VOL. XXVI.

LAKEVIEW, LAKE COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, AUG. 3, 1905.

NO. 31.

SENATOR MITCHELL SENTENCED.

Senator John H. Mitchell was sentenced July 25, to six months in the Multnomah county jail and a fine of $1000 imposed. When Judge De Haven opened the morning session of the federal court he said: "This is the time fixed for pronouncing judgment in the case of the United States against Mitchell. Has the defendant anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced?" Senator Mitchell rose and said: "May it please the court, I am represented here by counsel, who will speak for me." Senator Thruson, counsel for Mitchell made a plea on behalf of Mitchell on the ground that, under the constitution of the United States it was unlawful to prevent a U. S. Senator from attending the regular sessions of Congress. Judge De Haven overruled the objection.

JUDGE DE HAVEN'S SENTENCE.
The objection will be overruled. The statute under which the indictment in this case was found provides that every person offending against its provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be imprisoned not more than two years and fined not more than $10,000, and shall moreover by conviction thereof be rendered forever thereafter incapable of holding any office of honor, trust or profit under the government of the United States. As I construe this language, the judgment upon a verdict of conviction must be both fine and imprisonment, but the court is given great discretion in fixing the amount of the fine and the term of imprisonment. The imprisonment, if for more than one year, may be in the state prison, and in any case the court may, by its judgment, make the punishment only nominal.

In pronouncing judgment it is not my purpose to comment upon the evidence or to make any special reference to the facts necessarily found by the jury in returning their verdict. It will be sufficient to say that in reaching a conclusion as to the proper judgment to be given, I have given consideration to the age of the defendant, which may be properly taken into account in mitigation of punishment and to the fact that the offense is defined in the statute as a misdemeanor and not as a felony, and to the further fact that the legal effect of the judgment is to forever disqualify the defendant from holding any office under the Government of the United States. In view of this fact and considering also the nature of the defendant's offense, as disclosed by the evidence, the judgment of the court is that the defendant be imprisoned for the term of six months in the County Jail of Multnomah County, in this city, and pay a fine in the sum of $1000. Execution of this judgment be stayed for two days."

Senator Mitchell appealed his case to the supreme court of the United States and was given his liberty by a $2000 supercedens bond upon which Phil Metchan of the Imperial Hotel and S. A. Arato, a wholesale liquor dealer appeared as sureties.

The United States Supreme court convenes the 9th of October, and unless Senator Mitchell appears in Washington at that time and asks to have his case advanced, it cannot come up for argument before January, 1906, and is not likely to come up in the next session at all, and will go over to the next term and not be heard until the closing days of the term of Mitchell as U. S. Senator, March 4, 1907, which would deprive Governor Chamberlain of the opportunity of appointing a democratic successor to Mitchell. Though sentenced, Mitchell will be permitted to hold his office until the sentence is executed.

J. E. Calderwood Dead.

It is with great regret that we have to report the death and funeral of Mr. J. E. Calderwood late of Warner Valley, Lake Co., Oregon, and formerly of Surprise Valley, Modoc County Calif. For some time his health had failed him and some weeks ago he came to Bidwell to secure medical aid. He continued to fail, however, and eventually succumbed to that dread affliction, Bright's Disease. The end came quietly at half past two on the morning of the 24th. With his passing has gone another of the earliest settlers of Surprise Valley. He was born in Knox County, Maine, in the year 1840, and moved to California in the year of 1861, by the way of the Isthmus of Panama. He came to Bidwell with the first company of California Volunteers and helped to build Fort Bidwell. Since then, until the year 1886, when he removed to Warner Valley to engage in the live stock business, he made his home in Bidwell and was identified with its interests and development. In the year 1872 he was married to Mary Foster and five sons and one daughter was the result of the union. Nelson, Thomas, Frank, Harry and Edward Calderwood, who all dwell in Warner Valley, Lake Co., Oregon. The daughter, Ida Belle Calderwood, preceded him to the other world in 1887, May 23. He was a man of honor and of sterling integrity and was held in high esteem, by all who knew him, for his many good qualities of mind and heart. The great affliction in which he was held by his wife and sons and their extreme grief at his death indicate a yet finer side of his character and life. The country can ill afford to lose such a citizen and all who knew him will regret his death.

The funeral took place at Bidwell at 10 a. m. on the 15th inst, the Rev. G. H. Barrett of the M. E. Church of Cedarville, conducting the ceremonies and delivering the funeral sermon. Mrs. J. E. Calderwood and sons were all able to be present at the funeral and many friends gathered to express their sympathies with the bereaved and show their respect for the deceased.

FAREWELL.

Farewell, friends, yet not farewell,
Where I am ye too shall dwell.
I am gone before your face,
A moment's time, a little space,
When ye come where I have slept,
Ye will wonder why ye wept,
Ye will know by wise love taught,
That here is all and there is naught,
Weep awhile if ye are vain,
Sunshine still must follow rain.

Quarterly Conference.

The Fourth Quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church of Lakeview was held in the church in this city on Saturday and Sunday, July 29 and 30. Rev. M. C. Wire, D. D., the presiding elder of the Eugene district, was present and preached both morning and evening Sunday. Dr. Wire is an able preacher. His Sunday evening sermon was exceptionally fine.

During his visit in this county, Dr. Wire went with the pastor to Union School House on the West Side, also to New Pine Creek and to Bethel Church, in Modoc county, preaching at each place to an appreciative congregation. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the conditions of the church at the several points visited. At the Quarterly conference held in Lakeview Saturday, the present pastor, Rev. Sanford Snyder, was unanimously requested to return to this church for another year. The pastor will attend the Oregon Annual conference at Albany in September.

Runaway Saturday.

