

Additional Local

C. M. Oliver, the Pine Creek farmer and stock raiser, was doing business in Lakeview last week.

Harry Aldridge was up from Pine Creek last week, and reports everything in good shape at the state line.

The heavy rains wet the mail sacks through, and considerable of the matter was wet several times of late.

Thos. Anderson came over from Warner last week, where he spent the summer looking after his interests there.

W. J. Morrison, representing the Miller-Chapin-Enwright Co., wholesale dealers in hardware, of Sacramento, was doing business in Lakeview last week.

The weather the past week has had the appearance of fall. After the storm, however, considerable good weather is expected before the fall weather sets in.

Some of the finest peaches it has been our pleasure to eat were brought into town last week by Mr. Swasey. They were the product of the Taylor ranch at New Pine Creek.

Frank Evans and Geo. Ayers returned from San Francisco last Saturday evening where they went to attend the conclave. They report having had a fine time while they were in the city.

B. F. Cannon was in town Monday. Mr. Cannon has been engaged for several weeks bringing the Moss sheep off the summer range and putting them on the low hills in the Chewaucan country.

Clerk Manning thinks he is doing a good business now in the marriage license business. He issued four last week, and he says it wasn't a very good week for marrying, either.—Wonder why he thinks it wasn't?

B. McGrath was in town Saturday and left at this office a product of the McGrath ranch, 8 miles below town, in the shape of a pepper. It is the largest we have ever seen, resembling more in size, a summer squash.

One of the steamboats on Klamath Lake, the "Jessie," was burned about a week ago while the boat crew, including Capt. Staton, the owner of the boat, were taking on wood at Eagle Ridge, about half way between Klamath Falls and Pelican Bay. The anchor ropes were burned off and the boat drifted out into the lake and sank. The "Jessie" was insured for $1500, about half its value. Mr. Staton says he will build another boat and hopes to have it completed by spring.

Dan P. Browne secretary of the Warner Stock Co., was here last week, having returned from San Francisco where he attended the conclave.

Thos. Alford, who has been absent from Lake county for several months, has returned, and after visiting his brother in Ashland, will probably remain here through the winter.

After making an examination of the old flume, the city council concluded it was too badly delapidated and rotten to repair, and are now putting new flume all the way through town.

The sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows has been in annual session in San Francisco, where one of the most elaborate meetings of the kind was ever held. The next annual session will be held in Philadelphia.

Ben Cloud and family will move up from Pine Creek to send their children to school. They will occupy Mrs. Dodson's residence, where G. T. Bowman now lives. Mrs. Bowman and children will spend the winter visiting with relatives in Reno.

V. Conn, the Paisley merchant, who went to San Francisco some weeks ago to meet his family upon their return from a visit at the St. Louis fair, arrived here with his family Monday evening from Portland, where they went for a short visit after leaving San Francisco.

Coming. Edwards' moving Picture Company. Latest Edison moving Picture Machine. We show many of the latest moving pictures, and numerous illustrated songs, a great many views of the Japanese-Russian war and many other views too numerous to mention. Come and hear Prof. Fox on the banjo to-morrow (Friday) night at Heryford & Smith's Opera House.

J. W. Loftus was over from Warner first of the week. He says the fruit crop on his Warner ranch is good this year. Some of the finest peaches he ever saw, grew in Warner this summer. Mr. Loftus is contemplating going to California with a bunch of horses this fall.

"Uncle Jim" Foster of Summer Lake came down from there Sunday and returned yesterday. Mr. Foster's Grandson, Earl Foster, son of John Foster, came down with him to attend school in Lakeview this winter. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Umbach, who has been visiting at the Foster ranch also came home.

J. W. Collins of the firm of Lafollett & Collins, who went to Surprise Valley a few weeks ago, has returned. He secured the promise of a few of the Modoc sheepmen to come to Lakeview to look at the thoroughbred bucks they have here on sale. They are fine sheep, and no doubt when the Surprise valley sheepmen see them a sale will be made.

Prof. Search and Prof. Willits departed last Thursday for Crater Lake, where Prof. Search goes to see the lake he has read so much about. The Prof. has traveled all over the world, and has missed seeing but very few noted places.

A decision was handed down recently in the supreme courts of California, which settles the long controversy over the coyote scalp law. The courts have decided that the state must pay for the scalps, and it now only remains for the legislature to appropriate the necessary amount.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Jaquish, while playing about the Jaquish home last week climbed into a carriage and jumped to the ground. In some way her feet became tangled and she fell to the ground, striking on her head and one arm. The arm was broken in two places below the elbow. Dr. Steiner attended the little girl.

Graham's Concert Band has leased the Umbach building on Bear street, where the band will practice. They have the building fixed up in neat shape. The band is getting along nicely, and expect to buy uniforms this winter. It is Mr. Graham's intention to make a tour of the neighboring towns some time this winter giving concerts.

The Moore Company are now at Klamath Falls. It was the intention of the company to show in Alturas during the Modoc county fair, but owing to the illness of Mrs. Moore, they will remain in Klamath Falls until after the Klamath fair, giving performances once a week until the fair opens, then they will put on a series of new plays, appearing every night.

Walter A. Sherlock who returned from San Francisco last week, succeeded in getting about 2000 head of mutton sheep to ship to the Donn Biggs Co., commission butchers. Mr. Sherlock says he would like to buy now, but owing to the fact that his company is doing a commission business, he says he will not buy, as it would make an opening for crooked work, and he does not want to lose the confidence of his customers.

W. M. Harvey, who for the past two years has conducted the restaurant and built up an excellent trade, sold the establishment to Ely, the Chinese cook who worked for Mr. Harvey. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and daughter Josie went to Alturas Sunday where they will take in the Modoc fair. They will remain at Alturas a couple of weeks, when they will return here, where he will settle some business matters before leaving for Ohio, where they will spend the winter visiting the parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Harvey. They expect to return here in the spring.
