

Lake County Examiner

VOL. XXVI.

LAKEVIEW, LAKE COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, SEPT. 28, 1905.

NO. 39.

A LETTER FROM IRELAND.

The following letter was received from Mrs. Wm. Harvey while she was in Ireland, by a friend in Lakeview:

"I had a delightful trip across the continent. At every stop we were given a change to New York. In the city it was something to see. You can't imagine anything like the heat."

"We stayed in New York several days and arrived in London-derry Saturday morning, and stayed there all day, hired a jaunting car and rode all over the city, visited the famous Walter monument and the Walls. Next day we came to Omagh, where we found Mr. Harvey's folks waiting to receive us. We like them very much and they make us promise to visit them again within two years, at least."

"We went to Belfast and were accompanied by Mr. Harvey's nephew and niece. Belfast is a great city. We went all through the Botanic gardens, as pretty a park as you could see anywhere in the world. They have grand stores there, too, and we took in the theaters there. Then we went to Dublin to attend the horse show. I never seen such grandure. It is considered the grandest show in the world. The horses on exhibition number into the thousands. The jumping performance was the most wonderful thing I ever saw, in which 500 horses took part. To describe it is too long to write. There were 30,000 people on the ground, and the grandest dressed ladies, most of them in pure white, such as point-lace, Irish-lace and Battenberg dresses, such as we would see worn by the actresses on the stage. The reception of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland was a treat in itself. The equal of it never was witnessed in a country where Royalty doesn't exist. First appeared the band and a brigade of Irish rifles. They took their position opposite the grand stand, which seated 15,000 people. Next on the scene was an advanced guard of the Inniskillen Dragoons (cavalry). They came three open carriages, each drawn by four beautiful black horses, with policemen and footmen, dressed in gold-lace uniforms and powdered wigs. Then came several companies of cavalry, selected from the finest regiments in Ireland. They drove around the track till they came to the grand stand, where the Royalty dismounted and took the seats especially provided for them on the grand stand, then their escorts disappeared until after the performance."

"It is too long to describe in detail, but to say the least, it was the grandest sight I ever seen. I hope you will some time get to see the same."

"There is a city here called Beleck, that has a factory where the famous Beleck chinaware is made, the only place in the world where this kind of chinaware is made. It is beautiful, and very expensive. It is all made by hand."

"If any one thinks Ireland is a poor, miserable country, they know nothing of it, as I have not seen a wet-bit of it that one would not admire."

FOUR TRAINS IN A PILE== OTHER LATE DISPATCHES

After careful analysis and experiments with the water supplies of the Klamath irrigation project, the government officials have found that the water of Lower Klamath lake contains so much alkali that it is unfit for irrigation purposes. The canal from the upper lake will therefore be extended to Merrill.

Rev. J. B. Stark, who was charged with having misappropriated church funds while on the Lakeview charge, was given a trial behind closed doors last week at the conference in session in Albany, and discharged from the Methodist ministry. He may appeal the case. He claims he was not given a chance to defend himself.

Senator Fulton departed for Washington, D. C., last Saturday. He aims to hasten the opening of the Roseburg land office, and may make a recommendation or two for postmaster, and will use his influence to hasten the Oregon Judgeship appointment, if the matter is pressed upon him.

One of the worst wrecks in the history of the Southern Pacific Co. occurred near Winnamucca last week, when two freight trains came together in a head-end collision, and as the first section of a passenger train was flagged and stopped just in time to prevent it from running onto the two wrecked trains, the second section came tearing along at full speed and crashed into the first section. Four trains were all in heap. One man was killed outright and about thirty other persons badly injured.

Chance for Gold Brick Man.

The following is from the Alturas Plaindealer, and if "a man" and the fighting preacher want to knock any teeth out they must call on Mr. Thompson. Don't get scared now Col., and apologize for what you have said. Stand your ground like The Examiner does.

Here is the article: "There are two counties of this upper country, Lake and Modoc, that offer rare opportunities for the working of the gold brick scheme. Operators need not fear that their scheme will fail, for every other swindling scheme known to smooth-tongued scoundrels has been worked with good results. Only last week a gold brick operator worked the old, worn out fake, "Rubber Goods," on citizens of Lake county, and doubtless will find abundant victims in Modoc. The Lakeview Examiner tells of his operations. It says: "

Quotes The Examiner article on "Rubber Goods."

