

Tips About Your Timepiece.

A watch should be wound up every day at the same hour. Avoid putting it on a marble slab or on anything excessively cold, as the sudden change of temperature, contracting the metal, may sometimes cause the mainspring to break. The cold coagulates the oil, and the pivots and wheels, working less freely, affect the regularity of the time-keeper. In laying aside a watch be sure that it rests on its case. If suspended the action of the balance may cause oscillation, which will interfere with its going. To keep your watch clean take care that the case fits closely and see that your pockets are free from fluff which is so often given off by cotton, cloth or calico linings.

Their Different Errands.

An English landowner out unusually early one morning for a walk on his estate in turning a corner came suddenly upon an Irish man whom he knew as an inveterate poacher. This is the conversation that took place between them: "Good morning, Pat." "Good mornin', yer honor. An' phwat brings yer honor out so airly this mornin'?" "I'm just walking around, Pat, to see if I can get an appetite for my breakfast. And what brings you out so early, Pat?" "Och, be jabbers, Oi'm jest walkin' around to see if Oi can't get a breakfast for me appetite."—What to Eat.

Very Swell.

"Yes," declared Weary Willie, "I went up ter dat lady's house an' she gimme a real swell dinner." "A swell dinner?" "Sure; dried apples an' all de water I wanted."—Baltimore Herald.

As to Titles.

"Where did the judge get his title?" "He was once judge of a horse race." "But how about the general? Has he any right to that title?" "Oh, yes, indeed! He's a general nuisance."—Chicago Post.

Persistent.

"Why, that's Miss Wellon, isn't it? Do you mean to tell me she still comes to the fashionable watering places?" "I should say so! She brings her young married sister along as her chaperon now."—Life.

Ex-Governor J. Proctor Knott at the age of seventy-three has settled down for the remainder of his life, as he hopes, in a new house built by him in Market street, Lebanon, Ky., his native town. A fine country home which he had just beyond the city limits was burned a little while ago.
