They will also visit Mrs. Barnum's parents in the Willamette valley, where Mrs. Barnum owns a good farm. They may remain away a year.

Wm. Metzker of this place, who has been interested in chicken raising for some time, and who could see no reason why the slow process of one-a-day egg production could not be improved upon, has succeeded in raising a hen that lays two eggs at a time. However, he says he is not yet satisfied, as the hen only lays every other day, and now he wants to get one that will lay every day. We hope he will succeed.

Lakeview to Have Race Meet.

Geo. D. Harrow and Joe Lane are circulating a subscription paper this week for money for races. The Examiner cannot help but be pleased to mention this move on the part of these gentlemen, as we stated a couple of weeks ago that it was time to begin if Lakeview was going to have races this year we hope to see the boys succeed in securing a large sum for purses. The Agricultural Association will give a like sum.

Are Getting Interested.

We are in receipt of another letter from John T. Whistler, Engineer of the U. S. Geological Survey, stationed at Pendleton, inclosing a copy of the Reclamation act. In his letter Mr. Whistler states: "I would suggest that you draw up as definite statements as can be made of any reclamation enterprise which you think has not been looked into sufficiently, or possibly not at all, by the Reclamation Service, and address a letter to the Secretary of the Interior and to the chief Engineer of the Reclamation Service at Washington, D. C."

This is more work for the League to do, and it appears that if we are to get the government to any action on our irrigation schemes, our League should not be idle a moment. We must say again what we have often said: That the government is not hunting aimlessly about for irrigation projects, but are investigation only those that are most urgently pressed for their attention. A waiting policy might secure something for Lake after all other projects are under way or completed, but are we satisfied to wait till the very last?

In answer to a letter addressed to Dr. James Withycombe, director of the Oregon Agricultural College by the editor of this paper some time ago in regard to the possibility of getting our irrigation projects investigated by government officials, Mr. Withycombe says, in part: I would advise you to address Hon. F. H. Newell, chief Engineer of the Reclamation Service, who will doubtless advise you in this matter, also advise you to secure a copy of the proceedings of the first Congress of the Engineers of the Reclamation Service."

Dr. Withycombe has been in Lake county and when here made a study of our resources, and he expresses great hope that we may succeed in interesting the government in our irrigation project. He further says that the opportunities for expansion that are in our section are great, and offers himself at our service at any time he can be of use to us.

Died in San Francisco.

Only a few weeks ago The Examiner, in a series of articles on "Old Times and Old Timers," had occasion to mention the first child born in Lakeview. This child was Fannie Dunlap, daughter of Mrs. Hawley

Bull by her first husband, and only child from the union. Miss Dunlap was given a lot on Water Street north of the J. W. Howard Store, as a souvenir.

The first child born in Lakeview now lies in the cold clay in a cemetery at San Francisco. Mrs. Wm. Gunther received the sad news of the death of Fanny Dunlap—Lucey which occurred at San Francisco on March 31st, after a severe illness of two weeks, at the age of 30 years.

Fanny Dunlap grew to girlhood in Lakeview and was loved by all who knew her. She went to Portland, and then to San Francisco, where she died.

A clipping from the S. F. Call is as follows:

Mrs. Francis Lucey, a married woman, 30 years old, died at the Pacific Hospital last Friday night from septicemia, following a criminal operation. Mrs. Lucey made a statement in the presence of witnesses that the operation had been performed by Dr. Joslyn, or Dr. White. On March 17th she went to Dr. Edward L. Grossman for relief and he performed a necessary operation. She was taken to the Pacific Hospital at noon last Friday. Her husband is Wilbur J. Lucey, a barber.

Detective Cody placed Dr. Otto J. Joslyn under arrest for murder.

The circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Dunlap—Lucey is sad, indeed, and her many friends in Lakeview are in deep sorrow, and extend deepest sympathy to the husband and mother.

Pine Creek Wins Game.

A second ball game between the "kid" teams of Lakeview and Pine Creek was played Sunday, this time on the Lakeview diamond. The game resulted in a worse defeat for the Lakeview boys than did the one played at Pine Creek the Sunday before, the score being 20 to 8 in favor of Pine Creek. The day was a very disagreeable one both for the players and the spectators. A cold wind blew from the north and by the time the game was ended most everyone had "froze out" and gone home. The Lakeview boys became discouraged in the middle of the game and lost all interest. The Pine Creek team had considerable advantage in the way of avoirdupois and age and getting a good send off at the start, held the Lakeview boys down all the way through the game.
