If the owner of a small sorrel, bald-faced, unbroken horse branded with OZ on left stifle, will inquire at this office he can locate his property.

Chas. Olds, a former resident of Lakeview and member of the Forester Lodge at this place, writes that he is very sick, at Sacramento, afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism.

A bill has passed both Houses of the Oregon legislature creating one board of Regents who are to have charge of all Normal Schools. This is believed to be the first step towards ultimate consolidation of these schools.

A. Storkmann, the Lakeview cigar manufacturer, left yesterday, on a trip soliciting orders for his cigars. Mr. Storkmann goes by Plush, Fort Bidwell and other Surprise valley towns to Alturas from which place, he takes in Goose Lake valley on his return. Mr. Storkmann carries nothing except first class stock, and should make a good canvass. He intends on being absent about a week.

Charges of extravagance made against the legislature now in session are not well sustained. It is not made to appear that money has been appropriated for unworthy or improper purposes. We think it would be difficult to satisfy any of those who think seriously about it, that the State's expense account could be expected to grow less, as the State grows in wealth and population and its institutions necessarily grow larger and more expensive.

Oregon does not wish to be behind any of her sister states. She wants as good roads as may be secured, and while it may well be that for reasons of economy much that has been done elsewhere must be left undone for a time in Oregon, there is no reason why a great deal more should not be done right now to make the highways of this state adequately fit for purposes of business and pleasure traffic.

It appears that the Russian government has given the press and people to understand it is desired that they make their wishes known upon the subject of the continuance of the war. The entire press of America believes that official Russia now welcomes expressions favorable to a discontinuance of the war, which the government has despaired of being able, by fighting, to terminate in a manner creditable to Russian arms.
