News From Juniper Mountain.

Juniper Mt., Ed Examiner—I will give you a few lines. Albert Dent and Charley Linebarger made a business trip to Burns last week. Mr. Dent went after a bottle of pills, and Mr. Linebarger after a pair of shoestrings. They report six inches of ice on the north sidewalk.

Grass is fine on the desert and no loss of stock. The wool clip will be heavy.

W. W. Brown has purchased the Chas. Comyns ranch at Wagontire, and Mr. Comyns has leased from Mr Brown the Alkali ranch north of Albert lake for three years.

Yours Truly,
H. H. BARNUM.

Judge Kersten of Chicago has instructed a jury in a murder case in which a woman is charged with the murder of her husband, to render a verdict of not guilty. Self-defense was her plea. The Judge said in part: "A woman has the same rights that her husband has and her testimony is bound to preserve her rights to the same degree that she is bound to preserve his, and if the wound is unfortunate enough to hurry a negro who subscribes to a newspaper into eternity in order to relieve her husband of her presence, she has a right, assisted by counsel, to use such force as is necessary to protect herself, even to the point of killing her assailant."

Always Dangerous

Mrs. Felix Eastman, living near Fall River, Mass., was cruelly shot by her 15 year old son a few days ago. The boy took a shotgun down from the rack in the house to shoot a hawk, and as he carefully inserted a cartridge in each barrel was discharged, sending the full charge of shot through a partition into the pantry where his mother was making some pies. The woman screamed, and when the boy ran to the pantry he found his mother lying on the floor with blood running freely from an ugly wound in her hip. Mrs. Eastman is in a critical condition, and the son is overcome with grief.

She Had a Lovely Time.

A young lady in a neighboring town describes her visit to San Francisco as follows: "Oh but I had such a perfectly beautiful time. I contrived there at 8:30 and took a cabby to a hotel. We stopped at a house where we rode to our rooms in a refrigerator. Our rooms were illustrated with electric lights. There was no stove in our room but one of them legislatures like in the floor, and the heat poured right up through it. I did not have an appetite and could not get a thing I could realize. Honestly, when I got home I was almost an individual.—Willows (Calif.) Journal.

Two gentlemen, Patrick Gordon and another gentleman whose name we did not learn, have been in Alturas several days buying horses. About 25 head have been purchased at good prices, including both mares and geldings. One car load has already been sent to the railroad.—Alturas Plaindealer.

Susanville and Cedarville have the site and plans for the erection of a high school building under way, the cost of the Susanville building to be $25,000 and the Cedarville building $8,000.

Grove

A sensation was sprung at Cottage Grove a few days ago which has ripened into a tragedy, dating back several years and involves charges as grave as wife-murdering. John Branton of Cottage Grove, a man aged about 35 years, who has always impressed the people that he was of regular character, although it was years ago his brother killed and burned the body of an old man out in the mountains, and it seems the worst ever charged against John Branton was his relationship with criminals. J. Fletcher, a friend of Branton, was recently shot, and the surroundings were the same as in the case of the old man, Fletcher being on a trail in the hills, and near a camp fire. A letter was addressed to the Marshal at Cottage Grove, stating that Fletcher was going to end his life and where his body could be found.—"On the trail between town and the Branton ranch"—and signed by Fletcher. Branton, Fletcher and the letter was [illegible] Fletcher had [illegible] $2,000 in favor of Branton. Branton, who has since married three times, it is said, has had [illegible] and raised the amount of each of his two first wives for the benefit which he had insured them for, and for one wife, who died last December, for the property she had failed to induce her to assure her life.

The district attorney is weaving the nooses closely around Branton, and if it is said on the rounds have gone back on him, and he is being prevailed upon to plead guilty and save what little property he owns for his three small children.

An Editor's Opinio of the Royal Gorge.

Edyth Tegar Weatherred, in describing a recent trip over the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, says in "The Exposition":

"At last the goal of the ambition of years has been reached—marvelous, wonderful, grand and inspiring Royal Gorge is on either hand. The only disappointing thing is you only have one pair of eyes, while the train darts in and out of the tremendous chasm. If any who have never seen it are wondering how it looks just go and see. Thousands have tried to describe it, yet every attempt falls short of giving the subject justice."

If you contemplate a trip East, write W. C. McBride, 124 Third street Portland, Oregon, for booklets picturing Colorado's famous scenery, and any other information you may desire. 3-11

Senator Allison is authority for the statement that President Roosevelt will call Congress in extra session October 1, two months in advance of the regular session, for the purpose of considering the railroad-rate investigation. Senator Allison also expressed his own views relative to the rate question. He stands for empowering the commission to adjust rates, declaring that there are many abuses which are subject to correction.

A Mess of "Chestnuts."

Bro. Stanley, of the Cedarville Record last week enjoyed a mess of "chestnuts." He says:

"Some time ago the Record prophesied that opposition would be waged against the proposition of tapping Klamath and Tule Lakes for irrigation purposes. Our prediction has come true. The war is now on. It is claimed that Fall river, one of the finest water powers in the State, will be destroyed if Tule Lake is tapped, and just what the result will be remains to be seen."

Mr. Stanley does not seem to know that the legislatures of Oregon and California passed laws at their latest session, relinquishing to the government all the states' right to non navigable streams and lakes, and gave the government complete control over these lakes.

It is well, though, that Mr. Stanley has had his laugh.

The government can go ahead and drain Tule Lake, Klamath Lake, Goose Lake, or any of these lakes, and the people of Shasta or any other county cannot help themselves. The matter is beyond their jurisdiction now. They have put in their complaint too late.

Good Advice.

The Alturas Plaindealer gives the following good advice to young men who might run aimlessly about:

"Young men who contemplate going to Tonopah and Goldfield are warned that the labor market is badly over done. All advices join in saying that there are ten men for every job. It is a poor field for a laboring man to go to, and we would advise all to stay away."
