Geo. Reed is down from Paisley. W. E. Scammon came over from Plush Tuesday. H. R. Dunlap was seen on our streets yesterday. Oranges and Lemons at The Monogram, Ahlstrom Bros. We are settled in our new building. Come and see us.—Ahlstrom Bros. W. S. Edwards and wife were in from their home on the west side, yesterday.

Frank Rogers is in town from Plush. Frank looks very happy, he has sold his wool.

Dr. Hall received a letter from Dr. Daly stating that he was attending the Chicago polio clinic.

J. C. Dodson and T. B. Wakefield came over from Adel Tuesday. They have been buying up young steers.

The daily papers of Eugene "in order to live" are to be reduced from eight-page publications to a smaller size.

If the owner of a small sorrel, bald-faced, unbroken horse branded with OZ on left stifle, will inquire at this office he can locate his property. 54

We are making up an order for all kinds of garden seed. Timothy Seed, all kinds of hand seeders etc. Send in your orders.—Ahlstrom Bros. *

E. Tatro, who has been working in the Daly & Hall drug store, has resigned his position on account of poor health, and Fred Reynolds has taken the place.

Yellow fever has appeared in the zone of the Panama canal, but action of the authorities. It is believed has been so prompt and effective that it cannot spread to any great extent.

Dictator Castro of Venezuela in punctiliously closing negotiations for adjustment of claims against his government is perilously near a mine that will be very distinctive if it should explode.

John Tannehill, who has been in Lakeview, sick for the past two months, went to his ranch on the west side Sunday, where he expects to remain the balance of the winter. F. O. Ahlstrom took him out returning home Monday.

L. S. Kelsay, editor of the Silver Lake Oregonian, and A. B. Schroder, newspaperman of that section of country, spent several days in Lakeview the latter part of last week and the first part of this. Mr. Schroder came here on land business and to sell his wool.

Crook county is indulging in very high expectations of great additions to her population and wealth, to follow the completion of 5 or 6 irrigation projects now in rapid progress within her borders. Thousands of acres of land are already applied for which will be under water the coming spring.

Some of the papers are disposed to censure Judge Bellinger for his criticism of the action of the Jury in the Notman case in failing to render a verdict of guilty. Judge Bellinger ought to be a competent judge of the amount of evidence, and we should never believe he had overstepped his prerogatives to administer justice when he did not believe it deserved.

The middle Western States are having a severe winter. Heavy snow storms, rivers of solid ice and blizzards are interfering with transportation, and making travel very disagreeable. Damage to shipping is great. Many persons are frozen to death, while hospitals and police stations in cities are crowded with persons overcome by the severe cold or driven to the stations for protection.

Paisley Pointers.

M. Freund the special agent for the Mutual Life Insurance Co. is making an extended sojourn here in the interests of his Company. He is a general, and well educated gentleman, and is making many friends, and doing not a little business. He expects to visit Lakeview in the near future.

The Farrow Hall is being renovated for the past 4 or 5 weeks. It has had the appearance of a member of the family of pachydermata minus one aural appendage. The old square front has been removed and finished in gable style.

Mr. H. W. Bohna who is visiting in Paisley this winter, was very sick for a few days last week. He has recovered his health and brightens the streets again with his auriferous smile.

C. S. Benefiel and family have returned home after an extended visit in Lakeview. Yes! is still far from well, but is recovering.

Bert McCune of Silver Lake spent several days of last week in town.

The Brattain brothers are getting a fine bunch of horses together for the California market. Good horses bring good money these days.

F. W. Weldy has visited town several times of late. Fred is getting to be a prominent worker in the fraternal order.

B. F. Cannon came in last week for supplies. He reports the desert in fine shape for sheep. Robt. Benefiel went out with him and will herd sheep for a while.

Mrs. Cannon and children are visiting with Mrs. L. A. Moss.

Plowing is being done both in the summer Lake and Chewaucan valleys. Steve Gaylord has been kept very busy sharpening plow shares and has had to have an assistant. H. G. Adams is helping him.

Jim McShane the genial Hibernian from the Harvey ranch was in town Sunday.

Rain and mud, boys and stilt, short stilt, and long stilt, weak stilt, and strong stilt, everywhere.

M. John Sheehan was in from the desert last week and sold his 1905 clip of wool.
