

Additional Local

Mrs. Cobb and daughter Essie start today for Oakland, where they expect to remain until next summer. They came from there only a few weeks ago.

After a three days' struggle, the A. O. U. W. settled the question of a new assessment rate. The proposition was defeated by a small majority at the the grand lodge.

There will be an entertainment at New Pine Creek on the evening of the 30th. No admission will be charged. Refreshments will be served and an enjoyable time is expected.

President Roosevelt while out riding with his wife, was thrown from his horse and landed on his head. No injury resulted and for several days the affair was kept a secret.

J. W. Brown, the sheepman spent a couple of days in Lakeview the latter part of last week, having come over from Warner after supplies. He was accompanied by his daughter.

L. D. Frakes, the republican leader of South Warner, accompanied by his wife and son, came to Lakeview last Thursday. Mr. Frakes says Warner is flourishing and everybody happy.

Henry Lofftus and son, who have been at the Sagehen mines for about a month working on their mine, passed through Lakeview Tuesday evening on their return home at Ashland.

Rev. J. B. Stark and family went to Paisley Tuesday for a few days' visit. Mrs. Stark expects to start East next week for a couple of months' visit to her old home in Michigan.

Free dance Saturday night at the Barry Opera House. Everybody come. Rimrock Aerie F. O. E. will give the dance and charge no admission. Have a good time at the Eagles' expense.

This office turned out some neat badges for the Eagle Lodge this week, printed on satin ribbon. The badges are as neat as they could have sent away and bought, and did not cost them as much.

J. H. Bonham and wife returned last Saturday from Colusa, California, where they spent the winter. They were on their way to Summer Lake. Miss Vada Bonham, their daughter, remained in Sacramento.

Conn Kennedy left yesterday for San Francisco for his health. He went west to travel through the mountains. Mr. Kennedy has been falling fast for several months and hopes a change of climate will benefit him.

R. P. Jackson, who has been in the government employ for several months in the U. S. Land Office at this place, was given a position in the Civil Service on six months probation. Last week he received a permanent appointment. He will take a vacation for a few weeks and visit San Francisco.

We were informed by Mr. Durbin that a sheepman of Antelope sheared 5900 head of Delaine sheep this spring and took from them 54,000 pounds of wool, which he sold at one of the big wool sales at Shanks for 17 1/2 cents per pound.

Jim Johnson, an old resident of Lake county, who has a ranch at Alkali, spent about a year about Ashland. While over there he was married to a widow, and Saturday they passed through Lakeview on their way to Paisley.

There is a new Coon in town. He and a young man quit a show at Burns and came across the desert on their way to San Francisco. The young man is a printer, and like all typos, made himself at home in the printing office while here.

Come and see the Patriotic Drill, Saturday night July 30th, at Cannon's Hall. A good program. Refreshments served during and after the program. Admission free. Come and see the drill by 12 young ladies. Invitation Committee, Pine Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Yancey left yesterday for a few weeks visit at Ashland. When fruit is ripe there they will bring back a load of peaches and grapes, and then return to Ashland for the winter. J. P. Duckworth has leased the feed yard from Mr. Yancey.

We understand that some pilferer has been applying his vocation in Lakeview recently. This is an unusual thing for Lakeview, and while the town is so nearly free from thieves it would be well to institute a vigilant search for this one and make an example of him.

F. E. Harris went over to the West Side Monday after a horse. He says that Joe Ambrose found a horse on Willow creek with a saddle and bridle on. Joe took the animal home and relieved it of the burden. Who ever the horse belongs to can get the rig at Joe's place.

W. Bayley's new dwelling is going up rapidly, four or five men are engaged in its construction. Mr. Bayley will have one of the neatest dwellings in town. All the rooms are large and arranged conveniently. He drew his own plans and will have a house exactly to his liking.

The adjourned meeting of the Lake County Woolgrowers Association has been continued until Saturday August 27th, at 10 o'clock P. M. at the Court House in Lakeview. When a permanent organization will be completed. By order of J. N. WATSON, Sec., pro tem. 30-2

The town of Mitchell, which was destroyed by a waterspout on the 11th, is in need of help. The statement given out to the press that no financial aid was needed was given out by someone who had no authority to make such a statement. At a mass meeting held there the town's loss was placed at $40,000, while the loss sustained by farmers along the canyon would add $35,000 more to that amount. A number have lost all they had and are really suffering for food and clothing.

Roosevelt has one point on Judge Parker now. Parker can swim, but he never got bucked off a horse like Roosevelt did.

F. W. Durbin, of Antelope was here Monday and placed an advertisement in The Examiner, offering 350 Rambouillet and Delaine rams for sale. The bucks are between here and Bly. They will be brought here about September 1 and placed on pasture. Read his advertisement.

C. F. Shepherd has sold pianos in Lake county for 12 or 14 years which fact is a guarantee that when you buy from him you do not pay an exorbitant price for an inferior instrument. He sells the Chickering, Kimball, Crown, and twenty other different makes. You make your selection and he puts the piano in your house. No home is complete these days without a piano.

Last Saturday evening Geo. Hankins, Mrs. Cobb, Miss Essie Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sherlock loaded camping paraphernalia into their wagons and started for Thomas creek for a day's fishing and to camp over night. At three o'clock Sunday morning F. B. Evans, A. J. Smith and Ephraim Miller drove out from town to spend the day with the crowd. The fishing was not first-class but the party enjoyed the outing and returned Sunday evening well satisfied.

Last Saturday, as was announced in The Examiner last week, the family of Geo. S. Nickerson departed for Reno, where they will make their future home. C. C. Cannon took them as far as Madeline, where he will meet his family and bring them home. The Nickerson girls will be missed in Lakeview, as they had many friends here and their being accomplished in music always donated freely their talent to local beneficiaries. Miss Ruth Nickerson taught music and had quite a class who will miss her.
