LAKEVIEW, LAKE COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, SEPT. 22, 1904.

NO. 38.

GAVE VULGAR PERFORMANCES

The McKanlass minstrel troupe that passed through here a week or so ago are an outfit that should be suppressed. They advertise a decent performance, but when the crowd gets before them it is said their performance is vulgar and rotten. After the regular performance, the leader of the gang announces to the audience that a lecture will be given after the show which only gentlemen are permitted to hear. When the ladies have disappeared and what of the male suckers that have permitted themselves to be duped are settled in their seats to hear the "lecture," an old "nigger wench" appears on the stage in an absolute nude condition and proceeds with a sort of hurdy-gurdy, or hula-hula dance, that makes every one present ashamed to have it known that he witnessed the incident, consequently no one lodges a complaint. At Lakeview, however, the authorities were suspicious of something of the kind and when two officers appeared in the crowd the managers of the troupe became alarmed, and the dance was not quite so disgraceful. But we understand that at Paisley the show was simply disgraceful and vulgar.

Institute an Interesting One.

The annual Teachers' Institute commenced Monday. Prof. Search of Worcester, Mass., arrived here Sunday and gave lectures each night at the M. E. church, which were highly appreciated by all who attended. Prof. Search is a learned gentleman and an able speaker and Lake county should feel proud for having been accorded the services of so prominent a personage as Prof. Search.

The Institute was one of the best and most interesting ever held in the county, and much benefit was reaped from it.

Graham's Band furnished music for the occasion which was also an attractive feature.

The following teachers attended the institute:—Prof. Preston Search, Gilbert D. Brown, Wilfred Brown, J. Blough, Bernice Case, Ella Callahan, Mrs. T. H. Cloud, Mrs. L. F. Conn, Winifred Fleming, F. H. Fawcett, Orvilla Lemberger, F. N. Marquis, E. G. Robson, Jessie Sands, Myrtle M. Smith, Mrs. Helen Snyder, J. Q. Willets, Cora Findley.

Miss Grayce Beach Weds.

The following from the Ashland Tidings chronicles an important event in the life of a former Lakeview girl, and a sister of the Beach boys, who have been prominently identified with Lake county, having been in the newspaper, and other business here for the past 20 years.

Miss Beach has many friends in Lakeview who are among her well-wishers.

"The very many Ashland friends of the fair bride will be interested to learn of the marriage of Miss Grayce Beach, daughter of Mrs. S. M. Beach of this city, to Mr. William Murray Laddlaw, which happy event was celebrated yesterday, Sunday, September 11, at the home of Miss Beach's sister, Mrs. G. A. Follett, Central avenue, Richmond, Cal., where she has been visiting for several months past. The ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. H. J. Loken, of the First Christian church of Richmond, in the presence of a small company of relatives and intimate friends. Mrs. Follett played Lohengrin's wedding march and impressiveness was added to the nuptial service by the singing of "O, Promise Me," by Miss Mae Miller, of Oakland, an intimate friend of the bride, and a charming vocalist, who is a prominent member of the choir of Grace M. E. church in San Francisco. The house was tastily decorated for the joyous occasion, the color scheme being pale green and white. The bride wore dotted silk mull over white tulle, a tulle veil, and carried a Lily of the Valley bouquet. After light refreshments the happy pair took the Southern Pacific train for their future home at Martinez, Cal., where the groom, who is well up in newspaper circles, is now engaged in business.

Mrs. Laddlaw, a most worthy and accomplished young lady, was formerly a member of the Tidings typographical department, in which capacity she was very highly esteemed, and the entire force desire to join in the shower of congratulations and good wishes.

Performed Brave Deed.

Mrs. Brautlacht while returning to her home in Lakeview from Yreka recently had quite an experience at Pokegama with a runaway stage team. She and her little children had climbed into the four-horse stage coach and the driver was standing by the leader's head. The horses became frightened and started to run, knocking the driver down and running over him. The lines were tied to the break and Mrs. Brautlacht was sitting in the rear seat. She put the children under the seat and climbed over three seats to reach the lines while the horses were going at break-neck speed down through the timber. She succeeded in getting hold of the lines and kneeling down in the bottom of the coach to steady herself, began reining the frightened animals in. They ran about a mile and a quarter, however, before she could get them stopped. Had it not been for her children she would probably have jumped out when they first started and saved herself from what looked to be certain death, but to save them, she looked the grim monster in the face and defied it.

