LAKEVIEW, OREGON, DEC. 1, 1904

Thronged the White House.

There are three roses on the Roosevelt coat of arms. They are not displayed as symbols of secrecy as was the custom with the ancients, for no man is more outspoken and above board than the President. The day after the election the leading business men of Washington thronged the White House to congratulate its occupant, and each of them brought a rose, until Mr. Roosevelt found his arms full—just four years ago great bunches of carnations were given to President McKinley. Among the callers on Wednesday was the aged widow of Gen. Anderson, of Fort Sumter fame, with a big bunch of the heraldic flowers in her hands. The President hastened to her carriage to save her the trouble of alighting. The contrast between the two was worthy of note. Mr. Roosevelt could hardly have been more than two years of age when the husband of this woman was heroically defending the fort under his command. When your correspondent first made the acquaintance of Mrs. Gen. Anderson, she was a guest at Cranston's famous New York Hotel, which was long since disappeared from Broadway in the great city. Then she was handsome, vivacious and in the full vigor of middle life, with dark hair and eyes. Now she is gray, wan and feeble. These little home incidents show in what estimation the President is held by his neighbors.

It is too early yet to speak advisedly of forthcoming changes in the Executive branch of the Government. There is no hurry as everything is running smoothly, and the President can bide his time, being master of the situation. Because Chief Justice Fuller will reach the retiring age of 72 next March, enabling him to receive a pension of $10,000 it is assumed that he will resign, and then it is pointed out that Secretary Taft will be made Chief Justice. Messrs. Hay, Morton, Wilson and McCall will probably retain their portfolios but it is thought that Secretaries Shaw and Hitchcock may wish to resign for the purpose of attending to private business. If all these things happen, there will be places enough for Mr. Cortelyou without displacing Mr. Wynne, the Postmaster General. The President will have the War, the Treasury and the Interior vacancies at his disposal. But no one can exactly forecast the future, not even, the weather man.

Notwithstanding the fact that President Roosevelt is a friend of tariff revision, nothing will appear in his message to Congress this winter as urging tariff revision at the coming session. No doubt the president sees enough ahead to keep the law-makers busy, and prefers to more thoroughly study conditions, and if tariff revision is really advisable and necessary he will call an extra session. Further, no doubt, the president prefers to put any tariff revision legislation that might be thought to the interest of the nation, on ground safe from purchase or dicker. If a special session is called for the purpose of regulating the tariff on any article, there will be no other measures to use as collateral.

This Language of Ours.

Teacher—What do you mean, Willie Emerson Beansby, that "a battleship is a rowboat?"
William Emerson Beansby—You will pardon my saying that you both misconstrue my meaning and mispronounce my words. In this instance the word row is pronounced with the same sound of ow that is found in "cow." Following this direction and adopting my hypothesis, you will readily discover that I am right in my fundamental postulate.—Baltimore American.

It is much easier for a woman to confide in the average man than in the average woman. She knows that the man will respect her confidences and keep them to himself. He is strong, has more experience of the world and can help the woman who needs advice. There is every reason why women should not trust their delicate constitutions in the hands of unskilled persons. It requires a thorough medical education to appreciate and understand the womanly organism. When a woman has ill and pains that she cannot bear—when life seems dark for every woman, she should confide her troubles to a physician of standing in the community, or one who has a national reputation. Certainly it would not be the part of wisdom to confide in an ignorant person without medical education simply because she was a woman. There is every reason why she should write to some great specialist, one who has made the diseases of women a specialty for a third of a century, like Dr. E. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. All his correspondence is held sacredly confidential, and he gives his advice free and without charge.
So uniformly successful has Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proven in all forms of Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, and Leucorrhoea, that, after curing the worst cases of these distressing and debilitating ailments, Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in cash for any case of these diseases which he cannot cure.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.
