At a recent state banquet in Naples the king of Italy, in toasting the kaiser, spoke in Italian, while the emperor replied in German. There is an etiquette in the use of a language on such occasions which Bismarck may be said to have introduced after the French war—an etiquette which always guides the foreign office at Berlin in its correspondence with members of diplomatic corps. Had the king use French, a neutral tongue, the kaiser would also have responded in the same language, but as the king spoke in his native speech the emperor had to stand upon his dignity and do the same.

With the June number will begin The Pacific Monthly's series of special editions for the year 1905. They will comprise a number for Portland, for Seattle, for Southern California, for San Francisco, and the souvenir number of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, also a special automobile number. The articles of Dr. Wolf von Schierbrand, six in number on "The Coming Supremacy of the Pacific" are also promised, and the plans contemplated by the publishers will, without question, place The Pacific Monthly far in advance, not only of present competitors, but also into the unreachable class of periodical literature on the Pacific Coast. The Pacific Monthly is sold to regular subscribers at the extremely low price of $1 a year. We have made an arrangement with the publishers by which we are able to offer it in connection with The Lake County Examiner, (both Publications), to new subscribers, and old ones who pay up any back subscription they may owe and a year in advance, for the very low price of $2.50 a year.
