

New Forest Reserve Rules.

The following rules as to the cutting of timber are to be made a part of the policy of the government in forest reserves:

In California no reserve timber may be sold without advertising for competitive bids. Notices must be published for not less than sixty days in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the county, and also Sacramento.

All forest rangers and deputy forest rangers are authorized, except in California, to sell dead timber in amounts not exceeding $20 in value, and all forest supervisors to sell dead or living timber worth not more than $100.

A forester is authorized to make timber sales for larger amounts and to delegate this authority in special cases.

All timber must be paid for either in full or in installments before it is cut. All money must be sent direct by the payer to a special fiscal agent and not transmitted through the forest officers.

The period allowed for the removal of timber, which in no case will exceed five years, must be fixed in the agreement. The privilege of assigning any rights obtained under the sale may be granted only by a forester, and only in cases of emergency and when the transaction is not for the purpose of speculation.

Timber from any forest reserve may be sold in any market.

In any sale involving more than $100 the purchaser may be required to give a bond to carry out his agreement. This bond will also cover the operation of a sawmill, if a permit for one is given in connection with the sale.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. Metcalf, of Van Buren, Tenn., "Thad enough, for fourteen years."

Nothing helped me, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure for Throat and Lung Troubles. At Lee Beall's drug store, price 50¢ and $1.00 guaranteed Trial bottle free.

"Old Missouri."

A tourist from Missouri hit the wild and wooly west with hayseed in his whiskers, no buttons on his vest. The patches on his pantaloons resembled Asia's map, and the roguish glimmer in his eye bespoke the ready scrap. The kids all guyed "Missouri," with flour sack filled with clothes; they said he'd take a "tite pass" back before the winter snows. But old "Missouri" got a job and settled in the west; his nickels grew to dollars and his dollars grew to lives, while the dandy dudes who laughed at him were filling out their lives.

A homestead on the desert where a wildcat wouldn't stay he worked and planted in the sand but always made it pay. Five years slipped by in measured tread "Missouri" showed them how—and when he saunters down the street nobody guys him now! The boys who wore white collars and hooded him so gay, are handling dung for old "Missouri" at 50 cents a day. And when they heard the startling news, their hearts within them sank—for old "Missouri's" gone to town and opened up a bank!—E. S.

Bon. Hor Double.

"I knew no one, but four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Anna Hunter, of Pittsburgh, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at Lee Beall's drug store, price 50¢.

Downd at Last.

A few weeks ago The Examiner commented on the ambitious citizens of Harney county in striving to outdo every other county in the state in greatness and curiosities. In the course of the article said that no doubt if we were to tell that Charley Snider owned a sorrel gelding 37 years old, that raised a colt every year, the Times-Herald man or some one less equal in historic research, would undertake to beat it probably and good Colossal's father.

Well, the bluff worked, in a way. The Times-Herald copied our item and followed with this:

"No brother, we're stumped. Harney must bow to Lake's 37-year-old gelding that raises a colt every year. Possibly Capt. Kelley's old Indian pony that he captured at the Lava Beds battle on the 17th of January, 1872, may do as well when he gets the info. You see it is not positively known just how old this Indian pony is as he has only been in the possession of white men for 33 years. We shall make special inquiry about the matter and let you know later."

It will be noticed that, while the Times-Herald acknowledges being "stumped," it holds an option on a possible line of victory. It, perchance, Capt. Kelley's Indian pony proves to have been a voter when captured by the whites we may hear from them again. But remember, Brother, "Old Kernel" is growing old very rapidly these days.
