THE GUARANTEED COMPOUND Interest Gold Bond

—of—

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York . . .

RICHARD A. McCURDY, President
W. L. HATHAWAY, Ore. Manager.

This gold bond differs from any policy written by this or any other life insurance company in the following essential particulars:

1st. The policy is by its terms, payable in Gold Coin. This refers to both the principal sum and the interest:

2d. It guarantees annually, for a specified term of years, 3 per cent in gold on all premiums previously paid.

These credits may be drawn at the time they are made or at any other time, but as long as they are allowed to remain with the Company, they will be increased by 3 1/2 percent interest, compounded annually, until the end of the said term, and, in the event of the death of the insured, any such accumulated credits will be paid with the sum insured.

3d. At the end of the period during which premium payments are required (10, 15 or 20 years, as the case may be), the Company, if required, will exchange this Bond for a new one a stipulated amount, payable at the death of the insured and, in the meantime, drawing 3 per cent simple interest annually on its par value, PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD COIN. The accumulated surplus or dividend will at the same time be paid in cash, or it may be applied to increase the amount of the new 3 per cent Bond, which will also thereafter participate annually in the dividends of the Company.

In addition to these features which are peculiar to the Gold Bond, it also combines all the advantages of the Distribution Policies of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, such as full participation in the surplus earnings of the Company, Cash Surrender and Loan Values, grace in payment of premiums, Automatic Paid-up Insurance, etc.

Full information regarding this exceedingly popular and attractive commination of Investment and Protection for any particular age or amount may be obtained by applying to the Company's nearest agent.

A Queer Cure for Boils.

A traveling doctor called at a farm house and asked to be kept over night. The good old farmer, who was suffering from a big boil on the back of his neck, granted the weary traveler the request. Before retiring the learned man recommended the gold cure for the farmer's troublesome boil. The good wife—good crops and fortune had smiled on the tiller of the soil—dug up a $20 gold piece. The farmer applied the remedy according to directions, by briskly rubbing the gold piece over the boil for some minutes, after which he laid the twenty on the table. The boil got easy in the night and the old farmer slept soundly, and to his amazement the next morning it was gone; and so was the doctor.

It has been stated since R. L. Sloss, editor of the Alturas New Era, went home from his visit to Lakeview during Fourth of July week, that he came very near becoming the owner of the Herald, our contemporary. We hear that he was offered the Herald for $200.

A fact that was hardly noticed by Lakeview people, because of its being a common rule, is being widely commented upon by the visitors to our city during the Fourth. That there was not a drunk man seen on the street, and both the town and county jails were vacant and spider webs formed in the cells, is a fact that our people are proud of.

Attempted Suicide.

Eugene F. Bert, the well-known lawyer and baseball magnate, shot himself at his home in San Francisco last Saturday, and is in a critical condition. The mystery surrounding the shooting was cleared by Andrew J. Clunie, an intimate friend of Bert. In a statement made to the police detective that Bert, in a fit of temporary mental aberration, due to illness and the dread of a critical operation, had attempted to take his own life.

Mr. Bert's wound was not thought to be serious at first and an attempt was made to suppress the truth of the circumstance by stating that a robber had shot him.
