Russia has reinforced the Vladivostok fort with 100,000 men. This action on the part of Russia is significant in the line of peace rumors.

Land for sale. The west half of Sec. 26, T. 39 S., R. 29 E. The land joins Frank Duke's place 5 miles south of Lakeview. This is a snap. Write The Examiner. *

Rodefeld has given another $100.00 to the American Baptist Missionary Union, to be used for the construction of mission buildings of foreign countries.

The Alturas New Era has installed in its office a new simplex type-setting machine, and will put in a new press. Madoc papers seem to be forging to the front.

The new gasoline motor car ordered for Portland has been completed in Omaha, and given its initial trip, and will soon be sent to Portland to compete with the electric cars now in use.

The bear that President Roosevelt is to hunt is now in a cage at Newcastle, Colo. The ferocious beast will be turned loose and given an hour the start of the president and his pack of dogs. If Mr. Bruen gets away he is a daisy.

The supreme court has granted the petition for release of a man imprisoned for selling beer to an Indian, on the ground that the Indian became a citizen when he was allotted land and became subject to laws, both civil and criminal.

Hermann is now in Portland to meet his accusers. He feels confident that the indictments against him will fall to pieces when they are brought into court. He has no knowledge of when his trial will come off in Washington, and is apparently as unconcerned about that one as he is about the Oregon cases.

Madford has a First National Bank with a capital stock of $25,000. The organization was completed last week, and a building was purchased for $7,500 for its home. The officers are W. S. Crowell, president; F. K. Daniel, vice-president and M. L. Atford, cashier.

Pension Commissioner Warner has discovered fraud in the pension office and has set out to eliminate it. He has said that such practices should be stopped during his term of office.

Large numbers of republicans in New York have renewed the agitation of a division of that state. State legislators seem to believe that New York City is an inexhaustible source of wealth and that all New Yorkers have to do is to enact laws and take money from the up-staters.

The controller of the treasury has wisely admonished the Interior Department for accepting rebates from railroads on freight rates charged contractors for the construction of government irrigation works. If we are to maintain the interstate commerce law and insist on its enforcement, the government must not be a party to breaking the law.

The Examiner has for sale one of the best stock ranches in Lake county on very reasonable terms—600 acres, all fenced, and well watered. This is a great bargain and will not remain long unsold. We also have a dozen other ranches and farms to dispose of. If you have any land or property to sell, list it with the Examiner. Send in description and we will sell it for you. 28 11

The Examiner has an Acres tract of land for sale at a bargain; the land lies in a body in the northern part of Lakeview, and is now set to clover and timothy, and yields 20 tons of hay a year, leaving a valuable pasture. The hay sells at the top price in Lakeview. The tract is a desirable one, either to retain in one piece or to cut up into lots for residences. Anyone desiring to build a home in Lakeview will do well to investigate this proposition. 26 11

Why He Advertises.

L. Alva Lewis, the hustling jeweler of Klamath Falls is a thorough business man. In the Klamath Republican Mr. Lewis gives his reasons why he advertises. What the county needs is more of this kind. He says:

"I advertise in the newspapers because I am not ashamed of my goods or the work of my repair department, and to let people know about myself, my store and my stock.

"Because I cater to the intelligent class and they read the papers, and I believe in increasing my business.

"Because I talk to more people through the newspapers at a greater distance in less time and at a more reasonable price than in any other way.

"Because my newspaper advertising has brought me greater returns for the least expenditure of any advertising I have done.

"Because when I write an ad., I am not too stingy to pay for placing it in the best possible medium or to have it inserted so that it is attractive. Thus I know it is seen and read by almost everyone in the house where the paper goes."

LORD CURZON'S PROPHECY

"England's Work in India Is Righteous and It Shall Endure," Says Viceroy

Lord Curzon, viceroy of India, writes in World's Work a brilliant forecast of "The Future of British India." After a profound review of India's strategic importance to the British empire, of the vast difficulties and responsibilities of her administration, and of the progress made in improving the conditions of life there, Lord Curzon sums up the destiny of Britain in India in these prophetic words:

"It is 17 years since I first visited India; it is 14 years since I first had the honor of being connected with its administration. India was the first love, and throughout all that time it has been the main love, of my political life. I have given it some of my best years. Perhaps I may be privileged to give it yet more. But no man could do this unless he saw before him a larger vision or were himself inspired with a fuller hope.

"If our empire were to end tomorrow I do not think we need be ashamed of its epitaph. It would have done its duty by India and justified its mission to mankind. But it is not going to end. It is not a moribund organism. It is still in its youth, and has in it the unexhausted purpose. I am not with the pessimists in this matter. I am not one of those who think that we have built a more fragile plank between the east and the west which the roaring tides of Asia will presently sweep away. I do not think our work is over or that it is drawing to an end. On the contrary, as the years roll by, the call seems to me more clear, the duty more imperative, the work more majestic, the goal more sublime.

"I believe that we have it in our power to weld the people of India to a unity greater than any they have heretofore dreamed of and give them blessings greater than any they now enjoy. Let no man admit the craven fear that those who have won India cannot hold it or that we have only made India to our own or to its unmaking. That is not the true reading of history. That is not my forecast of the future. To me the message is carved in granite, it is hewn out of the rock of doom—our work is righteous and it shall endure."

Racial Illiteracy.

Illiteracy among negroes is about seven times as common as among whites, and this ratio between the races has not altered materially in the last ten years. Illiteracy among the southern negroes is more than four times that among southern whites.

Tom Wall's team became frightened at the breaking of a neck yoke strap while in the procession at the funeral of Frank Sparger in Alturas last week, says the New Era, and ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing Mr. Wall and Miss Fogerty out, seriously injuring Mr. Wall. Miss Fogerty also received painful bruises.
