"TOO MUCH PEPPER."

Mr. H. G. Holabird of Klamath Falls, seems to be the boomer of Klamath county. He stated last week in the Klamath Republican that Klamath Falls had an opportunity to become the great shipping center of a territory larger than all New England. He included Klamath county, Lake county and a part of Crook county and part of Siskiyou county, Calif.

However great Klamath Falls becomes, as a shipping point, we cannot see how it can ever monopolize the greatness of the entirety of all the great territory included by Mr. Holabird. Lake county is an empire of itself and its topography makes its commercial center within its own borders. Its natural outlets to the south, to the north and to the east are far more advantageous than those of any other section of Oregon. Its natural resources are unsurpassed in the West and its commercial center lies where kind nature placed it, at Lakeview. If one was going to ascend a mountain he would not climb a tree to start.

It will not require a bonus to induce a railroad to build to Lakeview. It is on the natural route for the road coming from the south, and the one coming from the north, and its possibilities for greatness from any standpoint are far greater than those of any other portion of Eastern Oregon.

Artesian Water in Malheur.

The Burns Times-Herald tells of a number of artesian wells in the Wild Horse country, ranging from 47 to 167 feet in depth, which furnish a good supply of water. One six-inch well was mentioned in particular that flowed a steady stream several feet above the surface of the ground. The Wild Horse country is in Eastern Oregon, and topography is the same as Lake and other Eastern Oregon counties, and the underground supply of water in that section should be an encouragement to our people to try for artesian water. We have always contended that artesian water could be found in Lake county, and will never give up until a thorough investigation proves different.

A wreck occurred on the 20th Century Limited, the fastest train in the world, running over the Lake shore road between Chicago and New York. The wreck occurred at Mentor, Ohio; 9 persons, all prominent business men, being killed. The wreck was caused by an open switch, which was thought to have been the work of a maniac who wanted to see a wreck of a fast train, or some person bent upon revenge. The train was running at the rate of 60 miles an hour when it ran into the open switch. The speed of the swift train was not thought to have contributed to the wreck.

Another new city is to grow up in the Klamath basin to be called Worden City. Major C. E. Worden, of Klamath Falls, has purchased a tract of land about three miles from Placid and will lay it out for a town.

From the number of new mowing machines and rakes that are being bought from our merchants the country is prosperous and farmers have all got money; otherwise they would patch their old machines and make them run another year.

W. H. Shirk left for Madeline Sunday, where he goes to meet his sister who is coming to Lakeview on a visit. Mrs. Shirk's mother may also come here. Mrs. J. W. Scott went to the railroad with Mr. Shirk, returning to her home in California.

Clifford Johnson, who has been working with C. H. Norton, the mining man, at Willow Ranch and Bidwell, came over from the latter place last Saturday. He says Mr. Norton has postponed work on the Willow Ranch mines and moved camp to Bidwell, where he is doing some prospecting.

While marking calves in Camas Prairie Monday Charley Lohrengel received a severe cut on the left wrist. The calf he was marking kicked him on the right hand in which he held a knife and the blade was plunged into the wrist of the other hand. He came to town to have the wound dressed.

J. P. Duke was up town Tuesday with a fractious team. Some way they got the best of Jim and ran away with his spring wagon. The team made a circuitous inspection of nearly every street in town and finally emerged at the lower end and made for home. The team was caught at the planing mill, and not a thing was broken or damaged.

Miss Mae Miller of Oakland arrived last evening for a visit of a few days with Mrs. W. M. Laidlaw. The two ladies were classmates. Miss Miller, who is a contralto soloist in one of the Oakland churches, will sing at both services at the Congregational church today.—Martinez Daily Gazette. (Mrs. W. M. Laidlaw was formerly Miss Grace Beach.)

J. W. Olson of Santa Rosa, Calif., arrived in Lakeview last week in quest of real estate. He went over on the west side last Saturday with L. A. Carrker to look at some of the farms over there. He seemed to be very favorably impressed with the country, and Monday came back to Lakeview with J. C. Oliver, and will remain here in wait for a friend of his to arrive here from La Grande, and it is thought they will buy up a few good ranches. The La Grande man has already bought the John Harvey ranch, near Drews Creek. It is our honest belief that inside of a year these newcomers will be noted by the dozen instead of twos.
