

General Information

SOME THINGS TO INTEREST
ALL OUR READERS

Horses in the Russian army are dying rapidly.

Post & King's saloon is the most popular resort in Lakeview. 28

A large firm in Philadelphia has received orders for 100 locomotives for the Harriman lines.

Call at the post office book store for all kinds of literature, and dictionaries at low prices. 26-tf

The Forestry Building at the Lewis and Clark Centennial will be the second largest log building ever erected.

Over 1000 secret service men looked after the safety of the President while he remained at St. Louis visiting the fair.

Harry Rinehart, the ex-foreman of the XL left that ranch this week and yesterday moved his family to Surprise.—New Era.

The Massachusetts building erected at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition will be taken apart and re-erected at Portland.

Look at the descriptions of the land listed with The Examiner this week for sale, and select your piece before it has been sold to some one else. tf

We have some valuable land for sale cheap. It must be sold, and can be had at a figure that makes it a good investment. Write the Examiner. tf

One of the logs used in the construction of the Forestry Building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition weighed twenty-seven tons.

The most complete job stock off of the railroad is to be found at The Examiner office. First-class work always, at reasonable prices. tf

Novels by popular authors, dictionaries, heavy literature, magazines and all kinds of reading matter at the book store in the post office. 26-tf

Land for sale. The west half of Sec. 26, tp. 39 S., R. 20 E. The land joins Frank Duke's place 5 miles south of Lakeview. This is a snap! Write The Examiner.

A new bank is to be started at Cedarville, and will be called The Surprise Valley State Bank. The entire number of shares have been sold—250 shares at $100.00 each.—New Era.

We have a full set of Myself-Rollins & Co's., samples of Stock Certificates and bonds, with price list. If you are organizing a stock company get our prices on stock certificates. tf

The Malheur county court has decided that the local option law in that county was illegal. All but two precincts in the county voted dry, and by the decision saloons will be allowed to continue in business.

We are now prepared to sell several tracts of land at prices that will startle you, especially if you are acquainted with the location. We have land all the way from $1.50 per acre up to $15; unimproved or improved, to suit the purchaser. Lake County Examiner. t

A. P. Cross, the Los Angeles horse buyer, has been in this county for several days. He picked up a car load of fine horses in Surprise, and purchased a fine span of horses of Elsie Smith of this place.—New Era.

Some of the Oregon papers say that Paul Delancy, the author, reporter and newspaper man, is thinking some of starting a paper in Lakeview, thus making three papers for that town. We believe that a third paper there would be about the same as the third paper in this town. Let the best man win, and the devil take us all.—New Era. (Business men looking for small towns in which to start third papers are scarce.

An interesting collection of old mining implements will form a part of Oregon's exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Centennial.

A residence for sale cheap.—One acre of ground, house, barn and out-buildings; has city water, and is a desirable place to live. Enquire at The Examiner office. 26 tf

Dr. J. S. Dewey has returned to Alturas from a tour of the county, says the New Era, and has found work enough waiting for him to keep him busy for some time to come.

California farm for sale at a big bargain. 100 acres fenced and cross fenced. Cost present owner $10,500 but will be sold for $5000; 1/2 down and balance on easy payments. Inquire at this office. 47-tf

With the liberal appropriation of $15,000 to spend and the handsome building already constructed, Massachusetts' participation at the Lewis and Clark Exposition will be worthy of that commonwealth.

Preliminary work on the Government Building at the Lewis and Clark Fair is progressing rapidly, and already the necessary excavations have been made and the foundation timbers laid. The building will be completed April 1, 1905.

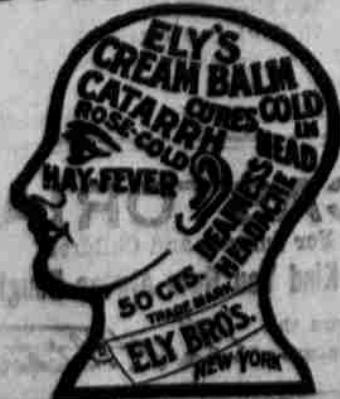

Several copies of the Northwestern Stock Directory, compiled by Sloss & Lightly, printers of Alturas, have been left at this office for distribution. It is a valuable book for stockmen and worth the price. tf

The Congregational Cadet Corps of Eureka, Cal., has set plans on foot to combine healthful exercise and secure profitable training, experience and knowledge, by marching, 100 strong, to Portland next June to attend the Lewis and Clark Centennial. President Goode will present the boys with a handsome silk banner commemorative of their visit.

The Examiner has for sale one of the best stock ranches in Lake County on very reasonable terms—600 acres, all fenced, and well watered. This is a great bargain and will not remain long unsold. We also have a dozen other ranches and farms to dispose of. If you have any land or property to sell, list it with the Examiner. Send in description and we will sell it for you. 38-tf

The Examiner has an 8-acre tract of land for sale at a bargain; the land lies in a body in the northern part of Lakeview, and is now set to clover and timothy, and yields 20 tons of hay a year, leaving a valuable pasture. The hay sells at the top price in Lakeview. The tract is a desirable one, either to retain in one piece or to cut up into lots for residences. Anyone desiring to build a home in Lakeview will do well to investigate this proposition. 26 tf