Bernard Comedy Company.

Harry Bernard, with his troupe of comedians have been giving performances in the Opera House since last Thursday evening to crowded audiences. Mr. Bernard is advertising the Native Herbs, a medicine of value to health, and also gives a good performance at a reasonable price. They are not the kind of people that bilk a town for a night or two. They pay their bills and give a performance worth the money. They expect to be here the rest of this week, and possibly longer.

Burglars at Paisley.

Last Thursday night some one entered the Currier & Cooley saloon at Paisley, through a window and pried open the till with an ax and took about $10, then they broke open the slot machine, which was a 25 cent machine, and while it is not known how much there was in there, it is believed about $40 was taken from the machine. The work was deliberately performed, and evidently the burglar was in no haste, as no clew was left behind with which he could be traced.

DRUNKEN INDIAN RUNS AMUCK

Last Wednesday two Indians were going down the road, presumably enroute to Bidwell, when they got a little beyond Pine Creek, just over into California, they met a little girl, we heard about 12 or 14 years old. The girl was walking along the road, and carried a dollar in her hand. One of the Indians made a grab at her and threw her upon the ground, took the money away from her, and proceeded to criminally assault the girl. Her screams were heard by a nearby farmer, who rushed to her rescue, and only reached the scene in time to save the poor girl from the dastardly crime of a half drunken Indian.

The Indian fled, leaving his horse and the man was unable to capture the brute of an Indian and he made his escape into a patch of tules near the lake shore. About 20 men were soon after him but could not get him out of the tules until nearly morning when he slipped out and made for his horse, when he was captured. Sheriff Street of Alturas was sent for at once and met the posse having in charge the Indian at Davis Creek where he was turned over to the sheriff. The other Indian returned to Lakeview. The Indian's name is not known, but he is a young fellow, said to be a pupil of the Bidwell Indian school.

Heryford-Lewis.

J. D. Heryford and Della Lewis were happily married last Saturday evening at Mrs. Lewis' residence on Slash street. Judge Daly performed the ceremony. The parties have not surprised their friends as completely as they may imagine. However, the event was hailed with delight by everyone. Mr. Heryford is to be congratulated and all wish Mrs. Heryford all the joys she so well deserves.

Mr. Heryford can well afford to take from his years of accumulation of wealth the dollars that went out with his glad hand to the dish-pan orchestra that greeted them a few evenings ago.

Everyone has something pleasant to say of this match, and the bride and groom have the good wishes of many friends, among them The Examiner.

Two Sad Deaths.

Tuesday evening Willie Boyd received a telegram stating that Lillian Burrus died in Reno on that morning, Sept. 20, 1904.

Lillie Burrus was raised in Lakeview, and went to Reno about two years ago, where she has been employed as bookkeeper for the Flanagan Warehouse Co. A couple of weeks ago she was taken sick with brain fever, from which she suffered until death relieved her sufferings Tuesday morning.

Lillie Burrus was known by many who were particularly fond of her because of her cheerful disposition, and her many friends here are saddened to hear of her death so early in life. She was about 24 years of age.

Deceased leaves a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burrus, one sister Miss Pearl, three brothers, Charley, Tommie and Archie, and a grandmother, Mrs. Blair, who left here last week to be by the bedside of her dying granddaughter, besides other fond relatives, and a score of warm friends.

Lee Beall received the sad news Tuesday morning by wire of the death at Central Point of his brother Thos. Beall, who died Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock. Tom has suffered of Bright's disease for several years, and left here a few months ago. His many dear friends here were sad to see him leave as they felt they would never see him again. Tom Beall was a jolly companion, an honorable citizen and a good and true friend to all whose good fortune it was to know him. He made friends everywhere he went, and many are the ones in Lake county who will mourn his early demise.

Tom Beall was aged 31 years and 11 months.

Goes to California.

C. C. Barnum and wife and son Willis Barnum, who have lived in Clover Flat for several years, have traded their ranch to a Mr. Schmidt, of Orange county, Calif., for orchard lands. Mr. Schmidt is here and the Barnums will drive a team to the railroad where Mr. Schmidt's family will meet them and bring the team back.

