A little squabble between some of the boys took place in town last night evening in which no one was hurt, the receipts being $1.00.

A MATTER OF HEALTH

Lulu Mae Snider-Johnson and Olive Solder-Merrill former Lakeview girls, are to take prominent parts in the May festivals in San Francisco. Lulu is one of the few selected to sing a solo.

The town council passed an ordinance at its regular meeting Tuesday evening, compelling property owners to build sidewalks in front of their property, on streets having sidewalks.

We submit to you that the Pine Creek light and power plant will furnish light and power for the hotel and cottages. The central village four mill is to be run with gas—gas from the Pine Creek.

The Lightning Squirrel Smoker is a grand success. As a squirrel killer it has no equal. A. S. Down, Agent. (Signed) J. D. Venator, T. B. Vernon, F. M. Duke, S. B. Chandler. 17-26

We are glad to report that "Grandma" Hammersley, who has been quite ill for some time, is very much improved in health and was able to be up to celebrate her 70. anniversary last Monday, May 1. Sunday the children gathered at her home and enjoyed a quiet birthday party and dinner in her honor.

Lakeview is to lose its musician, band master and scene painter. Prof. Grabau intends to go to Sisson, Calif., where he is offered a position leading a band at a salary of $50 per month. Mr. Grabau is a good musician and the town is loser when he leaves. The family will go about the 15th.

We see by the the Oregonian that C. M. Smythe, who resigned from a pastorate in Portland a few months ago to accept a job on the railroad, has failed to pass an examination for promotion in the R. R. service on account of failure to distinguish colors. He could not readily distinguish colors so was not qualified for a brakeman. He will probably go back to the ministry.

The Oregonian of April 28 contains a roasting editorial on the conditions in Eastern Oregon in regard to range trouble. There is a good deal of truth and sound sense in the editorial, but we fear that Mr. Scott's recent chastisement was instigated by false rumors, which were sent out as a "mere joke," as the promulgator termed it. Queer joke, indeed.

Mr. J. A. Yates, of Alturas, was here last Thursday. Mr. Yates is an experienced artesian well digger. He has a machine, and is now boring a well on the John Briles place at Davis Creek.

We publish this week a notice, by authority of the general land office, changing the boundary line between the Lakeview and Burns land districts. The lines as defined do not cut off as much of this district as was announced at first.

Jim McDonald and son Rolla were down from Paisley a couple of days the latter part of last week. Rolla recently returned from Lebanon, where he has been working at the barber business. They returned to Paisley Sunday.

He says he will attend the meeting at the Union School house tonight, which meeting is to organize an association of water users.

J. P. Duke and R. K. Funk, two prosperous farmers, were up town last Saturday. They said the hay crop was fully a month ahead of the crop at this time last year, and the indications were favorable for an abundant harvest. They say, too, that the fruit crop down the valley will be immense if nothing happens to it. Only one or two early varieties, such as early cherries and apricots, were damaged by the cold spell some time ago.

Reading Room Opened.

The Reading Room was opened to the public last Thursday evening. The crowd who attended this very auspicious occasion was significant of what the general sentiments are. It is beyond doubt the greatest and grandest enterprise ever consummated in Lakeview. The Ladies of the board of Trustees had prepared a plenteous supply of ice cream and cake. After everyone had been heartily greeted they were invited to partake of the refreshments.

The Reading Room is a thoroughly comfortable, well furnished room; at night it is brilliantly lighted, and every one who enjoys an hour of quiet reading is invited to come and enjoy to the fullest extent, all the papers and magazines. The dailies on file are, Oregonian, San Francisco Examiner, Call and Bulletin, Nevada State Journal, Oakland Tribune. The weeklies are, The Examiner, Herald New Era, Lassen Advocate, Bieber Gazette, Surprise Valley Record, Central Oregonian, Saturday Evening Post, Scientific American, Leslie's Weekly, Literary Digest, Harpers Weekly, Youth's Companion, Colliers, Judge. The Monthly papers and Magazines, include, Review of Reviews, Munsey, Overland Monthly Cosmopolitan, Everybodys Magazine, Leslies, The Brown Book, Little Folks, Ladies Home Journal, Delicater, McClures, Lippincotts

One thing generally remarked is the presence, in the evening of so many young boys and girls, which is in itself, commendable. If the Reading Room succeeds in depriving the streets of the younger element, it has well repaid every exertion.

Silver Lake Organizes.

The citizens of Silver Lake met in the school house on last Saturday and organized a Development League for Northern Lake county. The house was called to order by L. N. It was moved and seconded that the name of the organization shall be known as the Northern Lake County Development League, which is to work in harmony with the County organization. G. B. Wardwell was chosen permanent Chairman and F. M. Chrisman permanent Secretary.—S. L. Oregonian.

By the President,
J. H. FEMPLE,
Acting Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Flore Active than a Simplex.

The Alturas New Era has installed a Simplex typesetter, which is a "dandy," and devotes 3/4 columns to telling about its typesetter. The Era's typesetter only sets type, and requires an operator and electric motor to make it do that. The Record has a typesetter that moves of its own volition, chews and smokes tobacco, lies about the paper's circulation, handles profanity with artistic skill, rustles grub, saws wood, pumps water, sweeps out the office, can almost dance the two-step and has actually threatened to wash the front windows of the office—and we've never said a blessed word about our typesetter.—Celaville Record.
