ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET

For President
THEODORE ROOSEVELT
Of New York

For Vice-President
CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS
Of Indiana

President Eliot, of Harvard, is out for Roosevelt; and the Democrats are looking at each other and wondering where the lightning will strike next.

According to an account recently published in a Budu Pesth newspaper, General Stoessel, the brave Russian defender of Port Arthur, is of Jewish origin.

Professor I. Itani, fishery commissioner of Japan, and Kajin Nakamura, editor of the Japanese-American Commercial Weekly, are in Baltimore studying oyster and fish culture.

Cipriano Castro, the president of Venezuela, lives in a house built entirely of steel. The outside is covered with a kind of soft stone and the inside with lath and plaster, so that the visitor sees nothing unusual.

Speaker Cannon says that the great trouble in this campaign is the over confidence of the Republicans. The speaker is a level-headed man. In order to win all true Republicans must work and work hard for the ticket.

Perhaps when Judge Parker has the time he will explain how he, who has never been in the Philippines, knows so much more about them than Secretary Taft, who has spent several years grappling with their problems on the spot.

To give the Philippines in mediate representation at the request of a party identified with the disfranchisement policy in the South might not help their interests much. There is an old proverb in Devonshire about its not being wise to show a cat the way to the cream.

Thus far the Democratic party seems to consist entirely of statements in the negative. We have been told what Parker will not do if he is President, and what the party will not do if it gets into power, and at the same time we have been given to understand that Parker is a good, strong man, who will do something, but not the things which Roosevelt has done. But inasmuch as the things which Roosevelt and the Republican party have done and propose to do in the future cover a surprisingly large ground, it would be interesting to know what the evolutions of Parker would be outside this forbidden territory.

There are nearly 10,000 dogs in Kansas City. Captain James Kennedy, the official enumerator, has accounted for and collected taxes on 8000 since June 1, a gain of 1000 over last year, and says he hopes to round up the other 2000 before snow flies.

A CONFIDENTIAL CHAT.

"It's perfect nonsense, Bessie, for you to talk of being laid on the shelf. Why, it all depends on yourself. Forget your worries, your aches and ailments; do as I did, take plenty of out-of-door air, cultivate happiness by not allowing your mind to dwell on the trifles and the worries of life. I sent thirty-one cents in stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for his 'Common Sense Medical Adviser,' and found it contained much useful information about the care of my health, about physiology, anatomy, and everything a woman should know. I then decided to write Dr. Pierce and tell him all about my ailments. I received such a nice, carefully considered and confidential letter, in reply, giving me advice about my diet, exercise and all. This advice is free to everyone and I wonder you don't write him at once. It didn't take me many months to regain my good looks. Ever since I was fifteen I have suffered untold agonies periodically but now I am free from pain, worry and bad temper. Occasionally I took Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—this for the complexion, and to stimulate the liver. Then I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription three times a day for those womanly weaknesses I told you about. That's my secret of beauty. It's the easiest thing in the world to be happy and keep one's good looks. Look at the thousands of women who have been made well by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; look how they keep their good looks. Dr. Pierce offers $200 reward for any case of Leucorrea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which he cannot cure. All he asks is a fair and reasonable trial of his means of cure."
