HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

Geo. Wright, who has been sick for several weeks, is able to be up.

Those who have not paid their donation to the Library fund will please hand it in.

Bailey & Mussingill have received a shipment of goods that you should inspect before buying elsewhere.

Any of our exchanges that would like to donate a year's subscription to the Lakeview Public Library may rest assured their paper will be taken care of and the favor appreciated.

I am prepared to make blue prints or plots of any Township in the Lakeview Land District, showing entries, land restored from the reserve, and land reserved. Address, W. B. SMOEN, Lakeview, Ore. 7-11

Wm. W. and S. A. Carmichael arrived here last week. Wm. is a timber cruiser, and came here to look over the lands to be thrown open May 23. He remained in town several days. He is acquainted with the country and says there is some good timber to be thrown open to settlement.

W. L. DeClow, the Cedar Rapids, Iowa, horse and jack dealer, is advertising in the papers in Southern Oregon and North California, his arrival in Ashland, on or about April 28th, with a carload of Spanish Jacks and imported Belgian and Percheron stallions. Horse raisers of Lake county will do well to inspect these animals, with a view to improving their stock.

The new laws that were passed at the last legislature, not having the emergency clause attached, go into effect on the 15th of May. Among these laws effecting this part of the state are one making it a crime to jump board bills at hotels and boarding houses, punishable by a fine of from $20 to $100 and imprisonment from 10 to 30 days. Another one is making it a felony for a man to live with a fallen woman or to live off her earnings. The law should be rigidly enforced all over the state.

Range War in Klamath.

Last Friday a man who had been herding sheep for O. T. McKendree near Langella Valley, in Klamath county, arrived in Lakeview and reported that nine masked men came upon Adin McCall, the herder, about dusk the evening before, and after tying his hands opened fire upon the flock of sheep. About 60 were killed outright and 40 more were so badly wounded that they had to be killed the next day. Mr. McKendree was at Bonanza when the deed was done.

The man who came to Lakeview said he went within hearing of Dave Edler's sheep camp and heard shooting there, but did not go near. Mr. Edler was sent for, he being in Warner, and came here Saturday evening and left for his sheep camp Sunday. J. L. Clark came in from Edler's camp and stated that his camp was burned, but no sheep killed.

The desperadoes told the herders that unless the sheep were taken from that range he and the sheep would all be killed.

Mr. McKendree came to Lakeview Monday and reported the matter to the officials here.

See our new goods; just unpacked. Bailey & Mussingill.

 San Francisco papers state that Mrs. Ellen Jones-Taber has secured a divorce from James Taber, on the ground of cruelty.

Last Friday was Arbor day. The Lakeview public school observed the day by dismissing school at noon for the rest of the day.

Geo. Lynch's shearing crew finished shearing M. Sanders band Tuesday and came to town to wait for Malloy to get his sheep to the pens.

Assessor West arrived here from the north last Saturday. He has been at work assessing the people in the northern part of the county. However, he has not finished that part yet.

Geo. Stockmann intends starting soon on an extended trip through Klamath county, over to Yreka and Sisson and back by way of Adin, Alturas, Coquille and Bidwell. He will make the trip on his wheel and will take orders for Lakeview made cigars, the best in the world.

The remains of Mrs. Vinyard, wife of the late W. H. Vinyard, were removed last week from the cemetery at Willow Ranch, where she was buried 25 years ago, and placed beside her husband, in life, in the Pine Creek cemetery.

S. M. Bailey, one of the editors of the Prineville Journal, and Miss Fay Hodges of Prineville were married on April 9th. Newspaper men have just as good a right to get married as "white folks," and we congratulate Mr. Bailey and wish his bride a happy future.

Indulging in the belief that Mr. W. Bayley's fruit trees would not bloom, a youngster living in that part of town conceived the idea that Mr. Bayley was going to make people believe they had bloomed out by cutting the limbs off, driving pegs in the snags and wrapping white rags around them.

J. L. Smith, agent for the Equitable Life Insurance Co., has been over in Warner, where he wrote a large amount of insurance for a number of Warner people. Mr. Smith says his company did a record business in March, notwithstanding the trouble the company is having among its officials.

The Portland Police were all tried last week by a cougar; a real live, wild cougar. They either want President Roosevelt to capture the thing or some brave cowboy to lasso him. We have some of the best during cowboys in the world over here in Lake county; if the Portland police can't secure the services of the President, we would recommend Jim Green, foreman on the XL ranch.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
 You know the medicine that makes pure, rich blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Your mother, grandmother, all your folks, used it. They trusted it. Their doctors trusted it. Your doctor trusts it. Then trust it yourself. There is health and strength in it.
 Rich Blood
 Ayer's Pills are gently laxative. They greatly aid the Sarsaparilla.

