

MAKING ROOM:

We have been at it for some time, to make sufficient room to facilitate the handling and storing of our immense stock of FALL AND WINTER GOODS which is now arriving. The continuous increase in our trade necessitates more space.

YOU KNOW THE CAUSE:

The prices we are making for the HIGH GRADE GOODS we are selling makes this business grow, and CASH BUYERS are learning to take advantage of values we give.

We have added a full line of Bishops Canned Goods, Jellies, Jams, Fruits and Preserves. A full line of California Home Brand of Pickles, Olives, Chow-Chow, Chili Sauce, etc. A full line of Milling, Best Spices, Baking Powders, Teas and Coffees.

These relations to our customers show values as many pieces ahead of our competitors.

Prices on any or all lines will be furnished upon application for comparison.

At the Old Stand.

Lakeview, Or., Sept. 27. To my many friends as well as my old and new customers I am glad to advise you that I am again at the old stand, ready to save you money, as I have the management of this store, and Mr. Wingfield is entirely out of this business. If you want bargains now is your time, terms strictly cash, and no one can meet my prices. B. REYNOLDS, Manager.

A fellow who has been criticised by the editor of a local newspaper, applied to a lawyer to know how to break up the paper. He was told to buy the paper and run it six months. He was charged $2 for the advice.—Nysa News.

Silver Lake Items.

(From The Oregonian.)

A Johnson of Bowdoin, Wyoming and John Child of Eugene, Oregon, are in the valley trying to negotiate the purchase of several thousand head of horses for the eastern market.

W. A. Currier sold 100 head of horses, to Mr. Leonard of Sprague River and a Mr. Stevens, of Rogue River valley. The horses were unbroken and brought $50 per head at Mr. Currier's ranch in Summer Lake.

Jas. Porter, of Cottage Grove, this week bought from Thomas Jackson 150 head of cattle. The cattle summered on Klamath Marsh. Price paid is a secret.

The W. Bolton, Co. is one of the Oregonian's most liberal advertisers. Home merchants don't believe in printer's ink.

The Sherlock yearlings, it is reported, brought $2.75, delivered at Mattie's Butte, Sycan.

Martin & Wright started their beef from Klamath Marsh to Klamath Falls Wednesday.

Wm. Hough sold the last of his cattle to Horace Dunlap, this week.

Daniel Graf and Claude McCall came down from the mountains on Monday.

Sol. Chandler is up from Lakeview. He has sold the dry sheep of the B. E. Lane band to Louis Gerber.

(New Era.)

Green Smith, one of the solid and respected citizens of the Willow Ranch country, is here this week. Some time ago he was "buncoed" out of a fine stallion by the horse man, Leggett, and he is here trying to have something done before the grand jury. Mr. Smith surely has a just grievance, and we hope to see him get some satisfaction.

The town is full of Lakeview wool lions every night. Sometimes there are as many as ten here.

Larry Hall, who was severely cut about the neck and shoulders last week by Julius Joseph, is getting along all right.