A lively runaway occurred Saturday near Frank Lane's place. Dick Kingsley and wife were out for a ride with a Livery team. One of the animals became frightened at a bicycle, and started to run. In an effort to stop the team Dick broke one of the bridle bits with a suddenness that threw him out of the buggy. By this time the team was under such headway that Mrs Kingsley decided to take her chances in the buggy, and coolly kept her seat. The team ran up behind Charley Moore's carriage and run the buggy tongue under the back seat, where Mrs. S. T. Colvin was riding. Here the horses broke the double-tree and freed themselves. No one was hurt much, and the only damage done to the rig was a broken double-tree and a few broken spokes in one of the wheels.

Picknicked On Cottonwood.

Last Sunday quite a crowd went to Cottonwood to fish and have a picnic. In the crowd were, F. M. Miller and wife, Dr. J. S. Dewey and wife, W. H. Shirk and wife, W. M. Harvey and wife, V. L. Snelling and wife, F. P. Lane and wife, Mrs. White, Misses Hall, Josie Harvey, Laura and Gene Snelling.

A splendid time was had and some fish caught.

Mr. Shirk says Vince ate so much that his pants wouldn't meet and had to put on a pair of overalls to make up the deficiency.

Rock Assays $1500 a Ton.

Geo. Ayres, the assayer, returned from Bidwell Tuesday and reports good news from the mines in the mountains between this valley and Surprise valley, about 25 miles from Lakeview and 10 miles from Bidwell. Geo. brought back samples of the ore that he says will go from $1000 to $1500 to the ton. A vein of this quality of ore about 20 inches wide was found. We hope to give more details of the rich strike later.

Killed at White Horse.

Fred Andrews, formerly a newspaper man in California, and later proprietor of a hotel in Burnas, and lately foreman on the White Horse ranch in Harney county, was stabbed to death in a saloon at White Horse last Tuesday a week ago. A man known as "Red," whose true name is not known, had been working on the White Horse ranch, and quit. He got into a fight with Andrews, and got the worst of it and while his partner, a man named Foster was engaged in a like melee with Andrews, "Red" stepped up behind Andrews and stabbed him in the back of the neck. Andrews died in 30 minutes. "Red" started for Burnas, but was overtaken, and arrested at Burnas. He waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court.

Wool Not All Sold.

A Cheyenne dispatch says. The 1905 wool clip has not been entirely disposed of in this state. Indeed, shearing is still in progress and many clips have not been sold. Yet contracts are being made for the 1906 clip.

One clip of 400,000 pounds of a well known flockmaster who ranges his sheep in the Muskrat country in central Wyoming, has been sold to a Boston firm for seventeen cents. The 1906 clip of the same flockmaster went to the same firm a month ago for the same price. The flockmaster is of the opinion that wool will fall several cents in price before next season and believes he has received what will prove to be a big price for his clip.

So anxious were the buyers to secure the wool that the demand of the owner for an advance of $15,000 on the clip was readily assented to. —Ex.

We are informed that the school board has selected the teachers for the next term, but contracts have not been made. Prof. J. Blough will probably be principal, Miss Flora Blough will take the 6th and 7th grades, Mrs. Thos. Cloud the 4th and 5th, and Miss Hall the primary department. Dr. Daly informs us that a high school course will be taught, up to the twelfth grade. It is not certain yet when school will begin.

MET WITH A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Julius Sanders, a resident of Vinton, Calif., met with an accident about two months ago, while breaking a couple of colts

He was driving them along the road, when of a sudden, they both took fright, and dashed down the grade, for a distance of  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a mile. When they reached the bottom of the grade, the vehicle collided with a large bolder, throwing Sanders to the ground, one wheel passing over his leg, being stunned by the fall, he does not know how long he lay there, but upon regaining his feet, he started for his ranch a distance of one and a half miles, to find his team had been put up in the barn, and two of his hired men in the act of leaving, to make a search for him.

He complained of a little soreness in his hip, also of a slight headache, that was all. He related his experience, while at the supper table, congratulating himself, on his lucky escape from serious injury, he retired about 10:30 p. m., feeling little the worse for his mishap.

The following morning he was unable to leave his bed, in which he remained for three days, being rubbed, and hot applications applied frequently, the fifth day he was apparently as well as ever, on the twelfth day, he complained of a slight pain in his knee, hot applications were again applied, but with no satisfactory results. He was finally persuaded to have a Dr. called in, and Dr. W. D. Coates of Loyaltown was the gentleman selected. Upon examination the Dr. pronounced it a Superative knee joint and had Sanders immediately removed to the Loyaltown Hospital, where he could get proper treatment. After being in the Hospital a few days, a consultation was held. Dr. Coates calling in two other prominent physicians, they examined the patient carefully, and thoroughly and were unanimous, that in order to save the life of Sanders, that an amputation was necessary, the operation was performed and successfully, the patient was on the road to recovery when abscesses developed, which necessitated the patient being lanced in several different places. Sanders' mental condition is slightly impaired, owing to the number of abscesses developed during his illness, he lost considerable blood, and is still in a precarious condition, but owing to his robust constitution the Dr. has hopes for his ultimate recovery.

His brother, Manuel, a well known sheep owner of Lakeview, Oregon, has been constantly by his bedside for the past month, he has spared nothing, to make his unfortunate brother as comfortable as possible, with words of encouragement from Dr. Coates, he left Loyaltown, for Lakeview Tuesday morning, to attend some very pressing business in the North. ## A Business Change.

Reynolds & Wingfield are taking an inventory of the stock of goods this week. A Mr. Goodman of San Francisco is here to receive the stock. Mr. Reynolds may buy the stock and continue the business. Mr. Wingfield will retire on account of his health. It was reported that Mr. Reynolds would either go to Paisley or Klamath Falls, but he did not confirm the report.
