The storm and cold spell of last week seemed to have originated in the north, as considerable more snow fell on the desert and in the northern part of the county than did farther south and the thermometer registered 21° below zero at Silver Lake, 10° at Paisley and 7° at Lakeview the coldest night.

The Silver Lake Oregonian last week changed from a 4-page-5-col., all home print to a patent outside the same size. The change adds to the appearance of the paper, and we suppose leaves plenty of space for the important news of the northern part of the county. The Oregonian looks real neat in its new dress.

As a result of the series of religious meetings held at Crane Creek the past few weeks, nine persons were baptised there last Sunday. Those who were baptised were: Flint Vernon and wife, Dolly Vernon, Ellis Vernon, Lora Duke, Clara Stanley, Nellie Stanley, John Cogburn and Elijah Smally.
