Miss Anna Schlegel for photographs.

L. W. Jackson of Alturas was here Tuesday.

F. W. Reed of Washington D. C. is registered at the hotel.

Hay, barn-room and meals for sale at Camas Prairie. Mrs. Mcintosh.

Wm. C. Robinson, camp tender for Wm. Smock came in from Rock Creek Tuesday after supplies.

The popular photograph gallery is being conducted by Miss Anna Schlegel at the same old stand.

Post & King have the best line of cigars in Lakeview. Their liquors are pure and wholesome, and their place is conducted on the most modern plan.

F. H. Page of Portland has recently purchased the Fred and Gus Melrose ranch near Fort Klamath. Having no cattle he has several hundred tons of hay to sell on the place. Address 120 Front st., Portland. 46

County Superintendent J. Q. Willis has returned from Silver Lake, Summer Lake, Paisley and other places in the northern part of the county, where he went on school matters. He reports schools doing nicely up that way.

B. F. Barnum sent to this office a couple of samples of parsnips raised on his ranch. They are each over 3 feet long, and go to show what can be raised in Goose Lake valley in the vegetable line.

We understand that Jim Green has been tendered the position of foreman on the XL ranch, and has accepted. G. W. Duncan has held down that position for some time, he assuming charge when F. M. Green resigned to take charge of the 70 firm.

The Rebekahs of Lakeview are practicing for an entertainment. They give some interesting entertainments and the one to be put on in the near future is not expected to fall below the average. In fact, it is more apt to surpass any like event previously put on.

Geo. P. Lovegrove, who has been keeping books for the Chewaucan Land & Cattle Co., for a couple of years came down from there last week, and left Saturday for an extended trip to Tonopah and San Francisco, and it is said he will go east.

D. H. Hartzog was up town Saturday from the ranch. He informed us that the neighbors of Mrs. Retta Vernon gathered at her home on last Friday and put a new roof on it for her. The people of that neighborhood are the right kind. "A friend in need is a friend indeed."

J. E. Boone and Wade Snyder came over from Plush last week. They moved Daniel Boone's family and household goods to Lakeview. Mr. Boone is now comfortably domiciled in the Myrtle residence. Mr. Snyder and J. E. Boone started back to Plush Monday with a load of provisions for Snyder's sheep camp.

PIGS FOR SALE.—A number of thoroughbred Poland China pigs, imported from Illinois—bred from prize-winner at the Illinois State Fair, and closely related to the winner at the International Stock Fair held at Chicago in 1903. Come and look at these pigs whether you want to buy or not at the C. M. Oliver ranch, 3 miles south of New Pine Creek. If

Last week we reported the sale of the planing mill to W. A. Wilshire. The mill and grounds have been sold again to Harris, Jaquish and Norin. These gentlemen have gone to work and will soon have the mill running in full blast, turning out windows and doors and the work shop of the furniture store will be moved to the mill where a general furniture factory will be conducted.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
Give nature three helps, and nearly every case of consumption will recover. Fresh air, most important of all.

Cherry Pectoral
Nourishing food comes next. Then, a medicine to control the cough and heal the lungs. Ask any good doctor.

Consumption
Health demands daily action of the bowels. Aid nature with Ayer's Pills.
