The largest of the burial mounds built by the aborigines in America is the Cahokia, situated eight miles west of the Mississippi river, between the mouth of the Missouri and St. Louis, which is 100 feet high, 1080 feet long and 710 feet wide.

The search for a physical process which would act directly on the circulating blood in cases of intoxication in order to extract the poison which it may contain is not a new thing, two methods up to the present having been tried—transfusion of the blood and washing of the blood.

In a half column newspaper interview, William S. Crowell, ex-county Judge, announces his intention to vote for Roosevelt at the coming November presidential election. The Colonel however reserves his democratic principles and says he is not a Republican convert, but admires Roosevelt and his administration and thinks that the Republican candidate is "better than his party."

The house of representatives in Washington was considering a bill to prohibit the docking of horses' tails. Congressman Perkins was speaking in favor of the measure when he was interrupted by Mr. Cooper of Wisconsin, who asked: "Why does anybody dock a horse's tail?" Mr. Perkins replied: "Chiefly because it looks a great deal better. Why do you cut your hair instead of having it down over your shoulders?" The humor of this reply, if any, lies in the fact that Mr. Cooper is about as bald as a turnip.

Democrats have contended all along that New Jersey would be found in their columns at the November election, but the democrats of New Jersey who have heretofore made that state doubtful, in convention a few days ago agreed to disengage with the managers of the national democratic campaign, and pledged their vote to Thos. E. Watson for president. By the actions of these democrats the democratic party in New Jersey is split, which makes it sure for Roosevelt. They decline to follow the lead of such men as Sheehan, Hill and Belmont into Wall street. They say, "that it was the intention of the managers of the St. Louis convention to deceive the people is proved by the fact that in no essential particular does the platform of the dominant party differ.

In Unmatilla county where a hardpan lies close under the surface of the ground and prevents the moisture from rising or the roots of alfalfa from reaching the moisture, farmers are experimenting with dynamite, breaking up the hardpan. It is expected that this will allow the moisture to rise to the surface, also the roots of alfalfa and trees to reach a greater depth.

Special Excursions to St. Louis.

August 8, 9 and 10, September 5, 6 and 7 and October 3, 4 and 5 are the remaining dates upon which tickets will be sold at the reduced rates to the St. Louis Fair. These rates apply over the Denver and Rio Grande and Missouri Pacific. For the patrons of these roads special excursion cars will be run through from Portland and St. Louis without change.

See the many points of interest about the Mormon Capital and take a ride through Nature's picture gallery. During the closing months travel to the Fair will be very heavy. If you contemplate going write W. C. McBride, general agent at Portland for the Denver and Rio Grande, for particulars of these Excursions.

Within the last 10 years the growth of the telephone business has been very rapid. The reports of the Bell companies show a sixfold increase in the number of outstanding instruments since 1893. There are now over one and a half million subscribers in these companies, and in the last four years the long distance traffic has increased $2 per cent.

The Misses Nettie and Etta Vinyard, popular teachers of Modoc County, arrived in Anderson Sunday. The ladies were former residents of our town and visited with friends until Wednesday night, when they left for Oakland.—Anderson News.

Paul Morton, the new secretary of the navy, has always been a glutton for work. Put a pile of important papers on his desk and his decisions come almost as fast as shots from a rapid fire gun. He does not drink or smoke, and his head is always clear.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure.
