SOME THINGS TO INTEREST
ALL OUR READERS

We print township plats. The Examiner prints township plats, and makes them into books to order.

Lakeview will soon have a ladies brass band. The organization is now being made.—Alturas New Era.

President Roosevelt is backed by united Europe, in his efforts to bring about peace between Russia and Japan.

The new press in the Plaidealer office, that went through the fire, has been all fixed up and is in good working order again.—Says the New Era.

Blanks for final proofs, Desert proofs, timber land final proofs and blank affidavits for applications for readvertisements, blank witness' affidavits, etc. at The Examiner office.

Two more of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society have resigned; Jacob Schiff and T. J. Coolidge, making ten in all, and M. E. Ingalls has stated that he would also resign.

Geo. McGrath, and little babe left here last Monday morning for the McGrath home near Lakeview. George, who came down after his wife and baby got caught in the quarantine.—Alturas New Era.

Sam Turner was arrested last week for a violation of the quarantine regulations. He was released upon a writ of habeas corpus, but was thereupon sent to the quarantine station for a period of 15 days.—Alturas New Era.

We are now prepared to sell several tracts of land at prices that will startle you, especially if you are acquainted with the location. We have land all the way from $1.50 per acre up to $15; unimproved or improved, to suit the purchaser. Lake County Examiner.

Last Tuesday D. P. Brown and wife, Mrs. Geo. Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. Billups arrived here from Berkeley on their way home at Bidwell. Mr. and Mrs. Brown's daughters have gone East on a visit, and will remain there during vacation.—Cedarville Record.

The Federal court for the district of Oregon convened Monday by Judge Gilbert, Judge De Haven of San Francisco will try the cases. Monday was set for the hearing of the demurrers in the Mitchell and other cases. It is expected that Mitchell's trial will begin some time this week.

The Faro banks of Reno, says an exchange, and Truckee were struck a serious blow recently. Nearly all the gaming houses of the two towns went broke and put out signs "Banks Busted." The players of these games have cleaned them up for about $20,000 during the past two weeks. Some of the houses are again opened.

The supreme court has sustained the decision of the circuit court of first-degree murder, in the case of Geo. W. Lauth, who killed Mrs. Lenora B. Jones at Oregon City last September. Lauth was sentenced to be hanged at the Penitentiary on January 27th, last. An appeal was taken and the lower court sustained. He will be resented. As a last resort, his attorney and friends will present his case to Governor Chamberlain in the hopes of having the sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

It is estimated that one million lambs have been added to the sheep industry of Eastern Oregon this spring.—Cline Falls Press.

King Alfonso of Spain has visited the King of England. The young King was received with the greatest pomp and show ever witnessed in England. Unlike such visits in America, the throng of "common people" were warded off by a line of police, and none but royal bloods were allowed to get a glimpse of the King. Well, the common people are as well off as if they had seen him.

Another fool law: Anyone wishing to hunt in Oregon must take out a license annually. We suppose the Legislature passed this law to help the million dollar graft out, and protect Portland sports, who imagine they own the earth, from the boys, who they say, spoil their Sunday shooting. Better turn the hunting privileges of the State over to these high and mighty gentlemen and be done with it.—Cline Falls Press.

Persistent rumors are afloat that the forest reserve between here and Alturas will soon be thrown open for the ranging of sheep. Flanigan's forces have been at work in Washington, and the sheepmen are so confident of their success that a man named Pon has all of his sheep along the line ready to run them into the reserve as soon as the word is wired from Washington. If the sheepmen succeed it is probable the whole reserve will be thrown open to settlement.—Cedarville Record.

Dying of Famine is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to the victim and friends. When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at Lee Beall's drug store, price 50c and $1.00. A Trial bottle free.

Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. Druggists sell the 50c. size; Trial size by mail, 10 cents. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment.

Announcement. To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation.

The Smart Set

A Magazine of Cleverness

Magazines should have a well-defined purpose. Genuine entertainment, amusement and mental recreation are the motives of THE SMART SET, the

MOST SUCCESSFUL OF MAGAZINES

Its novels (a complete one in each number) are by the most brilliant authors of both hemispheres.

Its short stories are matchless—clean and full of human interest.

Its poetry covering the entire field of verse—pathos, love, humor, tenderness—is by the most popular poets, men and women, of the day.

Its jokes, witticisms, sketches, etc., are admittedly the most mirth-provoking.

Our Offer.

With the June number will begin The Pacific Monthly's series of special editions for the year 1905. They will comprise a number for Portland, for Seattle, for Southern California, for San Francisco and the souvenir number of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, also a special automobile number. The articles of Dr. Wolf von Schlerbrand, six in number on "The Coming Supremacy of the Pacific" are also promised, and the plans contemplated by the publishers will, without question, place The Pacific Monthly far in advance, not only of present competitors, but also into the unreachably class of periodical literature on the Pacific Coast. The Pacific Monthly is sold to regular subscribers at the extremely low price of $1 a year. We have made an arrangement with the publishers by which we are able to offer it in connection with The Lake County Examiner, (both Publications), to new subscribers, and old ones who pay up any back subscription they may owe and a year in advance, for the very low price of $2.50 a year. If