Obituary.

Rev. W. H. Vinyard died at his home at New Pine Creek, April 7, 1905, after an illness of only six days, although he had been in poor health and suffered much for several years past. The end was peaceful and triumphant as a Christian.

He was born in Roditor Co., Virginia, March 28, 1834 and was 71 yrs. and 9 days old at the time of his death. His parents soon moved to Indiana, and when quite young, four boys and two girls of the family were left orphans. He and his brother John came to California in early days and engaged in mining at Moors Flat, Virginia City, and other mining points. At one time he was a partner in the big mining ditch at Canyon City. He was married to Sarah Harer Nov. 9, 1864, and soon after moved to Tulare Co., and then to Ventura Co., Cal. Eleven children were born of this union; nine of whom are still living. His wife preceded him to the Heavenly home 25 years ago. He was converted when about 14 years of age, and he united with the Methodist Church. He began preaching when about 30 years old.

He moved with his family to Goose Lake Valley in 1877, and took charge, as Pastor, of the Methodist work, giving almost all his time to the cause of Christ, who he loved so much, preaching at Alturas, Davis Creek, Willow Ranch and Lakeview. During his sickness he often murmured "Blessed Jesus," and to the many friends who visited him he stretched his feeble hand and said, "God bless you." Only three of his children could be in attendance during his sickness. He said to them "I am so glad you children are with me."

Virgil and Allie arrived home from Fall River a few hours after the funeral, owing to delay in receiving the telegram.

His funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Cheek; the Masonic Order took charge of the body and rendered their impressive ceremony at the grave. He was laid to rest in the Pine Creek Cemetery, to await the summons of him who said "The dead in Christ shall rise first."

Plague at Tonopah.

People are fleeing from Tonopah, the Nevada Klondyke, by the hundreds. Trains arriving in Reno are crowded with people with no destination only to get away from Tonopah, where strong and healthy men one day, are lifeless corpses the next. Two years ago the same plague raged at Tonopah, and now it is raging again in a more terrible form. People are said to be dying at the rate of 5 to 25 a day. The disease attacks strong men without warning and they die in from 12 to 24 hours. Governor Sparks of Reno, has taken the matter in charge and says everything possible will be done to stamp out the disease.

Managers of the Tonopah railroad and undertakers of the town denounce the reports as untrue and say Tonopah is the healthiest town in the United States. It is said the disease has not effected Goldfield, 25 miles from Tonopah.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincerest thanks to the many kind friends who so tenderly assisted during the sickness and at the death and burial of our dear father. It was a trying moment and only the kind acts of our dear friends could appease our aching hearts. May God ever bless you, one and all.

Boring For Artesian Water

Geo. Hankus is the first man to try for Artesian water in Lakeview. A well boring machine is now at work on his lot back of The Examiner office and at the time of going to press they have got down 32 feet. It is hoped that a good flow of water will be struck at a reasonable depth. If it proves a success others will try for a well.

WALKS THE TONIC OF LIFE

Fine Intoxication of Vigorous Stride Is Rapidly Becoming a Poetic Fancy.

The "fine intoxication" of an old-fashioned saunter or a vigorous "walk stride on foot is rapidly becoming a poetic fancy, not to be indulged in by the city man or woman unless prescribed by the physician as a last desperate remedy for the neuritis which waylay the lazy, says the Philadelphia Ledger. The bicycle has fallen into disrepute of late, because bicycle riding is too close an approach to walking. The trolley car gives motion without effort. The microbe of laziness develops it a marvelous pace on the "broomstick train," and laziness begets appendicitis and many other undesirable things. One of the latest devices of the evil one to hasten the legless age is the automobile. There is no remedy for the sesquipedalian disease known as automobilism save plain walking. There are some survivors of the walking age among us who walk as a part of the daily duty, despite five-cent fares and alluring suburban routes. The hope of the race is in the rare individuals who go afield. When the languor of spring is upon us, Nature is in her most inviting mood, and bids us come. "Give me the clear blue sky over my head," says Hazlitt, in "Going on a Journey," "and the green turf beneath my feet, a winding road before me and a three hours' march to dinner—and then to thinking."

His New Conundrum.

"Say," said her little brother, "I know a new conundrum." "What is it?" the young man asked. "What's the difference between you and our furnace?" "Well," that certainly is a new one. I don't know."

"Sister says you both produce hot air, but you're not so warm." —Chicago Record-Herald.
