie Field