The Barnum family are well liked by everybody who have the good fortune to know them, and many are sorry to see them leave. However, it is for the benefit of Mrs. Barnum's health they move, and their friends hope the change of climate will be beneficial to her. It is hoped that they will prosper in their new home, and Mr. Schmidt and his family will be welcomed to Lake county.

The School Bell Rings.

The Lakeview school begins next Monday with five teachers. Prof. J. Blough, as principal, Miss Jessie Sands, 7th and 8th grades, Miss Winifred Fleming, 5th and 6th grades, Mrs. Thos. H. Cloud 3d and 4th grades and Miss Ella Callahan the primary department.

The Board are to be congratulated upon their judgement in selecting instructors for the coming term of school.

Made Quick Work of His Family.

O. E. Monroe, a laborer of Ashland whose wife had applied for a divorce, entered the house last Friday and shot his wife, his mother-in-law, sister-in-law and his little daughter, then turned the smoking pistol to his own head and blew out his brains. The child died the same evening and the sister-in-law may die, the other women are not seriously injured.

Prefers the Stage.

Mrs. L. Snider-Johnson, the well-known mezzo-soprano, whose beautiful voice has so often been raised in the cause of charity and who has been a valued member of the choir of the First Congregational Church for over three years, has decided to embark upon a professional career and will make her debut at the Orpheum next Saturday afternoon.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Counterfeit 50-Cent Pieces.

Evidently someone is passing counterfeit 50-cent pieces somewhere near here, as one turns up occasionally. They are a very poor counterfeit as their looks, as well as the ring when dropped on a counter gives them away at once. People should be careful in receiving money to not get hold of any of these 50-cent pieces.

FAIRBANKS WILL SPEAK IN OREGON

Senator Chas. W. Fairbanks, Republican candidate for vice-president is to come West and speak in Oregon, Washington and California. In looking over the program, Republican State Chairman Frank C. Baker noticed that no speech was scheduled for Portland, and at once telegraphed Chairman Tawney regarding the matter, and a speech was readily arranged for in Portland on October first. The Oregonian of the 15th says:

Citizens of Portland will have an opportunity of gazing upon, hearing and talking to the Republican candidate for Vice-President of the United States on the night of October 1. At the same time they will hear arguments which will enable them to judge for themselves what they should do when they go to the polls November 8.

Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana, the running-mate of Theodore Roosevelt, will speak in Portland Saturday night, October 1, and from the same platform will resound the voice of that famous man from Iowa, Senator J. P. Dolliver.

State Chairman Frank C. Baker is responsible for these speeches. As soon as Mr. Baker learned that Senator Fairbanks intended to visit the Pacific Coast he immediately telegraphed Chairman Tawney, asking whether the Vice-Presidential candidate would speak in Portland, and received the following reply:

Republican National Com.
Chicago, Sept. 14, 1904.

Hon. Frank C. Baker,
Chairman Republican State Com.
Portland, Or.

Yes, Sir; Senators Fairbanks and Dolliver will be at Portland Saturday evening, October 1.

J. A. TAWNEY.

Will Lake Make an Exhibit?

Judge Daly is in receipt of a letter from Edmond C. Giltner, Secretary of the Lewis & Clark Fair Commission, requesting the Judge to advise the commission how much floor space Lake county will require for its exhibit at the fair next year.

Now this is a matter that will require much time and space to discuss, and in order to give the citizens an opportunity to express their views, we will take the matter up next week and continue it until a definite conclusion is reached. Owing to conditions here, no railroad, or convenient means of getting exhibits on the grounds, it is thought that a thorough stock exhibit will be more successful than to undertake a general exhibit of all our product.

We will be glad to hear from anyone on this subject, and their views will be liberally dealt with.

Sheep Poisoned.

We are informed that about 200 mutton sheep were poisoned recently near Madeline. The sheep belonged to C. A. Estes and B. F. Lyulp and were driven to Madeline for shipment to market. Analysis made of the stomach of the sheep shows that the poison used was saltpeter and strychnine. What makes the outrage more dastardly was the fact that the sheep were poisoned at a spring on the main road, and only about two miles from Madeline. It will stand the railroad company in hand to ferret out the perpetrators of the deed, otherwise owners will be afraid to drive to Madeline.—Plaindealer.
