

Additional Local

A. Amlek was up from Pine Creek yesterday.

Wm. Taylor was here yesterday from the ZX ranch.

W. D. Duke, the San Francisco beef buyer arrived here yesterday.

Post & King have the best line of cigars in Lakeview. Their liquors are pure and wholesome, and their place is conducted on the most modern plan 28

Dan Maloy returned Saturday from the Gerber ranch. He informed us that Gerber sold 15 head of horses to E. G. Mobley for Frank T. Peach of San Jose.

Silver Lake people are talking seriously of building a new school house in that town. Silver Lake seems to be keeping pace with the rest of prosperous Lake county.

Mrs. Dr. Steiner expects to leave for Salem about the first of December for an extended visit. She will remain away till after the Dr. attends the session of the state legislature this winter.

John Odum came in from Klamath county Tuesday where he has been with the sheep this summer, and was shaking hands with his many friends here. He made the Examiner office a pleasant call.

A new Baptist parsonage is the latest addition to the thriving town of New Pine Creek. Construction work has been in progress for a couple of weeks and now the building is nearing completion.

The Band will give an all night dance on the night of Nov. 24, Thanksgiving. Tickets will be on sale this week at $1.50. Supper will be prepared at the restaurant, which will be charged for extra.

Steps were taken last week to have Mr. Bodger, an old and well-known resident of Goose Lake valley, committed to the asylum at Stockton California. Mr. Bodger lived just across the line in Modoc county.

We extend our thanks to Mr. H. C. Fleming, who treated the Examiner force to cider last Saturday. Mr. Fleming never forgets the newspaper boys when he has anything good and we certainly appreciate it.

L. F. Winkleman has leased the Occidental Hotel at Antelope, says the Silver Lake Oregonian. The Occidental is said to be one of the best hotels in Crook county and Mr. Winkleman is a good landlord. Success to Mr. Winkleman.

The N.C.O. railroad is still coming. The surveyors are at work on the route north from Likely and since crossing the mountains from Madeline to Likely they are finding comparatively level country and are progressing very rapidly.

Joe Gallagher and wife returned to Lake county last Sunday a week ago, from British Columbia, where he has been engaged in the sheep business. Joe says that country is all right for stock and he intends to return there about the first of the year.

Mrs. Dollie Withers of Paisley, who has been visiting in San Francisco for several months, arrived in Lakeview Monday evening on her return to her home at Paisley. She reports having had an enjoyable time. C. L. Withers and wife also returned Tuesday evening from their honeymoon. They too visited San Francisco and other California towns.

Pigs for Sale.—A number of thoroughbred Poland China pigs, imported from Illinois—bred from prize-winner at the Illinois State Fair, and closely related to the winner at the International Stock Fair held at Chicago in 1903. Come and look at these pigs whether you want to buy or not at the C. M. Oliver ranch, 3 miles south of New Pine Creek. tf

Some one played a trick on the Examiner man the other night. Our cow laid out all night, and the next morning when she was found she had been milked, suspicion points strongly to Mart Hopkins.

In the train wreck which occurred at Marmole on Oct. 20, there were destroyed a shipment of Christmas goods, consigned to Bieber's Cash Store. Mr. Bieber informed us that the shipment was immediately duplicated and will arrive in time to be on exhibition about December first. *

The Silver Lake horsemen left today for the Sycan country to gather their furr tails for the winter. Some of the horses will be turned in pastures and fed hay when the snow appears, while others will be taken to the desert and left to rustle for themselves.—Silver Lake Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Flook started for their home yesterday. Mr. Flook says they need a road and mail line from Plush to Rock Creek the worst way. That is a section of country that has been neglected. It is a part of Lake county and bears the same commercial relation to Lakeview that Lake county bears to Portland.

But one announcement has been made thus far regarding the next cabinet, and that pertains to secretary of state. President Roosevelt has stated positively that John Hay will remain in his cabinet until the close of his next term of office, which expires March 4, 1909. As to other portfolios the president refuses to make any announcement.

Quite a lot of Modoc timber land has been bought up recently by C. E. Swezy of Susanville for Eastern capitalists. The purchases amount to about 30,000 acres, including the property owned by the Modoc Mining and Milling Co. The price paid for 1/2 section of timber land was a little less than $1,000.

When Peter Brown, a laborer living near Molalla, Oregon, returned from a three month's job at Oregon City, he found his wife lying in a pool of blood, where she had evidently fallen not less than a month ago from the hands of an unknown assassin. No clue to the dastardly deed has yet been found. Mrs. Brown was 62 years of age.

Some years ago when Mr. T. J. Flook was in Canada he bought from the Indians there a carved stone pipe and a handsomely beaded buckskin tobacco pouch. This week he presented the Indian relics to Mrs. Dr. Steiner to add to her collection, which makes a pretty and valuable addition. Mrs. Steiner has a large and beautiful collection of Indian relics.

A petition is being circulated asking for the appointment of Ephraim Miller to the position of postmaster at Lakeview. The petition is being signed by every one to whom it is presented. Mr. Miller has served 2 1/2 years in the capacity of assistant postmaster and has become efficient in the conduct of the office duties, and will be a good and reliable postmaster. He will no doubt be appointed.

The Laird Note for $600.00.
The unwarranted attack of L. F. Conn upon the undersigned, behind the name of W. C. Laird, is a foul and dirty misrepresentation with a view of satisfying his jealousy and placing the standing of others on a level of his own.

The note in question was given in consideration for a deed to 120 acres of land and when Laird intimated his dissatisfaction, he was offered at three different times the return of note for a reconveyance of the land, but Laird refused to do so, and under advice is holding the land and trying to deny the note.
