Our Offer.
With the June number will begin The Pacific Monthly's series of special editions for the year 1905. They will comprise a number for Portland, for Seattle, for Southern California, for San Francisco and the souvenir number of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, also a special automobile number. The articles of Dr. Wolf von Scherbrand, six in number on "The Coming Supremacy of the Pacific" are also promised, and the plans contemplated by the publishers will, without question, place The Pacific Monthly far in advance, not only of present competitors, but also into the unreachable class of periodical literature on the Pacific Coast. The Pacific Monthly is sold to regular subscribers at the extremely low price of $1 a year. We have made an arrangement with the publishers by which we are able to offer it in connection with The Lake County Examiner, (both Publications), to new subscribers, and old ones who pay up any back subscription they may owe and a year in advance, for the very low price of $2.50 a year. If

It may be a consolation to the public to read of the benevolence of Frank G. Bigelow, the defaulting Milwaukee bank president, and how his downfall was brought about, but to those who have to make good the million and half dollars, it will no doubt be cold comfort. A friend of Bigelow's, C. L. Pierce, in the Chicago Tribune has sought to condone the offense of his friend because of his love for young men. Bigelow has directed to success more than a thousand young men; braced them up by his cheering smile, his implicit confidence, his counsel, the grip of his hand, the gleam of his eyes, the optimism radiating from him and not least of all, his liberal financial aid from money which did not belong to him. His love for a wayward son and a desire to aid him as he had aided the sons of other fathers. The son gambled in stocks and the father put up the money. But the end came. The son is sorry for his benevolent father's downfall. All this is consoling to the public. Will the thousand beneficiaries of Bigelows benevolence console those who have the financial burden to bear with reimbursement?

Saved by Dynamite.
Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Croup, which cured her cough, gave her sleep, and made her cough cure." Regularly sold in all drug stores, and by mail. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

We print township plats. The Examiner prints township plats, and makes them into books to order. Wool sales at Shaniko this spring will amount to $1,000,000, so say reports. A chapter of the O. E. S. was organized at Celadaville, called Bonner Chapter. Over 250,000 sheep will be taken from Crook county this year, if reports are true. With the single exception of fruit, no other crop in Oregon is as profitable as alfalfa.—Cline Falls Press. Loren Bayley, the painter and paper hanger, has a fine line of 1905 wall paper. Call on him for wall paper. 18-20

Physicians pronounce Terry McGovern, the once champion featherweight prize-fighter, to be hopelessly insane.

Since the beginning of work on the irrigation projects the price of real estate in Klamath County has advanced fifty per cent.

A forty-acre fruit farm near Medford, Oregon, recently sold for $7400. Nearly any ranch in Lake county could be made as valuable with irrigation.

A new poisonous weed is killing cattle on the Blue Mountain Ranges. The appearance of the venomous weed seems to be an unusual thing, and stockmen cannot explain its presence.—Cline Falls Press.

It is reported that the Klamath Canal Co., operating at Klamath Falls, has sold its canal and franchise to the U. S. government, for $150,000. The company is also said to have discharged its engineer and sold 300 head of work horses.

Warren Jefferson, a pioneer resident of Bidwell, died suddenly at his home in that town a week ago last Saturday. Deceased was aged about 80 years, and leaves a family. Mrs. Jefferson is a sister of Mrs. John Fisher of Lake City.

There is a hog in Union County that is being fattened for the Lewis and Clark Fair. At the present time he weighs 1500 pounds, which is 27 pounds more than the prize hog weighed at St. Louis. He is being fattened on wheat just to demonstrate to Eastern people that corn is not the only fattening food for swine.—Cline Falls Press.

Embassador Choate has cabled the State Department that the British Foreign Office has refused to grant any further clemency to Mrs. Florence Maybrick, who recently made application through the State Department for a complete pardon. It appears that Mrs. Maybrick was not granted a complete pardon, but was released from imprisonment upon certain conditions, and she is still technically under sentence.

Berthelum Tree wanted to produce the highest production of "red" berries to the London market and up to the fruit lands for the same purpose, which was accomplished. "But they have been ruined" as it is said "by the..."

At this time a foreigner can not buy and hold land in Japan.

The Chinese Minister at Washington, has commenced the gathering of evidence for a basis of a suit against the United States to test the validity of the Chinese exclusion law as passed by congress in lieu of the treaty that expired last year.

There will be no Igorotes village at the Portland fair. Any one can see a band of dirty Indians any time out West, and if they will go to the camp at most any meal time the Indians can be seen eating rabbit or ground hog; just as good a show as Igorotes eating dog, and it don't cost a cent.

Fred T. Merrill, one of the many candidates for the Mayoralty of Portland, has been accused of bribery, or attempt at bribery. He wrote letters to city employes asking for their votes and promising, if he was elected, to try to raise their salaries. According to the city charter this is bribery.

The Portland Evening Telegram has started an Interior Oregon Expedition. They have traversed Wasco county and are bound for the Southeastern counties. The Expedition will end at Ontario, after Wasco, Crook, Wheeler, Grant, Lake, Klamath, Harney and Malheur counties have been visited. The trip is to consume 100 days.

O. P. Hoff, State Commissioner of Labor, is now on a tour of the state inspecting mills of all kinds for the purpose of making suggestions to operators to guard against accidents and death to employes. Mr. Hoff will extend his investigations to all parts of the State. He has about completed his work in the northern part of the state and will soon visit Southern and Eastern Oregon. Commissioner Hoff's work comes under the head of duties of the commissioner, consequently is official in every respect.

Lake county is getting considerable advertising through The Examiner. Every week we receive letters from parties who say they have seen a copy of The Examiner and want to learn more of the country, and write for more copies. Others say their friends have requested them to send for a copy of the Lake County Examiner for information about Lakeview and Lake county. We want to say that when we send out over 40,000 copies of The Examiner in a year, some of them are going to do some good.

The funeral of Guglielmo in Portland was headed by a brass band, and the murderer was conducted to a felon's grave amidst much pomp and ceremony. What would have been his standing in society and how much parade would have attended his funeral, had Guglielmo married poor Freda, instead of murdering her, gave her a comfortable home, kept sober and led a respectable life? The Oregonian wisely says "if there is no law to prevent such an unseemly display on the streets of Portland a way should be made at the first opportunity for the purpose. There is no excuse in rational sympathy for making a hero of a murderer."

"Nasal Catarrhs quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is recommended by the highest authorities. It is prepared from the most reliable materials and being the only preparation which will cure it, it is the only one to use. Test it and you will see the result of the treatment."
