Jeff Parish and Harry Roberts came over from Warner Monday.

C. S. Benefiel who was in Lakeview several weeks for treatment, writes that he is improving rapidly.

On the second day of February at Shhanko mercury registered 2 degrees below zero. In Lakeview on that date it was 29 above.

If the owner of a small sorrel, bald-faced, unbroken horse branded with OZ on left side, will inquire at this office he can locate his property.

L. N. Liggitt, a prominent citizen of Prineville, died on Jan. 20. Mr. Liggitt will be remembered in Lake county as having conducted the Silver Lake Bulletin for Wm. Holder for a time during that papers life. Mr. Liggitt died of Brights disease.

Walter Gibbins and Ed Mulkey returned Tuesday from Surprise valley. Walter says that lots of plowing is being done over there. He also informs us that R. F. McConnaughay has so far improved in health that he is able to be up and around. -Modoc Republican.

W. T. Taylor and Geo. P. Lovegrove came down from the ZX ranch in Chewanacan last Saturday on their way to San Francisco. Mr. Taylor was attacked with grippe and they were compelled to remain here until he recovered. Mr. Lovegrove informed us that he would remain in San Francisco.

Loren Bayley, R. T. Striplin, Wm. Dykeman and Perry Striplin went out to Mud Creek last week to open the fishing season, and possibly a bottle or two of pickles. They report having caught about 54 fine fish. Some very large ones escaped after they were thrown out of the water.

It is now said that the Butte Creek Land, Lumber and Livestock Company have borrowed largely from the State School funds, giving as security lands obtained from the government by fraud, and which is probably not of sufficient value to secure the money loaned if the title were not clouded. State officials will investigate the matter.

We don't know what the vested rights of the Klamath Canal Company are, which are to be interfered with by the Government's irrigation scheme in the Klamath basin; but presume they have some, and have expended some money there. Whatever would be deemed fair treatment should be offered these people to get out of the way without litigation. This falling, let them be promptly put away, by the most direct legal methods.

Some of the Portland papers believe that investigation of the Butte Creek Land, Livestock and Lumber Company may lead to further trouble for Ringer Hermann. It is alleged that Mr. Hendricks, a man prominent in the company, is a very intimate friend of Mr. Hermann, having been raised in his family; and that Mr. Hermann may have been willing to assist Mr. Hendricks in some improper transactions while Land Commissioner.

J. D. Venator is in Prineville on business.

Mrs. Rev. Pogue returned to Paisley yesterday.

Flint Vernon went to Madeline Tuesday, to meet Homer Pollard and wife at that place, and bring them back to Lakeview.

James Young was in town Tuesday from the Cottonwood sawmill, where he has been logging all winter, getting in a big lot of logs for the spring run. Mr. Young expects to start the mill about the first of May.

Senator Clark of the legislature of the state of Nevada has introduced in the Senate, of that state, a bill to prohibit gambling altogether. The bill is known to be so strong that a vote on it now might result in its favor.

All the indications lead to the belief that Japan will make a supreme effort to crush the Russian Army in Manchuria as soon as the weather moderates. At present the Japs give little heed to Russian bombardment of their camps.

Edwin Mays, attorney for defendant in the case of T. J. Brattain et al Plaintiffs vs. Geo. Conn et al, defendants, has filed notice of appeal to the supreme court. This case was tried in the circuit court for Lake county last spring, decision rendered in favor of Plaintiffs.

There has been no United States Senator elected yet by the Missouri legislature and no election seems to be in sight. The republican caucus nominee continues to lose votes but his losses don't concentrate on any other candidate. These people might untangle this matter and honor themselves by electing Senator Coekrell.

China New Years.

Last Friday was China New Years; the festivities opened with firecrackers and other Chinese fireworks, about 4 o'clock in the morning. There are but few Chinese inhabitants in Lakeview, but they are patriotic and manifest their love for their native country's holidays. China New Years usually lasts about a week—commencing with the morning of the first day of their new year and ending with the last drink several days later.
