Good roads in western Oregon is the great issue, remarks the Oregon Daily Journal. Certainly. It is also the great southern Oregon issue and the eastern Oregon issue and the northern Oregon issue and the central Oregon issue. It is the issue in the high places and in the low places and everywhere else. It is also the issue all over all the other states of the United States.—Grants Pass Herald.

The Examiner has for sale one of the best stock ranches in Lake county on very reasonable terms—600 acres, all fenced, and well watered. This is a great bargain and will not remain long unsold. We also have a dozen other ranches and farms to dispose of. If you have any land or property to sell, list it with the Examiner. Send in description and we will sell it for you. 381f

The Examiner has an 8-acre tract of land for sale at a bargain; the land lies in a body in the northern part of Lakeview, and is now set to clover and timothy, and yields 20 tons of hay a year, leaving a valuable pasture. The hay sells at the top price in Lakeview. The tract is a desirable one, either to retain in one piece or to cut up into lots for residences. Anyone desiring to build a home in Lakeview will do well to investigate this proposition. 26 1f

The Czar has signed a rescript granting the people right to "express their views on the preparation of the laws" of the empire, through representatives elected by them. This does not mean liberty to the people; but it is a concession along the lines which lead to more popular institutions, and may become the foundation of mere liberal grants by which the people may gain some power in the making of laws.

At a cost of fifteen millions, eighty-eight thousand dollars, the Simplon tunnel through the Alps has been completed after six years of labor. This tunnel is pronounced one of the greatest engineering feats of the world, extends through the Alps fourteen miles, from Binger Switzerland, to Iselle Italy, and its highest point is two thousand three hundred feet.

CAN TEACH ANIMALS ALSO.

Japanese and Korean Showmen Exhibit Great Skill in Educating Birds and Beasts.

Japanese and Korean showmen, in addition to their skill as jugglers and acrobats, display a truly marvelous skill in teaching animals tricks. They not only exhibit educated bears, spaniels, monkeys and goats, but also trained birds, and, what is most astonishing of all, trick fish.

One of the most curious examples of patient training is an exhibit by an old Korean boatman, of a dozen drilled tortoises.

Directed by his songs and a small metal drum they march in line, execute various evolutions, and conclude by climbing upon a low table, the larger ones to many of their own accord a bridge for the smaller, to which the feat would otherwise be impossible.

When they have all mounted, they dispose themselves in three or four piles, as though they were so many plates.

The authorities of Douglas County have offered a substantial reward for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who murdered Jack Rodgers the timber cruiser.

It is now understood that Francis J. Henry will return to Portland about the end of March and take up the work of land-fraud investigation where he left off.
