

New Instrument
N. S. McKenzie, general manager of the California and Oregon Telegraph Co., was here from Sausalito this week looking over the line and settling up business matters. Mr. McKenzie recently returned from the east where he went to introduce his new telephone instrument. He succeeded in getting a large manufacturing house to handle it, and now has it on a royalty. He also took in the World's fair for a week or so, where also he has his instrument on exhibition. This is a great improvement on the old telephone instrument and no doubt Mr. McKenzie will make a big thing out of it.—Alturas New Era.

It's also a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Lee Beall, Druggist.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an ailment on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga. "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. Alston Gibson, one of Andrew Jackson's favorite jacks, is living quietly at Ocala, Fla., having nearly reached the age of 116 years. He was born July 4, 1788, in South Carolina, and there is documentary evidence of his great age. The old man still takes much interest in racing matters. With Gibson is his wife, whom he married in 1839. She was born in 1816.
