Lake county people must determine whether ten, fifteen or twenty thousand people shall be added to our population by irrigation of our arid lands or not.

I am prepared to make blue prints or plats of any Township in the Lakeview Land District, showing entries; land restored from the reserve, and land reserved. Address, W. B. SNIDER, Lakeview, Ore. 7-4f

Wint Hughes and his sister, Mrs. Wm. Dodson, both of Cedarville, arrived here Sunday for a week's visit with relatives here. They are the guests of J. W. Mikel and Daniel Boone.

Thirty five acres of land sold near Medford last week for $4500. The purchaser expects to plant most of it in apples trees. Railroads make this price possible there, and would have the same effect in Lake county with irrigation.

Joe Ambrose and family were in town last Saturday from the West Side. Joe left Monday for his sheep camp on the desert. He expects to remain out there until shearing time, when he will bring his sheep to his ranch near Drews Creek to shear.

A little runaway occurred at Pine Creek last Sunday night after church. Some one on horse-back ran into a buggy team, breaking the buggy tongue out and frightening the horses, causing them to run away. Fortunately, no one was hurt.

The Klamath county people believe that a rush for timber lands equal to the one of two years ago will ensue upon the release of the lands now held in reserve. The people who come to take lands now will certainly be bona fide settlers.

J. Wendell, Lakeview's butcher, informs us that himself and M. Lauritzen a stockman of Paisley were soldiers together for three years in the same company in Germany, when they were boys, and had not met since till they met in Lakeview within the past two years.

C. C. Cannon and wife of Pine Creek were up Monday. Mr. Cannon has not been in Lakeview all winter. He says the farmers down the valley will have their crops all in shortly, if the weather keeps good. Mr. Cannon reports a large acreage sown to grain this year.

The McCleary Comedy Show came in town last Thursday from the North and remained here till yesterday morning when they departed for Klamath Falls. They gave very interesting entertainments in the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings. They will go from Klamath Falls to Alturas, and then into Surprise valley.

Captain O. C. Applegate of Klamath Agency, suffered quite a severe accident Friday, while returning from Klamath Falls to his home. He left the city early in the afternoon, in company with Fred Loosely, and when on the reservation, a bolt in the buggy broke, and his team ran away. Captain Applegate was thrown out, striking on his head. He was picked up unconscious and conveyed to his home at the Agency, where a doctor was summoned. It was believed at first that his skull was injured, but upon examination it was found that beyond being badly bruised, he was not seriously hurt. —Ashland Tribune.

Paisley Pointers.

The population is still increasing rapidly. Last week there were three children born in Paisley, so Dr. Witham reports.

On Feb. 28th, born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Simmons a daughter.

On March 1st to Mr. and Mrs. S. Gaylord a boy.

On March 2nd to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Witzel a boy.

Leslie Kelsay came down to Paisley Sunday and took his family home to Silver Lake Monday.

Bert Witham spent Sunday and Monday in town.

The entire firm of Ainsworth & Withers went hunting Sunday. Some had guns and some had cameras and some looked after the lunch. We don't know what the cameras caught, but we don't think the guns did much, for we saw no game in the rig when they returned.

Geo. Conn is having some extensive improvements made this spring. He is cleaning up another large field and preparing it for more alfalfa.

Wayman Withers is making the dirt fly this fine weather on his Summer Lake ranch. He is a rustler when it comes to farming.

Farming and gardening is in full blast at the McCormack, Witham, Currier, Foster, Prader and Harris ranches on Summer Lake. If work will bring prosperity these gentlemen will surely be prosperous.

At the Hot Springs—the Beebe and Woodward ranches—spring work is well advanced.

Geo. Cooley returned from Lakeview Monday. He is said to have been taking lessons on the French harp and is becoming an expert.

Mr. Scott of the Government reclamation service passed through town Monday.

Good Fruit Trees.

All parties who are desirous of purchasing fruit trees of any kind can get what they want and exactly what they order from the Oregon Nursery Company represented in Lake County by R. D. Maplesden. I have bought many trees from this nursery through Mr. Maplesden and have always found them in every way true to representation.
