

Additional Local

Mrs. Walter Dyer arrived Tuesday evening from Aurora, Ill.

We learn that Eldon Woodcock and wife will spend the Winter in Reno.

Tea Garden Drips $1.25 a gallon at Bieber's Cash Store.

H. H. Hahn, the Singer sewing machine man of Cedarville, is here this week.

E. C. Ahlstrom made a business trip to Paisley last week, returning home Tuesday.

Ed. Bond of Warner valley was in town after supplies last week. He returned home Sunday.

H. C. Whitworth arrived in Lakeview on Tuesday morning's Western stage, after an absence of more than a year.

Milton Brown, an old resident of Lake county, died at Silver Lake on Saturday, the 19th. Mr. Brown was about 90 years old.

Nan Patterson, the accused murderer of Caesar Young now on trial in New York, is besieged with letters from admirers of her recent notoriety, who wish to marry her.

Mrs. E. M. Brown of Lakeview, started for Sacramento yesterday morning, to be by the side of her sister, Mrs. Walter Duke, who is not expected to live many more days.

Wm. Burgun was up from his farm below Pine Creek last Friday. He reported things quiet in his section of country. Mr. Burgun made The Examiner office a pleasant call while in town.

Frank Paxton, the hustling young sheepman, came in from Sheep Rock last week, where he has the Will Roush sheep. Frank says unless it storms very soon sheep on the desert will suffer for water.

Buy a New Connecticut Food chopper a combined Meat Chopper—Food Chopper and Nut Butter Mill. They are simple Durable and Strong and cost only $2.00 at Bieber's Cash Store.

F. M. Green returned from California Tuesday, where he went with a bunch of horses, which he sold for a fair price. Felix says good horse find ready sale in the California market, and bring good prices.

Hi Barnes, the New Pine Creek miller writes from Richmond California to have his Examiner sent to him at that address for awhile. Mr. Barnes will remain there several weeks on account of his wife's health.

The Eastern Star lodge had a big eat last Friday night, and from the chicken bones thrown out at the back door of their banquet room in the rear of The Examiner office, the affair was an enjoyable one.

The town hall is about finished and Recorder Snider and Marshall Whorton will soon be located in new offices. Man is looking for some one to dedicate the two new cells in the rear of the town hall.

Jim Harper and wife and Dick Hartlerode passed through town first of the week enroute to Davis Creek on a visit with Mrs. Harper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hartlerode. They will remain about a month before returning to their home at Paisley.

Stock Examiner Smith returned last week from Klamath county, where he has been inspecting cattle moving to the railroad. Mr. Smith will return to Klamath Falls shortly and expects to spend considerable time there this winter.

W. R. Bond, the old salt man of Warner, was in Lakeview last Saturday, and called at The Examiner office to see the press run. Mr. Bond informed us that he had leased his Warner ranch to his nephew E. E. Bond, for a term of two years, and he expects to spend these two years in California for his health.

Wm. Dykeman of Drews valley was in town Monday.

It is reported that big timber deals in the Jenny Creek section, in Jackson county, have been consummated. Wm. Reed of the firm of Reed, Pelton & Ward, of Portland is the purchaser, and the price paid ranges from $1600 to $4250 a claim.

Shoes! A better stock you cannot find than at Bieber's Cash Store.

A. Storkmann, the cigar manufacturer, has received a lot of fancy cigar boxes which he will fill with his best make of smokers and put on sale for Christmas presents. The boxes are made expressly for Christmas presents and hold 25 cigars.

Mrs. W. A. Wilshire will go to Portland about the 10th of this month to remain several weeks. Mr. J. Norin will take her to the railroad and he will be accompanied home by Mrs. Norin, who has been at a Portland hospital for some time for treatment.

Harvey Colvin, foreman in this office, received a letter last week from his father, who went to Lincoln, Calif., recently, stating that Thos. W. Colvin, brother of S. T. Colvin, was seriously ill at that place. Mr. Colvin's many friends in this county will be pained to hear this sad news. A later report, however, states that he is somewhat improved.

Riding boots—Full stock, a real Vaquero boot. Price $5.00 at Bieber's Cash Store.

The portion of the new bank building reserved for occupancy by the First National Bank of Lakeview, was finished inside last Saturday and the safe and bank fixtures were moved to the new quarters. The counter and desks are very beautiful, being of solid oak and handsomely decorated. We heard a business man say that no bank in the city was more beautiful than this. Mr. Cressler is very proud of his new office, and wears a smile that is sure to bring him business.

Surprise valley is experiencing quite a mining boom. Both the quicksilver and the copper mines are promising something for that valley's future. The quicksilver mines are at Bald Mountain, 20 miles east of Bidwell, and the copper mines are about 6 miles south of Bidwell, on the mountain that separates this valley from Surprise valley. It is said that the copper mines are very promising, the ore being about 80 per cent, besides several dollars in gold and silver to the ton.

Notice of Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stock holders of The First National Bank of Lakeview will be held at its office at Water Street, in the town of Lakeview, County of Lake and State of Oregon, on January 10th 1905 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the election of directors for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.