"Now in all seriousness, when men will "bite" at bait of that character, any old fake, gold brick and all, will find plenty of "suckers" swarming around the hook. Common sense would tell one that a scheme promising such abundant returns would find among the millions of idle capital in the great money centers subscriptions in plenty, if the scheme were honest. The stock would be gobbled up many times over, and promoters would not have to travel over remote districts to dispose of their stock.

"Citizens had better let all these fakes schemes alone. If you have money to 'throw at the birds,' you will find that there are too many at which to throw, and that the birds will only remain while your money lasts."

Never-Failing Fruit Farm.

J. W. Loftus came over from Adel first of the week. Mr. Loftus made The Examiner office a visit and was led out on the subject of farming in Warner. He informed us that he had an abundant fruit crop this year. Peaches, apples, Bartlett pears and plums grow in his orchard as large as he ever saw anywhere, and he says, and he has the word of others, that his peaches, and in fact, all other fruits, are of as fine flavor as the Rogue River fruit. Well, if they are, they are far ahead, because they are absolutely free from worms or any other fruit pest, and keep every year till new fruit takes their place in the cellar, and are crisp and good when thrown out to make room for the new crop. Mr. Loftus says the spring frosts never touched his orchard, and his trees are loaded with fruit. He also raises all kinds of garden stuff that can't be beat for quality anywhere. He planted 5 pounds of Bayo beans last spring, and has thrashed 80 pounds of as fine beans as he ever saw. There is simply no price too high for such a ranch.

Surprise Valley News.

From the Record:

So far as the crops have been harvested good yields have been obtained, and we are informed that the grain will probably be more than an average crop this year.

Miss Nellie Snelling arrived here last week from San Francisco, where she has been for the past three years. She will visit her parents for a few weeks.

The Record also says that Bedney Hughes, one of the prosperous farmers of the valley, has a crop of peanuts and a crop of sweet-potatoes nearly ready to harvest.

Homer Page was up from Red Bluff last week with a load of canned fruits, which he readily sold, as the fruit crop in Surprise valley this year is almost a failure. Some apples and pears were raised in the vicinity of Lake City.

"I CANNOT IMAGINE HOW I CAME TO BE SO WEAK."

STOCK NEWS OF THE WEEK.

C. Swanson has bought the 77 beef steers, numbering 600.

C. W. Withers is again in this section of country to buy sheep.

Owen McKendrew and Ira McCall were over from Lonella first of the week after the 2500 sheep Mr. McKendrew bought here a few weeks ago.

J. W. Green, of the N. L. Co., returned from Gazelle, where he sold 425 of the N. L. stock to Edson, and shipped 25 head of cows to San Francisco. Jim expects to start about 350 more cattle and about 60 or 80 horses for Gazelle in a few days. These too will be shipped. He met a band of about 400 beef between here and Klamath Falls that Mr. Edson had bought in Lake county, mostly up north. The roads to the railroad are so dusty that they are almost impassable, owing to the great number of stock having been driven over and the long spell without rain.

The Bieber Gazette reports that Wm. Woods is in that section buying beef to be shipped to Chico. The price paid was $18 for cows and from $20 to $25 for steers.

A. N. Willey, the cattle buyer, informs us that he has purchased 600 head of cattle in this vicinity. The prices given us by Mr. Willey were for cows $18 and $19.—Alturas Plaindealer.

A big band of fine beef cattle belonging to Wm. T. Cressler was brought in from Guano last week. They are in fine condition for the block.

George Mapes, of Reno, drove 1300 head of good beef cattle thru town last week on their way to the railroad.

The Baptist Social.

A very pleasant entertainment and supper was given last Friday evening, Sept. 21, by the young ladies of Lakeview, for the purpose of furnishing the Baptist parsonage.

The supper consisted of oyster soup, ice cream and cake, it was well attended and everyone enjoyed a good time.

The Pastor and his family wishes to thank the people of Lakeview for their liberal patronage.

The amount taken in was $43.00.
