Geo. Boone came over from Warner Tuesday to assist J. C. Dodson in his cattle drive.

W. F. Petree, who is hauling lumber from the Camas sawmill for the flume, had one of his horses get very sick Tuesday.

Geo. M. Jones came down from Paisley last week to spend a few days visiting with his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Snider.

H. E. Morton of El Paso, Texas registered at Hotel Lakeview Saturday. We understand he is here in the interest of a mining company.

Wm. Thorne was in town first of the week, having delivered the Snyder sheep over to B. W. Hartman. Mr. Thorne will go to work for Geo. Hankins.

Prof. Hoffman, the slight of hand performer who gave some good shows here this summer, died a few weeks ago at Montgomery Creek, California.

C. C. Reynolds was up from Pine Creek Monday. He informed us that J. S. McLaughlin was going to California and would be absent for several months.

Elsie Llaville and wife will spend the winter at Wheatland, California, where Elsie has a position with the Clemens & Horst hop growers, breaking horses.

Geo. Nelson brought a load of potatoes to town Saturday from the West Side and sold them readily at 1 1/2 cents. Geo says he raised 700 bushels of grain this year.

Frank Silva was in from the West Side first of the week. Mrs. Silva has been suffering from some kind of a gathering in the head and will go to San Francisco to be treated.

Miss Mauring, deputy county clerk, expects to spend the winter in Arizona. She will leave for there in a couple of months. Miss Mauring will return to Lakeview in the spring.

J. C. Oliver was in town Saturday, having finished harvesting. Mr. Oliver was with the Snyder machine, and says the crops this year were not very heavy, but quality was good.

The John Snyder threshing machine finished work on the Goose Lake grain crops last week. Mr. Snyder threshed 20,000 bushels of barley, 18,000 bushels of wheat, 2,000 bushels of rye and 300 bushels of oats. The Thruston machine, we understand threshed about 20,000 bushels of grain altogether.

Lost—Between Lakeview and the Hankins shearing corrals, Tuesday evening, a .38 calibre Smith & Wesson blue pistol. Finder can leave at this office or return to owner.

WM. THORNE.

W. L. Flack, who has worked for the Chewaucan Land & Cattle Co., of Chewaucan for several years, passed through Lakeview last week going to San Francisco, where he will be treated for weak eyes. Mr. Flack will remain in the city all winter.

The semi-annual report of the county officers is being compiled. The amount of taxes collected by the sheriff for the last six months ending September 30, is $11,731.16. A large portion of April's receipts, which amounted to $4,304.19, was paid on the first installment.

L. B. Lafollet and wife departed for their home at Prineville last Saturday. Mr. J. W. Collins, of the firm of Lafollet & Collins remained here to dispose of the bucks. He succeeded in selling 26 head Monday to Messrs. Wilshire, Filon and Turpin.

Supt. J. Q. Willits returned Saturday from Crater Lake, where he went with Prof. Search. The Prof. was greatly pleased with Oregon's great summer resort, and says he will bring his family from Massachusetts to camp on the lake next year.

Robert Kelley and wife expect to start soon for California where they will spend the winter. They have not yet decided just where they will locate, but expect to find a warmer climate in which to winter as they are both getting well along in years and the cold does not agree with them.

Walter Reed of Bly, reports that since the removal of the Bly post-office to old Bly, the Watts Bros., who had a store at New Bly, where they kept the postoffice, have bought out the Smith store at the old site, and the Casebeer hotel at New Bly has been closed, and hereafter all business will be done at the old Bly site.

The Baptist Annual Association was held at Crane Creek last week and occupied Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Three sermons were preached every day. The association was largely attended and a good time was had. Next year the association will be held at Silver Lake. Mr. J. B. Griffith and daughter, Mr. Robert Cassey, and daughter and Miss Jones, all of Klamath county were in attendance. They departed for their homes Sunday.

Mrs. Burns expected to start for Wheatland, Calif., yesterday.

Canada has a cart, stocked and attractively decked with Canadian products, travelling through remote districts of Scotland, which the Canadian immigration department can not reach through the ordinary advertising columns.

The Peruvian government is about to found a national museum of natural science, which will have its home in Lima and in which there will be three departments—one devoted to animal life, another to plant and a third to minerals.

Charles M. Schwab broke into the San Francisco stock market with unexpected activity and bought up 20,000 shares of preferred steel stock, representing nearly $1,500,000. His operation in steel stock in the Bay City has caused a loss of $2,000,000 to Wall Street gamblers.

We are in receipt of a letter from a man in Indiana asking why the people of Lake county don't get up some sort of advertising pamphlets or something of the kind and distribute them in the over-crowded East. He asked a thousand questions. We only answered 999 of them; the above question we could not answer with credit to our people.

The oldest inhabitants of the New York aquarium are the striped bass, which have been there for ten years, having been placed in one of the floor pools before the building was opened to the public. In May, 1894, 55 specimens, weighing from a quarter of a pound to four pounds, were secured, 27 of which have survived. Most of those that were lost died in the first year, and in the last four years not one has died.

We are in receipt of a copy of the latest song "My Mercedes," composed by W. Wesley Wells, just before his death. The song is just out and, like "I Wait Alone for Thee," another of his popular songs, is a favorite among music lovers. The publishers, J. W. Jenkins Sons, Music Co., of Kansas City, Mo., are making a special price of 25 cents. It is in sheet form and handsomely covered.
