NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET

For President THEODORE ROOSEVELT Of New York

For Vice-President CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS Of Indiana

Dr. Duren J. H. Ward, well known throughout the hawkeye state, has just been authorized by the board of curators of the Iowa Historical society to continue his investigations of the Indian mounds of Iowa.

Travelers returning from Europe declare that the scarcity of Americans at continental resorts is very noticeable this season, and hotel-keepers are complaining that not in years have they come upon such hard times.

The sensation caused by the temporary disappearance of Mrs. Ogden Golet's jewels has brought the statement that the $200,000 worth in question represent only one fifth of her possessions. It is said that at least half a score New York women have upwards of $1,000,000 invested in jewels and that not less than 50 own over $100,000 worth.

Captain Clay, commodore officer of the London & Northwestern company's fleet of steamships running between Holyhead and Ireland, who has just retired, has crossed the Irish sea upward of 20,000 times as commander and has navigated the railway company's vessels about 1,500,000 miles and carried upward of 1,251,000 passengers.

It is said that Stephen W. Dorsey, ex-United States senator and at one time noted because of his connection with the star route frauds, has made up his mind to settle in New York. At one time "Steve" Dorsey was prominent in public life, being an eminent exemplar of "practical politics."

Lieutenant Vogelgesang, who commanded the turret on the battleship Wisconsin, which attained the highest merit of any 12 or 13 inch electrical turret, winning the prize for that class of turret in the last annual target practice, has been commended by the navy department for the zeal and ability displayed as a turret officer.

Two imperial princes, one the brother and the other the second son of the shah of Persia—uncle and nephew being about the same age—are in flight and have sought refuge at Constantinople, where their extradition is being demanded by the Persian envoy. They are, it is said, implicated in a plot upon the life of the king of kings.

Of the many presents that the king of Denmark has received during his long life there is not one which he prizes more than a crown of gold which was given to him on the occasion of his golden wedding by the school children of Denmark. The crown is composed of golden corn ears and clover leaves. No child, it is interesting to add, was permitted to subscribe more than a penny toward its purchase.

John Lobb, the well known English writer on religious subjects and a member of the London city corporation, has joined the ranks of the spiritualists. He claims to have talked with the spirit of Dr. Talmage, whose sermons he published for a period of 30 years and whose life he edited.

Wilson Borrett, the English actor, who died recently as the result of a surgical operation for intestinal trouble, was quite a joker. Just before he was about to be chloroformed he said to the doctors: "Here's a fine state of things. I was to open my season in a few weeks, and here you fellows are about to open me." Thirty-six hours later he was a dead man, heart failure through fatty degeneration having carried him off.

Special Excursions to St. Louis.

August 8, 9 and 10, September 5, 6 and 7 and October 3, 4 and 5 are the remaining dates upon which tickets will be sold at the reduced rates to the St. Louis Fair. These rates apply over the Denver and Rio Grande and Missouri Pacific. For the patrons of these roads special excursion cars will be run through from Portland and St. Louis without charge.

See the many points of interest about the Mormon Capital and take a ride through Nature's picture gallery.

During the closing months travel to the Fair will be very heavy. If you contemplate going write W. C. McBride, general agent at Portland for the Denver and Rio Grande, for particulars of these Excursions.

Henri Lenkewicz, the Polish novelist, spent a year in wandering and hunting after his student career. His house is filled with trophies of the chase, and he is a collector of all kinds of curiosities. The most striking object in his study is a huge carved chest, with silver mountings, which is filled with priceless historical relics, including, among other things, rings and jewels of famous royal personages.

At the present moment there is quite a rage for fruit diet among several European royalties. The German emperor breakfasts and lunches off fruit and only tastes meat at dinner time, when he partakes of it very sparingly. The king of Italy for the last couple of months has lived almost altogether on fruit, and in several of the leading restaurants at Rome fruit in various shapes and forms makes almost the sole article of diet supplied to customers.

A DUTY WOMEN OWE THEMSELVES.

"Good actions speak louder than words," so too, does the testimony of many thousands of women during a third of a century speak louder than mere claims not backed by a guarantee of some kind. That is the reason why the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are willing to offer $500 reward for women who cannot be cured. Such a remarkable offer is founded on the long record of cures of the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. If there is an invalid woman, suffering from female weakness, prolapsus, or falling of womb, or from leucorrhoea who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription without complete success, the proprietors of that medicine would like to hear from such person—and it will be to her advantage to write them as they offer, in perfect good faith, a reward of $500 for any case of the above maladies which they cannot cure. No other medicine for woman's ills is possessed of the unparalleled curative properties that would warrant its makers in making such an offer.

The stars of the Good Shepherd, at their conven. "Our Lady of the Woods," Earthing, Ohio, use a great deal of Dr. Pierce's medicines; they say, in a recent letter to Dr. Pierce: "We beg to assure you of the great benefit these medicines give our ailing ones. We cannot sufficiently recommend their excellence."

When the druggist says he has something that is as good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, just tell him, "There's nothing just as good." He says so because he hopes to make a better profit but his own mixtures have not stood the test of long experience and success that Doctor Pierce's medicines have. Then, too, many patent medicines advertised as tonics, contain large quantities of alcohol. Dr. Pierce guarantees that his "Prescription" does not contain a particle of alcohol. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser—sent on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for a copy in paper; 31 stamps in cloth binding. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It is a good thing to keep Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in the house. One Pellet is a laxative, two a mild cathartic.
