

Additional Local

Miss Nora Carr departed last week for Portland, where she goes to get a position as nurse in a hospital.

Chas. Tonningsen returned from San Francisco last week, where he went to attend the Masonic convocation.

Miss Myrth Boone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boone of Plush, is here being treated for throat trouble.

The demand for sheep seems to be increasing. Last week inquiry was made in Lakeview for 30,000 yearling wethers.

Mrs. Emerson sold the remainder of her household furniture at auction last Saturday. She will leave soon for California.

Chas. Little was in town Monday from the West Side as a witness for W. G. Spencer in making final proof on his homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brattain and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lane went to Little Chewanah last week for a few weeks camping and fishing.

John Mulkey was a visitor in town Saturday from the West Side of the marsh. He has finished a long siege of haying.

We understand that Frank Houston will paint the I. O. O. F. cemetery fence. Good scheme; it needs paint and some repairs.

Ed. Munroe and Lillie P. Munroe were here last Saturday from Bidwell to make application for final proof on their homesteads.

Charley Wallace of Warner valley spent two or three days in town last week. He made this office a pleasant call while in town.

H. M. Fleming and sister, Miss Winifred Fleming were up from Pine Creek Monday. Miss Fleming remained to attend the Institute.

Mr. Almsworth, of the firm of Almsworth & Withers, Paisley merchants passed through Lakeview first of the week, enroute to Oakland, Cal.

Jim Green lost his purse the other day with $16 in it. Jim says he wishes the fellow who got it would bring it back, as he needs the money.

Mr. Manning, brother of Clerk Manning, who arrived here recently from Garfield, Washington, is contemplating going into the sheep business.

C. S. Morris and wife and children came down from the Moss ranch last Sunday to spend a few days visiting and to attend to a few business matters. Charley has not yet recovered from the injuries he received in haying by being knocked from a haystack on the Moss ranch. He has not been in town for four months. They visited their former home on the West Side.

Mr. Collins, of Lafollet & Collins, Prineville, thoroughbred sheep breeders, was here this week, looking out for the interests of his firm. Cedarville Record.

The Madras Pioneer, a bright and newsy sheet published by Don Ren at Madras, Crook county, is on our table. The Pioneer is a new advent to the newspaper world.

Lee Beall, Harry Bailey, Vince Snelling and Dr. Steiner were out hunting a few days ago, but Lee says he was the only one of the quartet that could kill a bird.

Lafollet & Collins and F. W. Durbin are confident that there is sufficient demand in Lake county for all the thoroughbred bucks they have here. The prospect is good, they say.

Clay Fisher, the Warner sheepman came over to town last week to see the two bands of thoroughbred bucks advertised in The Examiner. He succeeded in purchasing ten head.

H. R. Cramer, Miss Iva M. Ryan and Miss Estelle Morgan, who were here several days making proof on their homesteads near Paisley left Monday morning on the Western stage.

F. M. Miller and wife expect to start soon for California. Mrs. Miller has been in poor health a good part of the summer and she will visit a resort in California for her health.

Miss Sands arrived here last Sunday morning from the west, and will begin teaching in the public schools of Lakeview next Monday. Miss Sands will stop with Mrs. Whitworth.

The Post says that Geo. Cooley, of the Pioneer Saloon of Paisley has been looking over his stock of medicine purchased from the Bernard company, and thinks he will start a drug store.

John Peacock and family returned from Klamath county Sunday and will remain here. Mr. Peacock expects to attend the races at Klamath Falls, when he will return here for the winter.

Talk about fruit.—S. F. Ahlstrom brought in a sample of plums from his orchard Tuesday that beats anything we have seen yet. A cluster of them as they came from the tree are now hanging in this office.

We understand that F. M. Chrisman has purchased the Silver Lake hotel from Mrs. Marshal. Mr. Chrisman owns another hotel at Silver Lake, and now controls the eating establishments of that place.

The Examiner has telegraphed to a New York engraving company for a lot of 10x14 inch portraits of President Roosevelt. They will be issued as an Examiner supplement as soon as they arrive, which will be about the middle of October, possibly the second week in October. Every subscriber to the Examiner will get one of these fine portraits free.

The fire proof steel vault was placed in the new bank building last week and, besides having steel walls, floor and ceiling, a two-foot brick wall was built all round and on top of it. The vault is now absolutely fire and burglar proof.

A son was born to the wife of Ralph Foster recently in Cottage Grove and Ralph went over and brought the youngster and his mother home. Ralph is wondering if every new father feels just as he does, or if this particular event is as important as it seems to him.

A. N. Willey has been in this section for a week looking for beef cattle. He has purchased several small bunches of cattle paying, he informs us, 4 cents for cows, 4½ for heifers and 5½ for steers. Mr. Willey thinks there will be fair demand for feeders later in the season.—Plainsdealer.

Fires are still raging in the Willamette county, and many towns are threatened. Portland people are becoming alarmed for fear the fires that are doing damage about Gresham and other small towns near there, will burn up to the city limits and do much damage to Portland.

Chas. Rehart's team took a run through town one day last week, making a street scene that was worth seeing. They started near Harry Bailey's residence, and ran west to Main street, when they turned north and made good time until they straddled a light pole and left the wagon. A few rods further brought them up against the fence south of the livery stable where they hung up. No great amount of damage was done.

NOTICE.

Hunters will take notice that I allow positively no shooting on my land. All trespassers will be prosecuted.
