John Tammill is suffering a relapse.

It looks as though we might have a spell of weather.

Geo. Ayres made another trip to Howell last week.

Morris Wingfield returned Tuesday from a visit to Tonopah.

Thos. Handley and family expect to leave for San Francisco next Sunday, where Tom will study electrical engineering.

It is reported that 2 feet of snow fell in Camas prairie during the recent storm. Eight inches is reported at the Gap, and 8 inches on the desert. Only about five inches fell in Lakeview.

Strayed or Stolen.—Heavy-set, black mare, branded LP connected on left shoulder, 42 on right stifle. A suitable reward will be paid for return or information as to whereabouts of said mare.

50-11 A. D. GREEN.

Major Barren, an old and respected citizen of Jackson county was thrown from a wagon near his farm a few days ago and died from injuries received 15 minutes later. Major Barren was 77 years of age, and had accumulated quite a fortune.

L. Gerber and wife and young son arrived from Pogeama Sunday, where Mr. Gerber had gone to meet them. Mrs. Gerber will spend a few days in Klamath Falls the guest of Mrs. E. W. Gowen.—Klamath Republican.

Tuesday while snow-balling on the street in front of Reynolds & Wingfields store, Orvis Stephenson slipped and fell, striking his head on the side walk, cutting a deep gash over his eye. Dr. Stelner took four stitches in the wound and bandaged up the bruised part of the head.

Joe Howard, the Silver Lake cattleman, returned from San Francisco last Friday, where he had been looking after the stock market. He has 800 feeders in the Sacramento valley ready for sale, but the market is not satisfactory yet.—Klamath Republican.

The Klamath papers say that Herv. Lindley, owner of the Klamath Lake railroad, accompanied by an Eastern lumberman, has been looking over that county, it is believed with a view to extending the road from Pogeama toward Klamath Falls.

C. S. Benefiel, the Chewaucan sawmill man, and his family came down from Pabley last week, and will remain till after Christmas. Mrs. Benefiel went to her father's ranch on the west side of the slash Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mulkey.

Ed Lamb, the Summer Lake sheepman, arrived here Saturday and will spend a few weeks visiting his old Lakeview friends. Ed says that the Summer Lake country is keeping right to the front. Several new settlers have moved in and the old ones are in a prosperous condition.

Prof. Graham has all arrangements made for the big mask ball on the night of Dec. 26th. It is understood that people are coming from all parts of the county to participate in this most important event. Everybody should go, it will be a crak-a-jack.

Sam Miller, son of Joe Miller who was once a resident of Lake county, and who at one time ran a band of the S. T. Colvin sheep on shares, arrived here from Alaska last week in search of his father. Sam left here several years ago, and has not heard from his father for quite a while. He supposed that he was still in Lake county, but when he reached here he could find no one who could tell him the whereabouts of his parent.

Al Howell starts today for the desert.

The small boy, by having his iron now. The peddler who escapes a "soaker" in the back is lucky.

Mr. E. M. Oliver, of La Grande, father of J. C. Oliver, who has been visiting with his son in Lakeview for a couple of months, started for Orange, Calif., Monday morning. J. C. Oliver brought his father in from the ranch Sunday and remained here to see the old gentleman start on his trip.

A portion of the town of Cedarville, designated by the Surprise Valley Record as "Crazy town," has been, it seems, indulging in gay parades, gin fixers and things, elopements, moonlight rambles, arrests, etc. But the arrest and conviction of Neise Beebe, on a charge of owning and conducting a house of ill-fame, and sentenced to the county jail for 100 days is believed to be a step in the right direction.

C. A. Snow & Co., Patent Lawyers of Washington, D. C., have sent us a Handy Vest Pocket Diary Memorandum and Account Book for 1905. It contains calendars for 1905 and 1906, a census of cities and states, common business laws, court decisions in patent cases and other valuable information. It is such a book as every man needs all the time. C. A. Snow & Co., will send it to any address on receipt of actual postage, two cents. This pocket diary would cost elsewhere from 10 to 25 cents and is indispensable to those who know how to use it.

Senator Detrich of Nebraska is preparing to introduce a bill in the senate providing for convict labor on the Panama canal. It would be about as cheap for Uncle Sam to hire labor at Civil Service salaries, as such a plan as putting the convicts of the United States to work in a body would require about as many guards to watch them as there would be convicts engaged at digging the canal. Beside the government would be compelled to maintain a standing army to keep down mutiny. Such a law would create more "ple" just the thing to please Politicians.

At The National Capitol.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The house today passed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill almost as it came from the committee and adjourned until Monday.

Throughout the session the policy of retrenchment held full sway and all attempts to increase salaries failed.

The house passed a resolution to adjourn on December 21 until January 1 for the usual Christmas holiday.

Auction Sale.
